SAMUEL FULTON, PUBLISHER.

This Argus o'er the People's rights doth an eternal vigil keep :

THE NORTH CAROLINA ARGUS, IS PUBLISHED WEEKLY, BY EDITOR AND PROPRIETOR.

TERMS OF THE PAPER. Two Dollars in Advance. Two Dollars and Fifty Cents if paid before the expira

Three Dollars if not paid until after the expiration of LP No paper discontinued until all arrestages are paid, unless at the option of the Editor.

TERMS OF ADV RTISING. One square, first insertion, - - $1.00

" each subsequent insertion - - 25 A liberal discount made to those who a wertise by the ixteen lines, or less, make a square. 11' All letters addressed to the Editor must be post-

THE LAW OF NEWSPAPERS.

I. All subscribers, who do not give express notice to the contrary, are considered as wishing to continue their spousible till their bills are settled and their paper ordered to

4. The Courts have decided that refusing to take a news paper or periodical from the office, or removing and leaving it uneailed for, is " prima facie" evidence of INTENTIONAL

BAGGING, ROPE AND TWINE. A full supply of Bagging, Rope and Twine, for sale on

Cheraw, S. C., July 16-29-tf

ASHBOROUGH English, Classical and Mathematical

Ashborough is an paconimply harlthy place, is re-Sophomore or Junior Class in any of our Colleges. an dents are required to attend divine service on Sales bath marning, and Sabbath School in the afternoon.

J. H. BROOKS, Principal.

Lost mislaid or stolen, the following Moles, the property of Wm. Allen Ben on; Oue of 6:100, made by James Segos and John McLendon ; one at $75 made by Dr. Twitty; and of $90 made by John D. Monte. The persons who made said Notes are a quested not to pay them to any person except the subscriber, and all other persons are hereby potified not to transfer said, Notes.

Jan. 10, 1851,—21f W. B. McCORKLE, Guar'n.

TO SHIPPERS ON THE PEE DEE, VIA CHERAW, S. C.

T. MORGAN,

IS THE ONLY REGULAR Forwarding & Commission Mirchant, CHERAW', S. C.

NTING! PRINTING!!

The Publisher of The North Carolina Argus would rest specifully inform his friends and the public, that he is prepared to do all kinds of PRINTING in a manner

THAT CANNOT BE SURPASSED IN THE UNITED STATES! Having recently received a fresh supply of HORDER and JOB TYPE from New York, he thinks he can Challenge the State in the line of Jobs!!

Any kind of COLORED WORK dene to order, at short notice, and on moderate terms.

FASHIONABLE

A fresh supply of silk and beaver Hats-latest style vs' Plush Caps; a good assortment of men's foth Caps. If you can't come yourself send. Students intending to enter should apply as early as post go and wash. Soil Call at the P Office oliege, N. C., Dec. 13, 1850.

YEAR! RANGEMEN

The subscriber, in consequence of his bad health, has beelined taking regular boarders for the present year. His house of entertainment will be kept open in Court weeks and on public occasions only. Under this arrangement he will be prepared with rooms and beds for all who may favor him with a call, and will spare no pains to make his guests comfortable.

Thankful to his patrons for past favors, he hopes still to H. R. WEST. merit their patronage. Wadesborough, January 1st, 1851. 3 4 tf. N. B. All persons indebted to me, in any way, are requested to call and settle by the middle of this month, or they will have to settle with an officer. H. R. W.

TORN D. WILLAMS,

FORWARDING AND COMMISSION MERCHANT,

FAYETTEVILLE, N. C. August 1st, 1850.

Saddles, Bridles, &c.

THE subscriber would respectfully inform his old customers that he has again opened a shop near his old stand, (next door to the Brick Store,) and is now receiving his Fall stock of materials, consisting of almost every article usually kept in his line. He has and will keep constantly on hand, a good assortment of Saddles, Bridles, Martingals, &c., and will soon have a very choice lot of Buffalo Robes. He deems it quite unnecessary to name any articles, but particularly invites persons in want of arcles in his line to call before purchasing elsewhere. Nov. 20, 1850.- 4710 WM. SHADDING.

NORTH CAROLINA TANNERY

Bar Boot & Shoe Factory, Far

WADESBOROUGH, N. C. SAMUEL FULTON

Having just bought the Wades-borough Tannery, lately owned by Thos. S. Little, and more recently by Grimsley & Liles, is determined to carry on the business of king in all their various branches, in the very best style, and according to the latest improvements.

