

ROCKY MOUNT MAIL

OUR COUNTRY, RIGHT OR WRONG; IF WRONG, TO BE SET RIGHT.

ROCKY MOUNT, N. C., SEPTEMBER 1, 1876. VOL. V. NO. 19.

Table with columns for 'SIZES', 'PER LINE', and 'PER ANNUM'. It lists rates for various ad sizes and durations.

Cught in a Shower. A midsummer day, and the raindrops were falling. And stirring the leaves in a slumberous way...

Then who should I meet but sweet Rose, the fairest Of all the sweet flowers that illumine the shore.

Her hat was a wreck, but the eyes that were smiling Beneath it were even as violet blue.

ATROCITIES IN BULGARIA. The bloodiest work of the Turkish-Terrific the bloodiest work of the Turkish-Terrific the bloodiest work of the Turkish-Terrific...

I went away, for I had seen too much. "Bashi" means in Turkish "head," and "Bazonk" "spoiled" or "damaged."

Immediately an old flag is brought out from the mosque, borne by a fellow who, in view of some past exploits, bears the title of chief, accompanied by two or three of the bravest of the village.

These reunions last several days, for it is the villagers furthest off that receive the notice last and who have the greatest distance to make.

The Little Russians inhabit an inland district in the southwest of Russia. They are a primitive people, and of their funeral rites a striking account has recently been given by a member of the St. Petersburg geographical society.

This, in effect, was the way the Bashi-Bazonks operated: They presented themselves before a Christian village, and, according to the "order of authority," required complete disarmament.

The Augustus (Me.) Journal says: The other day a gentleman from Portland came to Augusta, accompanied by a friend, and was stopping at the house of Mrs. Temple.

OUR CENTENNIAL LETTER. Woman and the Centennial—Brazilian Butterflies and Their Use—Miscellaneous Notes of the Exhibition.

Rio de Janeiro, Brazil, sends a collection of butterflies. The class insect, or Lepidoptera, Family Noctuidae, Section Bombycinidae, Genus Ahaea, Subgenus Saturnia, Species Arota.

Philadelphia has a chromotype cylinder press that prints five colors at once. Philadelphia also exhibits a paper collar machine, which cuts, stamps, buttonholes, and finishes 30,000 collars a day.

The beautiful frames and bands with ornaments inlaid on massive ground and gilt with burnished washing gold are the invention of Alois Scheidt.

Curious Case of Spasm. The Augustus (Me.) Journal says: The other day a gentleman from Portland came to Augusta, accompanied by a friend, and was stopping at the house of Mrs. Temple.

An old physician says: If a man is stricken by lightning, by him fall on his back, open his clothing at the pit of his stomach and dash on it a pail of the coldest water you can get.

A Romance of the Signal Service Bureau. A correspondent at Washington tells the following veracious anecdote: I heard a couple of days ago of a hitherto unpublished romance connected with the life of one of the most prominent officials of the signal service bureau.

The Boston Journal of Chemistry says: We have on former occasions referred to the value of fruits as articles of diet, both in health and sickness.

Indians in the War. Father Mesple, who is well posted on the Indian tribes, gives the following estimate of their numbers: He puts the Sioux down at 60,000; the Crow at 15,000; Blackfeet, 20,000; Utes or Utahs, 35,000; and in addition there are the Arapahoes, Minneconjous, Yantons, Umpapas, Two Kettles, San Acres, and Sontoo bands.

Of a Dramatic Turn. Of the good things floating about just now in the French papers the following is a very good specimen: A great sitting on the summit of a hill overlooking a garrison town.

A Letter from Stanley. The New York Herald has received a letter from Stanley bearing date of July 29, 1875. It contains the narrative of the explorer's adventures in the neighborhood of Lake Victoria Nyansa.

A widow at Martha's Vineyard is exhibiting the house in which her husband was killed by lightning. Admission costs twenty-five cents, and the curiosity is to be seen as a shattered bedstead, broken mirrors, and a photograph of the man after death.

The Source of Disease. The modern science of medicine, says the New York Tribune, has achieved its greatest triumph in detecting the immediate sources of many diseases and pointing out the means of avoiding them.

Resignation. Let nothing make thee sad and fretful, Or too regretful; Be still— What God hath ordered must be right; Then find it in thine own delight.
