

TRIBUTE OF RESPECT.

The following paper was adopted by the Fourth Quarterly Conference of the African Methodist Episcopal Church South, October 21st, 1860:

This Quarterly Conference is called to mourn the sudden departure of another of its beloved and eminent members. The venerable Amos G. M. was elected into his heavenly rest on Saturday evening, the 27th instant, at the early spring time. The aged Joseph Medley passed to his reward the early frost of autumn when the "old old yellow leaf" became the approach of winter. The one from the beauties of the material, and the inscrutable; the other from the blight and frost of approaching winter, to a decayed and declining member. Uncle Joseph Medley was a Virginian by birth, and removed to North Carolina in childhood, and died in his home until his death was at his residence, at the age of 85 years.

He was a man of great talents, a wise and eloquent, and a loyal supporter of the cause of his country. Although dying, however, he retained his former energy and influence, and his last words were to his wife, "I am about to go to my Master, and I have no fear."

He lived a long series of years, a wise, eloquent, and a loyal supporter of the cause of his country. Although dying, however, he retained his former energy and influence, and his last words were to his wife, "I am about to go to my Master, and I have no fear."

Patron,

Brother, the great Liberator, Inquisitor

of Slavery, and Martyr, proposed by Dr. J. J. Lawrence, the celebrated Physician and Chemist, is a safe, PLATINUM, and RELIABLE remedy, for the RELIEF and CURE of all diseases caused by a STUPID LOVE to IMPERFECT PRACTICE.

It cures the scrofulous, malignant, and all genera of TUBERCLES, reduces heat to normal power, and at the same time restores and imparts new and vigor to the body.

We recommend the practice of the following resolutions:

Resolved, That, in the death of brother Joseph Medley the church has lost a valuable and a lost member, whose memory we associate with all our sorrows—we do associate it with all that is pure, lovely, and of good report."

Resolved, That we extend to the aged and afflicted widow and relatives of our beloved brother our deepest sympathy and pray the blessing of divine aid in their house of affliction and gloom.

Resolved, That a page of our Conference Journal be dedicated and inscribed to the memory of our aged friend and associate, and that this notice and accompanying resolution be sent to editor of the North Carolina Journal and the Southern Christian Advocate for publication.

A BEAUTIFUL RETROSPECT.—When the summer day of youth is slowly wasting away into the nightfall of age, deeper and deeper as life wears to a close, it is pleasant to look through the vista of time upon the joys and sorrows of early years. If we have a home to shelter or hearts rejoice with us, and friends who have been gathering around our fireside, then the rough places of our wayfaring will be worn and smoothed away in the twilight of life, while the bright sunny spots we have passed through will grow brighter and more beautiful. Happy, indeed, are those whose intercourse with the world has not changed the course of their holier feelings, or broken those musical chords of the heart whose vibrations are so melodious, so tender and so touching in the evening of age.

AN IMPORTANT COTTON CHAMBER.—The famous Jaguar says Mr. Corcoran, of New York, has just invented an improved machine for chopping cotton, which he says will work like a charm. The choppers consist of an ordinary set of earth-wheels, so arranged as to thin out twelve feet of cotton at every turn of the wheel. Two rows are chopped at a time, and it is estimated that an ordinary horse hitched to the revolving machine can chop out twenty acres daily. The animal walks in the water furrow and the machine carries rows on right and left. The contrivance is very ingenious and if perfect will prove a great labor saver.

THE HILLBROOK MURDERER.—Bob. Guion, colored, who was arrested here some few days ago, charged with the murder of Mr. Blinck, of Hillsboro, has been removed to the Orange county jail. He confessed to the murder and implicated two others, one of whom has been arrested. The other is still at large, though we learn the officers are after him.

It was the most brutal butchery on record, and from his confession we make the following extracts:

Guru says—That they had concocted the plan sometime previous, and on that night had watched and waited until all the lights in town were extinguished, when they commenced operations. They forced through a window, and the first inhabitant discovered their presence was a black man in an old, dilapidated log cabin, and that he missed his way, which is now, I suppose, Mr. B. with a small pistol, which was loaded in a pocket and aimed at the negro. This was Mr. B. surprised, and made in that condition his throat was cut from ear to ear, and a rope and bucket suspended just in the gullet, also a pillow case was bound to the mouth as a gag.

The three negroes then hurriedly concealed the body and left.

This was the most cowardly and dastardly murder we have ever heard of, and another we hate even more, because it is planned with the devil in them with a liberal hand.