Samuel Fulton, having, for some years past, noticed with regret, the very large amounts of money sent to the North for articles in the above line, is determined, so far as he can, to keep the most of such money at home, to be used for the benefit of this community; and to further the above design, he is determined to keep the very best workmen, the very best material, and to work on the most lib-

Some may say that the business of making boots and shoes is incompatible with that of publishing a paper. To all such, if any such there be, S. F. would me, ely remark, that he, being a strong union MAN, believes that the above trades or callings ought to be carried on conjointly, for the following reasons: -A publisher of a newspaper works for people's heads, or their mental understandings; a shocmaker works for the feet, or physical understandings; now, why should they not be joined together? In furtherance of this view he has rented the store, now occupied 2. If subscribers order the discontinuance of their papers, by W. H. Hutchinson, directly under the Printing Office, the publishers may continue to send them until arrearages | where he would be very happy to see all those having either feet or heads, as the first-named part of the body cor-3 If subscribers neglect or refuse taking their papers porate can be accommodated down, and the second-named 3 It subscribers neglect or refuse taking their papers up stairs. Workmen and made-up work and leather will also be found at the Tau-yard.

REPAIRING neatly done on moderate terms, and on

Call and examine our work. You are not bound to trade. HIDES and Skins of every description wanted, for which the best prices will be paid. The best description of Band Leather always on hand. IF A first-rate PEG-WORKMAN wanted, to whom the best wages will be paid.

THOMAS S. CROWSON'S EUREKA

WARRANTED TO CURE IN ALL CASES OF Dyspepsia, Liver Complaint, and other Chronic Diseases.

THE subscriber, well aware of the very great prejudice entertained by the public against the numerous pat-ent nestroms, which crowd the public Gazettes, pro-"FURFKA;" and would not now do so were he not con-straint, from the clustless invertanities of his fronds, and many afflicted placents, who have been infrasionally small, as if a few from the paster by he magic virtue,

The subscriber, after ten years' labor and examination into the vegetable kingdom, attended with no little expense Liver Complaint, and Independent in all as forms, having neat as possible to be, never failed to care in the first as-tance. The Eureka is Far different the se these minerals which so often prove destructive to the con-

Price SI per Bottle.

TRAVIS LILES

Has now on hand, at his Nursery, in Union county, N. Co. 10 miles and of Monroe, and 19 west of A quantity of the various kinds of Fruit Trees, consist-ng of Summer, Fall and Winter Fruits, of the best kinds thown in this country, selected with great care, no pains a good assertment of Soft and Plum Nectative and Jarni- unsuitable place, gan Peach; also the Tennessee and October Peach. $1.4 A large quantity of Apple Trees, of every variety, ter a pauses. Tunner-$10 perhandred, if delivered within 100 miles of the nursery. A liberal discount made when trees Blain's baby was; poor little dear."

are delivered at the Nersery. . Time for Transulanting. Apple Tukes: The somer these are transplanted afer the Lith day of November, the better?

PEACH TREES!-The somer after the 15th October the III All orders for 200 trees, or upwards, addressed to speakers ears for his interference. Travis Liles, Beaver Dani, Union County, N.C., will be punctfully attended to December 6th, 1850.

. CARTHAGE

Male Academy.

Rev. F. X. FORSTER, A.M., Principal. The exercises of this Institution will com-THE Somence on MONDAY the 20th of January.

50tf on account of its healthiness and its freedom from tempta- day before yesterday. tion to dissipation. A strict oversight of the students will at all times be exercised by the Principal. No idle or disorderly andent will be permitted to remain connected with the school.

The Principal is a graduate of Randolph Mason Col, lege, Virginia, and brings the highest recommendations rom the Faculty of that Institution, Prof. Shipp, of Chapel Hill, and others. Students will be prepared for any College they may prefer, and for any class in College. January 17th, 1851.

The undersigned have this day associated themselves in the Mercantile Business in this town, under the name and style of G. & D. B. HTBBARD, at George S. Hubbard's old stand, East of the Court House, where we shall be pleased to see and wait on our old friends and the pub-GEO. S. HUBBARD, DANIEL B. HUBBARD. Wadesborough, January 1st, 1851.

FIRM AND NEW GOODS

At the Cheap Cash and Credit Stone, Where can be found the most Goods and the greatest variety of any store in the county. Call and examine for G. & D. B. HUBBARD.

