In Memoriam.

Sgt. GEORGE L. STANBACK was born in Richmond county, N. C. 25th March 1842, and fell in battle on the field of "Bethesda Church," near Mechanicsville Va, May 30, 1864.

Sumner the heart of young Stanback began to swell with indignation against the malignant foe. The rising emotions were, however, partially suppressed until his own native State, in response to a general call for troops, appealed to her heroic boys to defend herself and her sisters from insult, injury and outrage.

He did his duty, his whole duty, and he did it well. On the field his coolness and gallantry were conspicuous. Creditable in his views and warm in his friendships, he was ready to overlook in his companions in arms much which the uncharitable and censorious were ready to condemn.

M. E. Church South. To say that he was a consistent christian would be a high encomium in the face of many temptations to neglect of duty and indulgence in vice which encompass the young disciple in camp and on the march.
