The Argue is a sworn Know Nothing journal. Its Editor has explored every cultert and handled every dark lautern between Cross Crock and the South-Carblina line. The allucion of the Standard to the Editor of this paper in connection with the culvert and the dark lantern, furnishes no evidence whatever of its own in-tanleulate purity. On the contrary, we think, it concludeely shows that wherever the Editor of that sheet hay have grawled, he is quite as dirty a fellow as we are. But deprive the Organ of such weapons as culwit and the whole of its argoment.

We do unhesitatingly express our d'sapprobation of those frresponsible concluves so frequently invoked by the spirit of party, to juggle the people out of their rights. It was but the other day that we haw the following notice under the editorial head of the Standard DEMOCRATIC STATE CONVENTION.

"The members of the Democratic State Committee, are respectfully requested to meet in the City of Raleigh, on Friday, the 8th day of January, 1858, to determine on the time and place for holding the next

Democratic State Convention; and to take such other steps as they may consider expedient and proper to promote the Democratic cause in North Carolina.

The marchers of the Committee, in the order named by the President of the last State Convention, are as follows: Wim. W. Holden, of Wake; James Fulton, of New Honover; James H. White, of Gaston; James A. Waugh, of Foreyth; Robert S. French, of Roberton; Wim. A. Jenkins, of Warryn; Wim. K. Lane, of Wayne; Wm. A. Jenkins, of Warren; Wm. K. Lane, of Wayne; David Coleman, of Yancey R. P. Waring, of Mock-lemburg; and Joseph Allison, of Orange. W. W. HOUDEN, Chairmon.

These worthles then, with W. W. HOLDEN at their head, constitute the callet that is to be convened in the City of Raleigh on the 8th day of January next, to fix the wires, set the triggers, and "take such other steps as they may consider expedient and proper" to advance the personal aggrandizement of the few at the expense of the many citizens of North Carolina. They will appalet the time and piece for the "Convention," ferenoth I and, doubtless, contrive some plan by which village politici ag and greedy spolismen will be enusand suitable delegates and all "good Democrats" abe refuse to ratify their doings will receive the lash of the Organ and be duly excommunicated from the party. And this is Democracy; and who, we ask, would not as suon " he a dog and bay the moon," as to fear and tremble at the lash of such a junto? Who made them dictators? By what authority " William W. Hollen, Chairman," and his " committee" assemble together to dispose of the freemen of North Carolina? -But we beg pardon: they are not free. They are a pour down-trodden, elique-ridden generation, who are expected to pay taxes, elect govbroors, and do the hidding of their masters generally.

Me. As the sud of the year approaches, we are compelled to detate too much of our time to our books and accounts to pay the usual attention to our editorial columns. Most of our patrons, we are sorry to say, are sadly in arrears with us; and this makes our labors the more irknows as well as vexatious. liesides our assistant has been absent some time, and we bare no aid in our laborious employments.

We are under obligations to Mr. L. V. Blum, of Balem, for a copy of his very valuable Farmer's and Planter's Almausch for the year 1858. This has al ways been a popular work with the Planters and Parmers of this State, on account of the valuable information usually contained in it; and the number for-1858, we think, falls behind no one of its predecess-

The Edibor of the Standard has therefore enjoyed the eminent navantage of belonging to both of the parties; and mently; he is somewhat in the appdition of the alf that sucked two cows : The more he sucked the greater calf he grew.

"THE LITTLE GIANT." Mr. Senator Douglas, the "Little Giant," the faverite of the Standard and the North Carolina Demoney for the Presidency, has been formally read out of the party, Cause why her me miserum !- he discente from the viewe of his majorterial highness, President Buchanas, in his construction of the Kansas-Sebranka Act. Bob. Robert W. Galdson, Esq., of Moore County, wishes us to correct an error made in our publication of the list of premius awarded at the Moore County Fair. Mr. Goldston's note has been accidently misplaced; but if we recollect aright the premium to Mr. Guideten should have been for 274, instead of 624, bushels of wheat to the sere.

By The Standards thinks that Mr. Loak will hardly enjoy the good fortune of being coaxed out of the way, as Mr. McRae was in 1853, by a handsome foleral office. The whole surface of the modern is different from that of the ancient city; it is a sity huilt upon graves, so that the whole upper crust of Jerusalem is but a thin one, and probably there is not a building in Jerusalem that was there in the time of our Lord.
