

INFANT CHOIR.

Who shall sing if not the choir?
Who shall sing if not the choir?
May they not, with other jewels,
Sparkle in his diadem?
Why to them were voices given—
Bird-like voices sweet and clear?
Why, unless the song of heaven,
They begin to practice here?

There's a choir of infant songsters,
While robes, round the throne,
Angels cease, and waiting listen,
Oh! 'tis sweeter than their own;
Faith can hear the rapturous choral,
When her ear is upward turned;
Is not this the same, perfected,
Which upon the earth they learned?

Jesus, when on earth sojourning,
Loved them with a fondness love;
And will he, to heaven returning,
Faithless to his blessing prove?
Oh! they cannot sing too early;
Fathers, stand not in their way;
Blest do sing while day is breaking—
Tell me, then, why should not they?

ANNIVERSARY OF THE AMERICAN TRACT SOCIETY.

The thirty-fourth annual meeting of the American Tract Society was held at the Academy of Music, in this city, yesterday morning at nine o'clock, which was opened with prayer by Rev. Dr. Spring. The President, Chief Justice Williams, was in the chair. About 800 Life Directors and Life members were present, and occupied the lower floor, admitted only by ticket. A very large audience occupied the galleries.

Rev. Dr. De Witt, Chairman of the Executive Committee, made a few opening and touching remarks as to the entire harmony of the Committee for twenty-four years.

The election of President, Vice President, Secretaries, &c., was then gone into, which resulted in the re-election of the old officers, with the addition of the Rev. C. C. Gadsden, of Charleston, S. C., as a Director, and Hon. W. C. Alexander, of New Jersey, as a Vice President. The Executive Committee was then re-elected by a vote of 231 to 23 scattering. The election of this Committee is only by Life Directors.

The opponents of the Society, because it will not approve, publish and scatter tracts against slavery, present were far less than last year. These few made a desperate, dying struggle to disturb the meeting by introducing resolutions and making speeches to instruct or urge the Committee to publish tracts against the slave trade. Every resolution was voted down by a call vote of an overwhelming majority, deciding that this and such subjects do not belong to the Society, and should not come up for discussion. After voting down all these resolutions, for fear some might construe this so decided action as encouraging the re-opening of the African slave trade, which Christians North and South are opposed to, the Society passed unanimously the following resolution, offered by the venerable Dr. Spring. In offering it, Dr. Spring remarked, that he had no sympathy with the spirit of opposition to this Society; that he approved all the action of this meeting, and that with the great majority of those present he desired to put an end to the discussion on slavery before this Society, as it was an improper time and place for such discussion. The resolution is in these words:

"Resolved, That in laying the preceding resolutions upon the table, the Society have not come to this conclusion from any doubt in relation to the sin of the African slave-trade and the great wickedness of reopening the iniquitous traffic in any form."

At this point the thirty or forty opponents left the house with all the wind taken out of their sails—the Society taking the only safe ground, that is neither anti-slavery nor pro-slavery, having nothing to do with the subject.

God's spirit and grace was wonderfully manifested in the friends of this cause, enabling them to decide and take so unanimous a stand on the ground most clearly expounded in the meeting by Daniel Lord, Esq., one of the ablest lawyers of this city, that no abstract question, such as slavery, could rightly be brought up by the Society, all such being entirely out of the Society's constitutional work, which is only to spread such gospel truths as are agreed upon by all evangelical Christians; and that the Society at its annual meeting can only elect its officers and committees to carry out the work of a charity-trust, as the committee shall unanimously agree; and that the Society can no more direct or instruct the action of that committee, than can the people instruct the judge they elect how he shall decide the questions that may come before him. The whole matter is now clear, and with the strongest confidence in the committee which has proved itself so conservative and firm for many years, and with the continued direction and blessing of God, we may press on with greater success in reaching the poor and needy at their homes with the bread of life—Yours truly,

THROUGH FREIGHTS ON OUR RAILROADS.

We take the following from the Raleigh Standard: Raleigh, May 17, 1859.

The undersigned, Presidents of railroads in the State, met, according to a suggestion of the Board of Internal Improvements, for consultation as to the best means of facilitating the transportation of freights to and from the several ports of the State.