Offices to Rent,

OR FOR SALE ... The Four lower Offices on Colonel Pickett's Row are to be let very cheap. For further information apply to E. NELMS OF J. P. SMITH. January 3rd, 1851-11f

Of everydescription, for sale at this Office

For The North Carolina Argus. SPRING. We welcome thee, sweet Spring,

With all thy beauties rare-Heaven breathes a soft perfume, A rich and balmy air. The little warbling throng

Chant forth their minstrel lay,

We hear them at the dawn. And at the close of day. The ploughman, too, goes forth, The tiller of the soil ;

We hear his merry voice, While at his fav rite toil. Flowers again peep forth To meet the morning sun :

Is breathed by every one. All nature has revived, From a long, wintry death, Sweet Spring now blows again, Its mild and pleasant breath.

Their fragrance rich and sweet,

Thus while we hail thy dawn, To God we give the praise, Who leads us safely on, And lengthens out our days.

March 3, 1851.

HOMES AND HUSBAND. A TALE FOR YOUNG WIVES.

The sultry snmmer day was past, and the cool air of evening was murmuring among the green leaves, and bending the slender stalks of the flowers, as it swept onward to fan the heated brow of the husbandman, who had toiled throughout the long day beneath the glowing sky.

Iti But to none among the band of homewardbound laborers did the evening breeze seem more refresing than to three, whose baskets of tools, borne over their shoulders, denoted them carpenters. They had, in truth, passed the whole of the day on the top of a lofty house, preparing it for slates, and had suffered not a little from the intense heat; and now, with wearied frames, they were pursuing their way home. At the entrance of the village where they lived, Draper, Gale and Burnt separated, each to seek his owndwell

There was not a neater or clearer abode in the the chan was remas franily, feels a delicacy in offering to the public his village than that awaiting the receptua of Draof the Waws, around which fluttered curtains polished till it show nice a mirror; tresti flowers breathed forth their fragrance from the chimney tion saw mill I ever witnessed." has at last found that which he can conscientiously offer table, and Mrs. Draper and her children were as not all to work well? Far different the scene which awaited Gale extracted entirely from vegetables, and is free from any of his house was in disorder, his children untidy, and his wife absent. The last named evil, however, The Eureka can be had by applying at the Office of was soon remedied, for one of the children disthe Subscriber, formerly occupied by P. H. Wington, Esq. patched in quest of the mother, soon returned "You are here already, Tom!" she exclaimed rushing in breathlessly in a gown that certainly had seen quite a week's hard service. "I had no thought it was so late. But supper will soon be ready. Light the fire, there's a good fellow, you are to get up your saw-logs." while I cuts a rasher and wash the lettuce, and we'll soon have supper.

"I am so fired, Mary, that I would rather do without supper than light the fire," said Gale, throwing himself on a scat.

"Are you?" Well then, don't; I'll soon get it ready myself," said the wife, beginning to busthe about; in the course of which she broke more aving been spared on the task. He also keeps on hand than one article of crockery, put for the time in Georgetown, "praying Congress to take some "Where were you, Mary ?" inquired Gale, af-"I had just stepped out to see how Mrs.

" Mother has been gone ever since tea," said the eldest child, a boylof some six years old. "You abominable little story-teller, how can you say so? I was gone no time at all!" ex-on preparing her husband's supper; more indus- producted by the action of the abolitionists, and triously than rapidly, since she had to clean most will continue to increase until that class of peoof the articles she required, ere she could use ple shal be excluded from the Southern States. them. Then, by that time, the children became This result we consider as inevitable. The mobcross and pecvish, because they were sleepy; ocratic disposition exhibited by the free negroes and when supper was at length ready, she had of Boston, their open defiance of the law; and to go up stairs to put them to bed; then return- the encouragement which they receive from a deing, she swallowed her own meal hastily, and graded portion of the white population, have

The mation is one of the most desirable in the State, ment. "I thought you were to have washed the "Well, so I meant; but I was interrupted, she replied. " Mrs. Plain came in to-day, and Mrs. Strong yesterday, and to day I had not time. And now I must wash, for neither the children to brive slaveholders of their property, and "So it would appear," said Gale, glancing at the dark tint of her naturally light gown. "So it would appear, indeed !" she cried angrily. "I suppose you expect to see me as clean and neat, and every thing as well done as if I were a lady and kept a couple of servants!"

" No, Mary;" said her husband, gravely. "] form no such extravagant expectations; all I ask daily bread might be spent by you in some occupation more profitable than gossipping, and so let me find a quiet and orderly house on my return, and a companion such as you used to be in the earlier days of our wedded life."

