LIVE FOR SOMETHING.

BY CHARLES SWAIN. Live for something, be not idle-Look about thee for employ! Sit not down to useless dreaming-Labor is the sweetest joy." Folded hands are ever weary, Solfish hearts are never gay Life for thee hath many duties-

Active he, then, while you may Scatter blessings in thy pathway!

Gentle words and cheering smiles Better are than gold and silver. With their grief-dispelling wiles As the pleasant sunshine falleth Ever on the grateful earth,

So let sympathy and kindness Gladden well the darkened hearth Hearts there are opprest and weary;

Brop the tear of sympathy-Whisper words of hope and comfort, Give, and thy reward shall be Joy unto thy soul returning From this perfect founts in head-

Freely, as thou freely givest, Shall the grateful light be shed. [For the Argus.