Being entirely satisfied, from the experimental working of joint cars owned in common by several roads, as tried by some of us heretofore, that neither this system, nor the system of a promiscuous interchange will do practically, we decline to try either one; but, being earnestly desirous to promote the convenience of shippers in and out, by through transportation without breaking bulk—a thing no less desirable, and no less advantageous to the railroad interest than to the people—we have agreed to the following arrangements for through cars:

That from the 1st day of June next, whenever either road of the three connecting at Goldsboro, may deliver at that point any number of loaded cars, the road receiving, shall send them forward with the best despatch, on their next departure—to destination—and shall deliver the same back after being discharged, on the next return time of a round trip, loaded if possible, otherwise empty, in as good order and condition as when received.

All such cars shall be sealed at the loading point, or at Goldsboro, before delivery, by the road consigning, and manifests shall be made out through to destination from the shipping point.

No road can refuse or delay to receive any car, so loaded, sealed, and having a clear manifest, unless such car is in bad order, when it may be refused.

Each car must have a separate manifest, and must be entirely loaded for one point of delivery.

Whenever a through train shall be delivered, with the road consigning may send a conductor with the same to destination.

For the faithful and prompt carrying out of this agreement certain regulations are adopted, which shall be strictly enforced. (Signed) W. S. ABBE, Pres't. W. & W. R. R. Co. J. NO. D. WHITFORD, Pres't. A. & N. C. R. R. Co. CHAS. F. FISHER, Pres't. N. C. R. R. Co. R. C. PEARSON, Pres't. W. N. & C. R. R. Co.

Major Wilder, President of the R. & G. R. Co., being absent from the State, for some weeks, could not be present; but, in so far as his interest is concerned in making close connection with, and prompt delivery of freight to Western North Carolina, the President of the North Carolina Railroad agrees to receive from him any through cars he may desire to deliver, and to send them forward with the same despatch, as agreed with the other roads above, and upon the same terms.

A portion of the Southern Democracy are heaping coals of fire upon Senator Douglas their wrath against him is hot and fierce. The Mississippi, one of the ablest of the Southern Locofoco organs, thus denounces the great champion of Squatter Sovereignty:

"The reign of Sewardism, say we, a thousand times over, in preference to a pseudo-Democratic administration, corrupt and debauched by the reckless and unprincipled faction of Douglasites, and tainted with the iniquities of squatter sovereignty."

Yet, many of the Democratic leaders in Virginia and Tennessee, and Louisiana and Maryland, and even the Democratic candidate for Governor in Kentucky endorse and support this iniquitous squatter sovereignty, which the Mississippi denounces as infinitely worse than the abolitionism of Wm. H. Seward. If Douglas should be the Democratic candidate for the Presidency, even those who thus denounce him will support him. The conduct of the Virginia Democracy in reference to John Letcher should teach the country how easily the Locofoco organs and leaders may be induced to give their support to the very men whom they have denounced as the worst enemies to the South and most untrustworthy. All their zeal in behalf of the South is merely pretended. They denounce the Opposition for trying to create a national party which shall oppose sectionalism both at the North and at the South, and they immediately afterwards fling up their caps with loud buzzes for the men whom a few moments before they pronounced worse abolitionists than Seward himself. Such is Democratic consistency. Such is the Democracy that the people are called upon to worship as a thing that never changes.—Baltimore Clipper.

HOLLAND WITHOUT USURY LAWS.

The case of Holland furnishes a striking proof of the correctness of the theory of free trade in money. The rate of interest has been, for a very long period, lower in Holland than anywhere else in Europe, and yet is the only country in which usury laws have been totally unknown, where capitalist are allowed to demand and borrowers to pay any rate of interest. Notwithstanding all the violent changes of the government, and the extraordinary disturbance of her financial concerns since 1790, the rate of interest in Holland has continued comparatively steady. During the whole of that period persons who could not offer unexceptionable security have been able to borrow at from 2 to 5 1/2 per cent; nor has the average rate of interest charged on capital advanced on the worst species of the security ever exceeded 6 or 7 per cent, except when the government was negotiating a forced loan. But in England, where the law declared that no more than 5 per cent should be taken, the rate of interest for money advanced on the best landed security varied, in the same period, from 5 to 16 or 17 per cent, or about five times as much as in Holland.

INSTRUCTIONS TO THE SPECIAL AGENTS OF THE POST OFFICE DEPARTMENT.

A printed letter of instructions has just been issued by the Postmaster General to the special agents of his Department, in which are defined and set forth, much more clearly and fully than ever before, the various and responsible duties of this class of public officers. Its final paragraph is as follows:

"In conclusion, the Postmaster General invites your earnest and active co-operation in the endeavors to which he will devote himself for giving security to the mails, to prevent unnecessary delays and detentions in their transportation, to elevate the character of the Post Office Department for faithfulness, efficiency, and punctuality in the several branches of its service, and thus to secure a more perfect accomplishment of the extended and beneficent objects for which it was established. To these high purposes he asks and expects the devotion of your whole time and best efforts."