But the affectionate tone of the last words exercised no softening influence on the aroused spirit of the indignant wife, and a quarrellensued, which ended, as it had often done before, in Gale taking his hat, and finding at the public house the comfort he could not find in his own. little garden, entered his pretty cottage home, rily by the window. shoes when you came in!" was the wife's salutation as she entered the room.

Well, my dear, and if I did not, there could dust on them, she reforted, crossly, and you oak barte, Wadesborough, N. C., Saturday, March 15, 1851.

and old a most industrious wife Sud her husband in all sincerity, yet he for his home, though it was pleasant to at, was very uncomfortable. am glad you admit that,' she said, shortly, como, now, supper is ready.'

ANECDOTE OF JEFFERSON. Mr. Stansbury, in Arthur's Home Gazette, re-

the following anecdote of the Sage of Mon-He had perched his country seat on a mounin height, commanding a magnificent prospect, but exposed to the wintry winds, and not very convenient of access. Not far from Monticello. and within the bounds of his estate, was a solitary and lofty hill, so situated as to be exposed to the blast of two currents of wind, coming up through valleys on different sides of it. Mr. Jef-ferson thought this would be an admirable posion for a wind-mill; and having recently invented a model for a saw-mill, to be moved by yerhim through, and being asked by the philosopher, gard to the Compromise measures.

see wit proceeded. When the frame was up, materials. The Sewardites in the Legislature into forgetfulness. Some time about the middle and the building approached its completion, the would gladly avoid a declaration of sentiment on of December a member introduced a bill to auengineer rode over to Monticello, to obtain a sup- the subject at this session, well knowing that thorize the burning of the old poll-books in the ply of money, and to get some directions about the stws. Jefferson kept him to dinner, and when a character as the resolutions of the last Legisla- Our hero totally mistook the abject guest, and with an air o greatest improvements in the construc-

" You think the sails are so hung that it canrtainly; it must work, it can't help it." it does not come up one valley, it is sure to come up So other; and the hill is so high and steep that there is nothing to interrupt the full sweep of the wind, come which way it will. You think, then, on the whole, that the thing cannot fail of complete success?" "I should think so, sir, but for one thing." "Ah! what's that ?

" Thave been wondering in my own mind how news Shought of that." The mill was abandoned, of course. EFFECTS OF NORTHERN ABOLITION-

The Senate, on Thursday last a memorial was presented from the corporate authorities of step to relieve that city of the free negro populater ? The District being under the peculiar guardianship of Congress, no relief in the premithe people's representatives.

Commenting upon this proceeding, the Baltimore Chipper says: versal sentiment of the Southern States, and of some sorts of offenders .-- S. Carolinian. claimed the mother, irritated into boxing the some of the free States also, as is indicated by their legislation forbidding free persons of color The child ran away crying, and Mrs. Gale went to enter their borders. This feeling has been come, had it not been for the officious into erencaref the abolitionists. By their direct efforts nor you have a clean thing to put on; and for their inflamatory appeals to the colored population of the South-their protection of fugitive slaves, and encouragement to both slave and free FATHER MATHEW AND JENNY LIND. to resist the laws of the country, they have produced an exciting state of feeling, which will render it impossible for free persons of color to retain their present position in southern communities. . However this condition of things may be gretted, it has been forced upon the South by pretended friendship of Northern fanatics for is, that the hours I am working hard to earn our the Southern race. The movement for the remo and the free colored people will become general; and should all the free States follow the example of Indiana and Iowa, in denying admission to these people on their removal from the South, they will be reduced to the necessity of seeking the colonies in Africa for homes and safe-

TALL TREES.

in Australia there are the Lighest trees in the world. One of an unknown kind has been found Meanwhile, Draper passed through his trim there measuring 220 feet from the ground to the and sitting down his basket, seated himself wea-Another sort of great tree there is called Eucalypus gigantea. It rises to the height of 300 feet, be no mud on them this weather,' he replied. and often is 40 feet in circumference. Its bark electing Mr. Bright U. S. Senator.

Ohio-For Gen. Cass. Michigan-Servile to the lowest degree.

Connecticut-Compromise and peace.

of the Free Soilers, and as boldly pro-slavery as can be.

