

TOWN, COUNTY AND STATE.

PUBLIC MEETING.

We are requested to state that a meeting of the citizens of the county will be held at the Court House, in this place, on SATURDAY next, at 12 m. Every citizen that can possibly come is expected to be present.

ANSON GUARD.

On to-morrow, (Friday 20th), the members of this company will assemble at Ansonville for drill. We are requested to say that all volunteers are expected to be present. They will be furnished with guns for the occasion. The ladies of Ansonville, as will be seen by the following announcement of the Committee, intend presenting the company with the flag of the Southern Confederacy. The citizens of Anson and adjacent counties are cordially invited to be present. Dinner will be prepared for all who come, and all are invited. With our whole heart, ladies, we thank you for your particularly kind invitation to us. We cheerfully comply with the request to publish the following:

CARD.

By request of the ladies of Ansonville, you will please give an extended invitation to the citizens of Anson and adjacent counties to be present, as they will present to the Anson Guard with a Southern Confederacy Flag, which will be raised and saluted on the occasion. Also, they will furnish the Guard and company with a dinner appropriate to the occasion. Come one, come all.

J. B. WADDELL, Com. J. M. WADSWORTH.

FLAG RAISING.

Quite unexpectedly, the committee having the matter in charge, completed their arrangements for raising the flag of the Confederate States in front of the Court-House in this town on Saturday last; and although it was not generally known that the flag would be raised on that day, the number of persons present from the county, notwithstanding it is the busy season was very large and enthusiastic. The ladies, particularly, of the town and neighborhood evinced great interest in the ceremony, and were present in large numbers. All things being ready, at about two o'clock the pole went up with a will, and shortly after the flag with seven stars, and a vacant place for another, was thrown to the breeze. As it was raised, the Anson Guard under command of Capt. B. T. Hall greeted it with a salute. The Guard also fired salutes in honor of Virginia and the other Southern States, who are throwing off the yoke of old Abe Lincoln. After the flag was raised to its place, the crowd in attendance, ladies and all, adjourned to the Court-House. For what took place there see official proceedings.

WADSWORTH, April 20, 1861.

On Saturday the meeting had adjourned on Monday convened at the Court House, S. W. Cole, W. H. Kirby and S. W. Neal acting as Secretaries. On motion of Dr. A. Myers the following resolutions were introduced and unanimously adopted:

WHEREAS, in the present excited state of the country, we learn that our worthy Governor, his Excellency, John W. Ellis, has seen proper to take possession of the forts, therefore, resolved,

1. That the citizens of Anson county do most heartily approve of his course, and are ready and willing, with all our power, to support him in this wise and patriotic undertaking.

2. That the Governor be requested to adopt the most speedy method of conveying the people of the State, in their several counties, to the course of the North Carolina in the present crisis.

On motion, a committee of five was appointed, consisting of A. Myers, M. H. Hammond, Col. W. C. Smith, A. E. Bennett, and H. Sturdivant, to nominate sub-committees of public safety in the different districts of the county.

For the above had been disposed of, B. T. Bennett having been called, appeared, and alluded, in a laudable, but pertinent speech, to the flag of the Confederacy, which was hovering over the soil of North Carolina, the wrongs we had sustained, the worse than Punic faith of Northern men, and concluded by asking whether or not we would consent to be consolidated by a vestige of Abe Lincoln's authority?

After the close of Mr. Bennett's remarks, Mr. W. H. Kirby, after loud cheering, presented himself. He reviewed the rise and unparalleled progress of this fanatical spirit, commencing, as he declared, with the petition of Missouri, during the year 1820, to be admitted into the Union as a State, and showing, by the abuse of the right of petition, that the Abolitionists of the North had greatly imperilled the country. After this Mr. Hammond showed by the returns that no political opposition had grown with half the rapidity of the Republicanism. His remarks were concluded by declaring that the negro was the bone of contention. During his speech he was frequently burst forth with applause. Rev. S. H. Browne next called for. He stated that it was not his province to make political speeches, but that this crisis demanded that every man take a position—be that not for the South was against it. Mr. Browne spoke a few words, and appealing to Heaven to attest the truth of what he said, and showing upon the spot, he read to the Chairman that the meeting be closed by prayer. Rev. H. C. Persons also addressed the meeting in his usual forcible and elegant style, thoroughly conversant our difficulties. Dr. Harlow, who had just returned from South Carolina, was requested to inform us as to the latest news, and he credited intelligence. He did so, and said he had defended the cause of North Carolina while gone, and had declared he would go with the Confederacy. After the close of Mr. H.'s remarks the meeting closed with prayer by Rev. S. H. Browne.