BOERHAVE'S HOLLAND BITTERS.

BOERHAVE'S HOLLAND BITTERS.
THE CELEBRATED HOLLAND REMEDY FOR DYSPEPSIA, DISEASE OF THE KIDNEYS, LIVER COMPLAINT, WEAKNESS OF ANY KIND, FEVER AND AGUE,
AND THE VARIOUS AFFECTIONS CONSEQUENT UPON A DISORDERED STOMACH OR LIVER.

Such as Indigestion, Acidity of the Stomach, Giddy Pains, Headache, Loss of appetite, Despondency, Constipation, Biliousness, Dropsical Affections, Rheumatic, and Neuralgic Affections, it has in numerous instances proved highly beneficial, and in others effected a decided cure.

This is a purely vegetable compound, prepared on strictly scientific principles, after the manner of the celebrated Holland Professor, Boerhave. Because of its great success in most of the European States, its introduction into the United States was intended more especially for those of our brethren who suffered here and there over the face of this mighty country. Meeting with great success among them, I now offer it to the American public, knowing that its truly wonderful medicinal virtues must be acknowledged.

It is particularly recommended to those persons whose constitutions may be impaired by the continuous use of ardent spirits, or other forms of dissipation. Generally instantaneous in effect, it finds its way directly to the seat of life, thrilling and quickening every nerve, raising up the drooping spirit, and, in fact, infusing new health and vigor in the system.

NOTICE.—Whoever expects to derive any benefit therefrom will be disappointed, but to the sick, weak and languid, it will prove a grateful aromatic cordial, possessed of singular remedial properties.

CAUTION.
The great popularity of this delightful Aroma has induced many imitations, which the public should guard against purchasing. Be not persuaded to buy anything else until you have given Boerhave's Holland Bitters a fair trial. One bottle will convince you how infinitely superior it is to all these imitations.

WORLEY'S Unrivalled Healing Salve!
THIS IS NO HUMBUG, SPRINGING UP AT THE North, and placing its merits and destiny in the editorial columns of the press, where it is doctored, but is a tried and true remedy, and has been used by the public as the achievement of years of unmitigated labor in the investigation and proper combination of its constituent elements, and as being, if nothing more, all that it professes. And in presenting it for popular adoption and patronage the undersigned trusts to the frequent and repeated assurances of friends and scores of once prostrate invalids, who have happily and thoroughly tested its virtues. It is deemed expedient to require ample and indubitable testimony of the almost miraculous cures it has effected could be produced, but this would be impossible, but in some cases it has effected a permanent cure of SORE LEGS, TWENTY YEARS STANDING. IT HAS CURED CANCER IN ITS FIRST STAGE, AND FOR BURNS, BRUISES, CUTS, WHITLOW, OLD SORES, ULCERS, AND INFLAMED HEART. It is sold in small packages, and is the most valuable family medicine, and is used by all the world.

$4. Teeth on Gold Plate, $8 each up to six—all above that $9 each. Full Upper Set on Suction, $10. Teeth on Gold Plate, some all sets on suction, equally low. When I have to credit my old charges will be made. I can refer those who wish it to some of the most respectable citizens for whom I have plugged teeth eighteen years ago. The same plugs are still in and doing well. For others I have put in I have not made enough to justify my retiring from the business. On the contrary, I am better prepared now than ever to operate on teeth, and am still in the field, ready at all times to attend to all calls from this or any of the adjoining counties, and respectfully ask a continuance of that patronage heretofore so liberally bestowed. I feel alone by my work a pleasure in laughing order, and then get one of my superb Amalgams. So you who have beauty to HORTON should take it. And you who have none should get him make it.

PHONOGRAPHY.
THIS IS A BEAUTIFUL METHOD OF WRITING THE English language by means of the most simple characters that can be formed, and which accurately represent the sounds of spoken words. It can be written more than six times as fast as common hand, and on less than one-sixth the space, thus saving to the writer more than five-sixths of both time and paper. Among thousands of eminent men who have certified to its importance, we have space only for the following:

Hon. Thos. H. Benton says: "Had Phonography been known forty years ago, it would have saved me twenty years of hard labor."
John H. Hart, Principal of the High School, Philadelphia, says: "Some of our students, not yet twenty years of age, can write as fast as any of the United States, post paid, on receipt of one Dollar, or ten copies will be sent to one address for Five Dollars; and any greater number at the same rates. "THE COURANT,"
A Southern Literary Journal.