New Hampshire-Utterly service. Maine-For the Compromise. Most readers know, (says the Buffulo Commercial Advertiser) that the Free Soil papers the usual time and started for the door, when stigmatize as servile and pro-slavery all who do Parson B. exclaimed : not denounce the Constitution as "an atrocious bargain," and who are not willing to sacrifice the ticil sails, he sent for an engineer, and submitted Union and the welfare of more than twenty mil- gazed towards the pulpit. it to his judgment. The man of professional sei- lions of white people in obedience to one impracexamined the plan, and listened with pro- ticable idea. Making the necessary allowance is no need of your leaving church at this time; ad attention and deference to Mr. Jefferson's for the peculiar phrascology of the Democrat, its as I passed the tavern this morning, I made arthe advantages it would secure. Having heard sitions occupied by most of the free States in rehat he thought of it?" he replied, with great The Journal of Commerce says : "We do not can hardly be imagined. centry, that it was a most ingenious idea, and consider Wisconsin, Ohio, or Massachusetts, decidedly the best plan for a saw mill he had sound, as yet, on the subject of the Compromise, SCENE IN THE ARKANSAS LEGISLAseen. Jefferson was delighted, and forth- &c., but they are fast becoming so. California entered into a written agreement for the is undoubtedly prepared to sustain the Comproon of such a mill on the neighboring height, mise as it is. Rhode Island is doubtful. Verwork went bravely on-the inventor very fre, mont is decidedly heretical. New York is like mentary history of the man with the "white by mounting his horse and riding over to Nebuchadnezzar's image, made up of discordant blanket coat," which we are unwilling should pass and wine set upon the ta- tree, which still stand as the voice of the Empire as was his custom, and sappo

Messrs, Beekman, Thompson, on burn all the records of the counter. The place grounds with including the counter to the place grounds with including the counter to the another year beginning to the dishonor which now rests upon our all speaker: This proposition confounds my counter the dishonor which now rests upon our all speaker: This proposition confounds my prophets. All we ask of the members is to tell What, sir! burn up the universal memorials of promise, including the Fugitive Slave Law, or well as of the present transactions? How, sir, will you go for repeal or essential modification? | would posterity know what we are doing? Obliafter turn, until a decision shall be reached that would as soon vote ave to burn in one common is decisive and final. So mote it be." CAPITAL PUNIHMENT:

Capital punishment has been abolished for several years in Michigan. But it would appear from the following resolutions adopted at a late meeting of the Common Council of Detroit, that the people of that portion of Michigan are satpunishment in that State :

this Council that the safety and protection of hu- he gazed at the member for two minutes; and man life imperiously demand the reinstating of then inquired "To buth up the old view vocy sisthe death penalty, of murder in the criminal code of laws of Michigan. "Resolved, That we, the Common Council of the city of Detroit, in council convened, do hereby respectfully, though earnestly, request our State Legislature to give the above subject their serious consideration, and in view of the alarming

HOOPER AND JENNY LIND.

The following shows how near an Alabama, the Jerseys, would never have occurred but for editor came to hearing Jenny Lind. Hooper is his means. " Our Distress .- We wanted to hear Jenny Lind sing. In the deepest well of our heart we craved the celestial vocalism. Accordingly we started last week, determined to 'do or die.' We got to Cusseta-took the train-whizzed patting aside the dirty plates, declared she must tond dissertion to expel them go and wash.

"Wash!" exclaimed the husband in astonishdanger public tranquility, and perhaps lead to their extermination. The relations existing be- nies above, before we are prepared by Jenny to hear them? Arrived in Montgomery-waited tween these opie and the white population hear them? Arrived in Montgomery—waited migrat have busined undisturbed for years to out.' Immediately 'borried' an X and returned ight home again to the Tribune, 'whar' we are prepared to do advertising and receive subscripons on more favorable terms than before."

The distinguished apostle of Temperance, Fathey met at last with undisguised pleasure. The wore those things at home. ite their occupation and course through life, they then. The mother, sir, and the poor fellow himboth start from and meet at the same splendid self -- ah, sir, it was terrible -- Merchant's Ledger. goal. May both long live to enjoy a deservedly great reputation for all the qualities that adorn HEREDITARY MISFORTUNE. - A gentleman speak ing of the wife of a certain-nobleman, lamented very much that she had no children; upon which thereby increase their profits. 2 tet; at the ground its circumference is 130 a medical man who was present observed, that to "Oh, Draper, I am sure you never wiped your feet; at the feet high, 102 feet. This tree is have no children was a great misfortune, but he per telly sound; it stands in a forest of sassafras. thought he had remarked it was hereditary in Francisco with gas. They give their mayor a some families.

> SILVER STILL GOING .- The Cunard steamer hundred and fifty thousand dollars in silver.

