

GREAT GRAY AND LITTLE WOOL.

The Enquirer makes a great fuss over the small fact that Mr. Gray, of Calhoun, an obscure local politician, has come out for Buchanan. Surely the Enquirer must be hard on a little capital, when it has to strain its lungs over an insignificant change like this.

It is the only way to keep himself advertised. But the world is large enough for him and all of us. Let him try—Richmond Whip.

We always thought that a man who was weak enough to publish to the world that he had been deceived—cheated—mistaken as to the objects and principles of the American party was a great thing.

THE AMERICAN STATE COUNCIL OF NORTH CAROLINA.—A Washington despatch, of the 25th ult., to the New York papers, says: I am credibly informed that the American State Council of North Carolina has determined to recommend all the judges of the State to cast their votes for Buchanan instead of Fillmore.

It would be a task that the strength of a Hercules would be totally inadequate, to notice or attempt to enumerate all the falsehoods that are constantly raised and set afloat by the unprincipled hireling portion of the anti-American and black republican press, in a vain endeavor to check the onward march of the National American candidates for the Presidency.

A LIE CAUGHT ON ITS TRAVELS.—Those editors who have been so desirous to make it appear that Herbert, the M. C. from California, was a Democrat, and attended the Cincinnati Convention to favor the nomination of Mr. Buchanan, are informed that he does not go for Mr. Buchanan, that he heads the Know Nothing electoral ticket in California.—Baltimore Post.

THE SOUTHERN STAR.—The Washington Enquirer, the national organ of the Fillmore party, admits, and in so many words states, that there is not the least chance for Fillmore. We give the Enquirer the credit for never having hugged the absurdity of supposing that Fillmore is the event of their being no chance (choice) by the people, or if not, that he will be elected by the States through the House of Representatives.

MR. BUCHANAN ON SLAVERY. Partial as this is, Mr. Chairman, for a moment to be inserted upon this floor, add to which, I trust, I may never again have occasion to refer. I mean the subject of slavery. I believe it to be a great political, and a great moral evil. I think God has not been sent in a State where it does not exist.

The democratic party is presenting extracts from Mr. Buchanan's record to the people. "Am in his faith a little blind, And to his virtues very kind."

For the Argus. WASHINGTON, N. C., Sept. 9, 1856. Col. CARTER—Dear Sir: A large Fillmore and Donelson Club was formed here to-day, with the following officers:

President, Maj. P. Richardson. Vice President, Nelson P. Liles. Secretary, Dr. Wm. O. Bennett. Treasurer, Wm. E. Troy.

Mr. ENOK: I am no writer, but I feel so anxious that Edward Fillmore should be the next President of the United States, that I can not refrain from sending you a few lines. I am encouraged to believe from my observation that though we could not elect Fillmore, we can carry the State for Fillmore and Donelson, from the fact that we have good conservative men enough to elect him.

Private advices from Kansas City announce that Lane is about to attack Westport, Kansas City, and Independence, also that the free-State men had surrounded Gen. Richardson's forces north of Lawrence and cut off their retreat. Gen. Geary had arrived at Lawrence and had had a consultation with Gen. Smith; he would proceed to Lawrence in a few days.

THE ST. LOUIS DEMOCRAT yesterday announces that Richardson had been taken prisoner by the free-State men and carried before Lane, who returned his arms and sent him back under escort. Great indignation was exhibited at Lawrence north to the possession of a captured article by Lane. Gen. Smith sent four companies of United States troops to protect the town, and Lane, meanwhile, was still at Lawrence, with an intention of leaving his position.

THE GEORGE LAW BRINGS $1,600,000 in gold, on freight. There is no sickness among the passengers. The Virginia Committee unconditionally released Judge Terry on the 7th. On the 18th a grand parade and review of the committee forces took place. They were well armed and appointed, and numbered four to five thousand. The committee had not officially disbanded, but it was understood that the functions for the present were held at the convention at Sacramento on the 27th to nominate Presidential electors and members of Congress.

I believe it to be a great political, and a great moral evil. I think God has not been sent in a State where it does not exist.