THE UNDERSIGNED PROPOSE TO COMMENCE, in the course of next month, the publication of a SOUTHERN LITERARY JOURNAL, at Columbia, South Carolina.

The necessity for such an organ of Southern mind will at once be comprehended by all who have reflected upon the present insufficient arrangements for the expression of the thoughts and feelings of our section. We have in the South two excellent periodicals, the "Southern Literary Messenger," at Richmond, Va., and "Russell's Magazine," in Charleston. Although they are ably conducted, and in all respects worthy the confidence and patronage of our citizens, still, as monthly issues, their ability to publish such an amount of contributions as should be looked for from so large a community, is necessarily limited. At the North, the number of literary and semi-literary periodicals is proportionately much larger, and as greater facilities for publication are offered, far more is written amongst their people; although it is not true that there is a greater degree of intelligence in the Northern States. Again, it is absurd to suppose that the intellectual, moral, aesthetic, or political features of Southern society can be reflected by a literature which springs from a social organization of entirely different and conflicting principles. We are moreover entirely convinced that the South is entitled by institutions and customs the best adapted to the production of a perfect literature. In view of the fact that our laws, customs, and modes of thought differ essentially from those of the Northern States, it becomes our policy to have our own organs, devoted to our peculiar institutions, and applying those views which may preserve our people in unity of thought and action, and maintain that wise conservatism of taste, morals and politics upon which the welfare of the South depends.

We hope to make our journal auxiliary to the two Southern Scenarists, in the production, in print, of the intellectual efforts of our own citizens, by instituting a love for reading, in elevating and sustaining the standard of taste, in encouraging young writers, and in drawing out the older ones in our midst.

The "Courant" will be published every Thursday morning, at $2 per annum, advance, in advance. All books, magazines, &c., sent to us will be promptly and most impartially reviewed or noticed, and may suggest a few advertisements to be inserted at reasonable rates.

The public are assured that this is no mere experiment, as the paper will certainly be published, and subscribers shall receive their good pro quo.

Subscribers will please address the proprietors, and contributors the editor, at Columbia, S. C.

Again, it is absurd to suppose that the intellectual, moral, aesthetic, or political features of Southern society can be reflected by a literature which springs from a social organization of entirely different and conflicting principles. We are moreover entirely convinced that the South is entitled by institutions and customs the best adapted to the production of a perfect literature. In view of the fact that our laws, customs, and modes of thought differ essentially from those of the Northern States, it becomes our policy to have our own organs, devoted to our peculiar institutions, and applying those views which may preserve our people in unity of thought and action, and maintain that wise conservatism of taste, morals and politics upon which the welfare of the South depends.

We hope to make our journal auxiliary to the two Southern Scenarists, in the production, in print, of the intellectual efforts of our own citizens, by instituting a love for reading, in elevating and sustaining the standard of taste, in encouraging young writers, and in drawing out the older ones in our midst.

The "Courant" will be published every Thursday morning, at $2 per annum, advance, in advance. All books, magazines, &c., sent to us will be promptly and most impartially reviewed or noticed, and may suggest a few advertisements to be inserted at reasonable rates.

The public are assured that this is no mere experiment, as the paper will certainly be published, and subscribers shall receive their good pro quo.

Subscribers will please address the proprietors, and contributors the editor, at Columbia, S. C.

NOW IS THE TIME TO SUBSCRIBE FOR THE SOUTHERN LITERARY MESSENGER.

ONE OF THE CHEAPEST PUBLICATIONS IN THE COUNTRY.

Two volumes a year; each containing at least 480 pages, in neat style, with fine cover and advertising sheets. The two volumes furnished for only Three Dollars a Year!

FOR THE YEAR 1859, TWENTY-EIGHTH AND TWENTY-NINTH VOLUMES.

In issuing the prospectus of the Twenty-eighth and Twenty-ninth volumes of the "Southern Literary Messenger," commencing with the January number, the proprietors beg to assure the public that no exertions will be remitted on their part to maintain the high character of the work, and to challenge the patronage of all who value sterling literary merit. For twenty-four years the Messenger has endeavored to reflect faithfully the Southern mind, while disdainful of narrow sectional views, and has been alone among the monthly periodicals of America in defence of the peculiar institutions of the Southern country. To this office it will still be devoted, and will be prompt to repel assaults upon the South