On motion the proceedings were requested to be published in the North Carolina Argus and other State papers. R. W. COLE, Chair'n. W. H. KIRBY, Secretary. S. W. NEAL, Secretaries.

AT A TOWN MEETING held in Fayetteville, on the 18th, the following resolutions were unanimously adopted. The meeting was composed of men of all parties. E. J. Hall, Esq., was one of the committee to draft resolutions:

WHEREAS hostilities exist at Charleston between the forces of the United States and the people of the Confederate States, and whereas the President of the United States has by proclamation called upon the States for a force of seventy-five thousand militia, with the desired object of repressing the forts, places and property in the Confederate States now held by that Government, therefore,

Resolved, by the people of Fayetteville in Town Meeting assembled, that the exigencies of the times require every loyal son of North Carolina to bury past political contests to unite hand and heart in resistance to sectional rancor, and to take proper steps to maintain, secure and defend the rights of North Carolina as one of the Southern States.

Resolved, that the Governor be respectfully requested forthwith to convene the General Assembly with a view to legislative action in this crisis.

Resolved, that we will support and adhere to the Governor and authorities of the State in such measures as may be deemed necessary to be taken to assert our rights and defend our soil.

The Observer has also the following paragraph showing the feeling in Fayetteville.

"This has been, as may well be supposed, a week of anxious excitement here. In addition to other matters elsewhere mentioned, a large crowd assembled yesterday afternoon to witness the raising of the flag of the Confederate States, and to hear a number of speeches delivered on the occasion."

PUBLIC MEETING.

ROCKINGHAM, April 22, 1861. At a meeting held in the Court-House this day, in response to a call for laborers to work upon the fortifications at the mouth of the Cape Fear river. On motion of W. F. Leak, Esq., Col. H. W. Harrington was appointed Chairman, and a motion of Stephen W. Covington, Esq., L. H. Webb was requested to act as Secretary. After a brief but stirring address by the Chairman explanatory of the objects of the meeting, and some patriotic remarks by Walter F. Leak, Esq. It was moved by J. W. Leak, Esq., seconded and carried, that a committee be appointed to ascertain the number of hands, and the works adjacent thereto. The chair appointed Messrs. John W. Leak, Jr., J. Steele, and S. W. Covington, who in a short time reported the following success among the gentlemen present, to the wit:

R. J. Steele, 3; J. W. Leak, 3; W. F. Leak, 3; S. W. Covington, 2; R. J. Steele, Jr., 3; Col. H. W. Harrington, 3; T. C. Leak, 3.

IN OBEDIENCE TO THE REQUEST OF GOVERNOR ELLIS. They will be forwarded immediately.—Charlotte Mercury.

It is expected that Tennessee, Kentucky, Missouri, Arkansas, and North Carolina will secede within a week.

The Navy Yard at Norfolk has been destroyed by fire.

Hon. John M. Morris.—Various rumors concerning Mr. Morris have recently been put forth, among them that he had been tendered a position in Lincoln's Cabinet; but that he had advised Lincoln to put down the Secession movement by hanging the Senators, etc.; and that he had become an advocate of Secession or Revolution. We learn from the best authority that all of these reports are alike untrue.—Richmond Whig.

To Restoratives.—The advertiser, having been restored to health in a few weeks by a very simple remedy, after having suffered several years with severe lung affection, and that dread disease, consumption—is anxious to make known to his fellow-sufferers the means of cure.

To all who desire it, he will send a copy of the prescription used (free of charge), with the directions for preparing and using the same, which they may find a cure for Consumption, Asthma, Bronchitis, &c. The only object of the Advertiser in sending the Prescription is to benefit the afflicted, and spread information which he conceives to be invaluable, and he hopes every sufferer will try his remedy, as it will cost them nothing, and may prove a blessing.

Parties wishing the prescription will please address, EDWARD A. WILSON, Williamsburg, Kings Co., N. Y.

The Great Drawback to persons emigrating to the extreme south and western country, is the fear they have of the Fever and Ague—the most direful of all diseases. Every day we hear of persons attacked by the disease and made helpless in a short time, without any means of affording relief. In view of the great demand for a remedy, Dr. Hostetter has presented his CELEBRATED STOMACH BITTERS, whose curative powers for all diseases of the stomach have been universally acknowledged. The Bitters, prepared after a long experience and deep study, have received the eulogiums of the most eminent physicians, as well as all classes from every part of our country. To those who doubt their many virtues, all we can say is to try them, and judge for themselves respectively.

Sold by druggists and dealers generally everywhere. See advertisement in another column.
