LOCAL MATTERS.

Conundrum.
Why is Decanter Duncan like Sheriff Cooper's billy goat?

A Black Snake
Fully six feet long, was killed on Front street, in this town a few days ago.

Sickness.
There is considerable sickness hereabouts at present, and the Doctors are doing a good business. But we hear of no one being seriously ill.

Shrier Bros.,
Wilmington, N. C., is the place to buy Ready Made Clothing. They are reliable and sell low. Try them.

To Tax-Payers.
Pay your taxes and save costs. See Sheriff Cooper's advertisement. He means business.

New Advertisements.
George J. Freeman—$1,600 Reward.
W. J. Christian and others—Grand Excursion.

Col. W. L. Steele,
We regret to learn, is quite ill from an attack of fever. Hope he will soon be restored.

First Cotton Blossom.
The first cotton blossom that we have heard of in this section this season, was discovered on Thursday last in the patch of Maj. Long, in this town. Hurrah for the Major!

Are you Insured?
The North Carolina State Life Insurance company offers inducements to North Carolinians which we do not think are surpassed by any other company in the World. Let us encourage our home institutions instead of sending our money abroad to enrich strangers. See advertisement elsewhere.

Rockingham
At this time, we think, presents about as an inviting a field for a pestilence as any place of similar size in the State. The streets have not been cleaned within the recollection of the oldest inhabitant, while the cellar under Dr. Stansill's new store is about half filled with putrid water, which must send forth poisonous effluvia enough to kill half the people in town. Of course the Doctor is not influenced by selfish motives in allowing this putrid water to remain in his cellar, but its effects on the people is all the same. Will not our efficient Marshal or Mayor look a little into the sanitary condition of our city?

To Advertisers.
The Spirit of the South is now the only newspaper published in this town, and its circulation is greater than that of any other paper published in the Pee Dee country. This we are prepared to prove to advertisers who will take the trouble to call and examine our subscription books, which will be shown with pleasure. Advertisers will please make a note of these facts.

$1,000 Reward!!
The attention of our readers is called to the large reward offered in our advertising columns this week. And, reader if you want to buy anything in the dry goods or grocery line, don't fail to go and see Mr. George J. Freeman, near Sand Hill Depot. He will sell you goods cheap, and will buy your crude turpentine and pay you the biggest price. Go and see him. He will deal with you fairly and squarely.

Beef!
Our friends, Long & Moore seem determined to keep our people well supplied with good beef. That they furnished us on Thursday morning last was splendid. We long for more of the same sort.

"Where is our hog men?"—Wadesboro' Argus.
The last we saw of Decanter Duncan, he was in Rockingham, "drunk as a fool," and was still the same old hog that he always was—weight, just 28 pounds, according to the Fayetteville Eagle. But as to whether he went from here, we are as ignorant as he is himself.

"Richmond county needs a newspaper."—Wadesboro' Argus.
That is, we suppose, a paper published outside of Rockingham, to represent the county, the Spirit of the South being a local paper, and only representing this town. But how about the Scotchman, published at Laurinburg? Or, don't you look upon that battling as being entitled to the name of newspaper? But, we do not coincide with you, Decanter. But, if the Argus was the only paper published in Wadesboro', we should be willing to assert that Wadesboro' needed a newspaper. And, if your offspring was the only paper published in this county, we should most certainly agree with you that Richmond county needed a newspaper. As it is, however, we don't believe that any more papers are needed in this section, the Spirit of the South being abundantly able to watch over the interests of Rockingham and of Richmond county, as well as this entire section of North Carolina, as the Argus might be able to do in its locality were its eyes not "lulled to sleep" by the too frequent use of "bust head."

"Without the aid of advertisements I could have done nothing in speculation. I have the most complete faith in printer's ink. Advertising is the royal road to business."—Barnum.
He who invests one dollar in business, should invest one dollar in advertising that business.—A. T. Stewart.

My success is owing to my liberality in advertising.—ROBERT BONNER.

The most of the above tax is Rail Road tax which some of the parties don't know that they are due. This is the last chance to pay your tax without cost. All persons who come forward and settle the amounts opposite their names before the day appointed to sell will save money and trouble. If the land is sold the cost will be nearly as much as the tax.

A Proclamation BY THE GOVERNOR

OF NORTH CAROLINA.
EXECUTIVE DEPARTMENT.
RALEIGH, June 9th, 1873.

Be it known to all whom it may concern: That in conformity with section 8, chapter 153 of the acts of the General Assembly passed at the session of 1872-'73, in relation to amendments of the constitution of the State:

I, TOD R. CALDWELL, Governor of the State of North Carolina, do order so much of the preamble of said act as sets forth the alterations proposed and agreed to, and the second section of said act to be published for thirty days preceding the first Thursday of August, 1873, in the Raleigh "Daily Sentinel," the "Daily Era," and the "Daily News," published in Raleigh, and also for the same length of time in the following weekly papers, published in the various Congressional Districts of the State, to-wit:

- First District—"North Carolinian," Elizabeth City; "Express," Washington.
- Second District—"News," Goldsboro; "Mail," Rocky Mount.
- Third District—"Star," Wilmington; "Statesman," Fayetteville.
- Fifth District—"New North State," Greensboro; "Chronicle," Milton.
- Sixth District—"Democrat," Charlotte; "Spirit of the South," Rockingham.
- Seventh District—"American," Statesville; "Watchman," Salisbury.
- Eighth District—"Pioneer" and "Expositor," Asheville.

That portion of the preamble ordered to be published is in the following words, to-wit:

"WHEREAS, The last General Assembly, (three-fifths of the whole number of members of each House concurring,) the bill containing the same having been read three times in each House, proposed the following alterations of the Constitution of the State to-wit: Alteration in relation to the public debt; alteration in relation to the office of Superintendent of Public Works; alteration in relation to the State census; alteration in relation to exemptions from taxation; alteration in relation to the University; alteration in relation to the sessions of the General Assembly; alteration in relation to the Code Commissioners; alteration in relation to Federal and other officers holding office."

The second section of the said act ordered to be published is in the following words, to-wit:

"It shall be the duty of the Sheriffs in each and every county in the State to open polls at the several election precincts in his county on the said first Thursday in August next, and the same shall be kept open for one day, from the hour of eight o'clock in the morning to the hour of seven in the afternoon, when all persons qualified to vote according to the Constitution, may vote for or against the ratification of each of the said amendments, those desiring such amendments to vote with the written or printed ticket 'For Amendments,' those of a contrary opinion to vote with a written or printed ticket, 'Against Amendments.'"

The attention of County Commissioners and Inspectors of the Election is also called to the 4th section of said act of Assembly which provides that separate ballot-boxes shall be furnished for each amendment to be voted on.

Done at our City of Raleigh, the [15] ninth day of June, A. D., 1873, and in the ninety-seventh year of American Independence.

TOD R. CALDWELL.
By the Governor:
J. B. NEATHERY, Private Secretary.