Illinois-Pro slavery out and out and Sena Lece the parson was two thirds through his sertor Shields, elected as a Free Soller, changing mon. This was practiced so long, that after a while it became a matter of course, and no one, Indiana-All for the Compromise, and re-lecting Mr. Bright U. S. Senator. save the divine, seemed to take notice of it. And he at length notified Brother P. that such a thing must, he felt assured, be needless, but P. said that at that hour his family needed his ser-Pennsylvania - Electing as U. S. Senator, vices at home, and he must do it; nevertheless Broadhead, as rank a pro-slavery man as can be on leaving church he always took a roundabout found.

New Jerseu—For the Compromise in all its brought him in close proximity with the village tavern, which he would enter, " and thereby hangs a tale." . Massachusetts-Governor elected by the votes | Parson B. ascertained from some source that P.'s object in leaving church was to obtain a "dram," and he determined to stop his leaving and disturbing the congregation in future, if such a thing was possible.

The next Subbath Brother P. left his seat at

" Brother P. !" P: on being thus addressed, stopped short and "Brother P." con

The surprise and mortification of the brother

TURE. There is an incident connected with the parlia cutcheon. But it will be done, or we are no comprehension, and prays loudly on my feelings. us where they stand. Will you sustain the Com- all our progeny which have gone before us, as On this issue the politics of New York will here- vion would float over us forever! Why: sir_I conflagration the Scriptures of the Bible! Then, sir, I would like to know who, ah, who, sir, could tell when Christ made his advent into the new testament! I'll not go for a measure so diabeli: cal and multifarious-never!" Here he of the "blanket" became so much excited that the mover of the bill interrupted him, and told him it was not to burn all the records, but Jefferson threw up his hands and eyes. "I listied with the effects of the abolition of capital only the old poll-books that had accumulated in the offices under the old mea roce system of elections. His mouth fell open, his eyes expanded; " Resolved, That it is the painful conviction of and his long arms dropped to his side, while

The mover of the bill nodded.

" Then burn and bed-d!"

A HEBREW WITHOUT GUILE. The attention of the world is always caught ses can be obtained, excepting by the action of multiplicity of murders in the State of Michigan, by military deeds, and a nation's gratitude is fully see if the above death-penalty is not absolutely bestowed on the soldier. But it should not be forgotten that the civilian is as useful, patriotic, The New York Globe remarks that the only and meritorious as the soldier. Robert Morris is The memorial expresses, we believe, the uni- objection to hanging is that it is too good for comparatively unknown, yet he sacrificed a princely fortune for the cause of American liberty. He pledged his credit and wealth, and mised the means to clothe, feed and arm the troops. The battle of Trenton, the campaign in Delaware and Another individual, who assisted his adopted country with his fortune, was Havne Solomon, a Polish Jew, of Philadelphia. His beirs have now a claim before Congress, for the payment in part of the sums advanced by him for the actual main tenance of the members of Congress. At the time of his death, he held $353,729 against the Confederacy. The letters of Madison and other and of the generosity of the man who refused any remuneration, except the return of the principal, The books of the Bank of North America showthe receipts by Robert Morris from Hayne Solomon of $200,000 in cash. It is certainly one of the strongest claims ever presented to the justice of the nation.

AN AFFECTING SCENE.

At the last interview between a condemned ther Mathew, called on Mr. Barnum to renew criminal and his wife, their child-a bonnie wee the acquaintance of old times. The Rev. Father thing, just beginning to prattle, was playing about esired much to see Miss Lind, and Mr. B. es- the cell. Her eye was arrested by the glitter of orted him to her presence. Both the Rev. Fa- the bolts that confined her father's legs, and she ther and the distinguished Swede had it seems, cried out, in blissful ignorance of their use, "Oh, long wished to know each other personally and daddy, daddy, what pretty things !" You never philanthropic, noble hearted priest and pure gen- "Many a sad thing have I seen," said the crous, charitable woman might well desire to be- honest jailor who tells the story, "and many a ome personally acquainted. Each does much bitter cry have I heard within those walls, but good to suffering humanity; and however oppo- never one which made me blubber like a child till

The New York Tribune says that the recent reports of gold being found in abundance in Central America turns out to be a humber. It was started by some enterprising hotel owners in Chinandega, who wished to draw a crowd there, and

They are preparing to light the city of San yearly salary of $10,000.

A negro meeting has been held in Sacramen-'No, but I'll be bound there was plenty of is excellent for tanning, being twice as strong as which sailed on Wednesday had on board two to, California, petitioning the Legislature for equal rights with the whites,