NEW YEARS AT WASHINGTON.

A Washington dispatch makes a brief notice of the manner in which Christmas was observed at the capital of this great nation...

Mostly young men. And here was the boy just ripening into manhood upon whom his parents looked with pride...

The King was then escorted to a seat on the right of the Master, where the brethren accorded to him the grand honors of the craft...

BROTHERS: It gives me great pleasure on this occasion to greet you all. Coming as I do from a distant island in the Pacific...

The brethren remained standing during the delivery of the addresses. Alderman Gilon was then announced and was received with the honors of a Master of a Lodge...

It will thus be seen that Masonry is the same in Hawaii as in this country, indeed it is universal in its workings and principles.

pleasure to welcome for the first time in this Temple of Freemasonry one who, by his hereditary title, and still higher, by the voice and suffrages of his people...

Alderman Gilon, as Master of Concord Lodge, then introduced the King as "Brother Kalakaua," and presented a voucher for him. The Grand Master, as he took the visitor by the right hand, said: "I extend to you the right hand of fellowship..."

Kalakaua, R. Master Mason, La Progress de la Oceanic Lodge, No. 124, Honolulu.

John M. Kapena, Master Mason, Hawaiian Lodge, No. 21, Honolulu.

George M. Totten, Lieutenant, United States Navy, Victoria Lodge, No. 1,026, Hong Kong, China.

BROTHER KALAKAUA—Your Majesty: In the name of the fraternity of the State of New York, and I may say of the craft of the United States of America, I bid you welcome to this gathering of brethren...

The King was then escorted to a seat on the right of the Master, where the brethren accorded to him the grand honors of the craft. The King then said in a clear voice:

The brethren remained standing during the delivery of the addresses. Alderman Gilon was then announced and was received with the honors of a Master of a Lodge. The Grand Master then announced the former Governor, James E. Morison, escorting Lieutenant Commander Totten...

It will thus be seen that Masonry is the same in Hawaii as in this country, indeed it is universal in its workings and principles.

THE SUN.

WEEKLY AND DAILY FOR 1875.

The approach of the Presidential election gives unusual importance to the events and developments of 1875. We shall endeavor to describe them fully, faithfully, and fearlessly.

THE WEEKLY SUN has now reached a circulation of over seventy thousand copies. Its readers are found in every State and Territory, and its quality is well known to the public.

It is our aim to make the WEEKLY SUN the best family newspaper in the world. It will be full of entertaining and appropriate reading of every sort, but will print nothing to offend the most scrupulous and delicate taste.

The Agricultural Department is a prominent feature in the WEEKLY SUN, and its articles will always be found fresh and useful to the farmer.

The number of men independent in politics is increasing, and the WEEKLY SUN is their paper especially. It belongs to no party, and obeys no dictation, contending for principle, and for the election of the best men.

In the recent elections the people have declared in favor of honesty in politics and independence in journalism.

It publishes all the news, the more intelligently than any other paper.

It insists on peace through country, the right of free self-government, and the protection of all classes in the exercise of their just and legal rights.

It advocates confidence and good faith between North and South, and labor on an honest and abiding reconciliation.

It maintains fairness and candor toward all public men and all parties, and courtesy toward all sects and opinions.

It publishes scientific discussions and discoveries, and accuracy never before attained by any paper.

It gives every week ten or more columns of the most carefully prepared agricultural matter during the year.

What the Southern Farmer Thinks of the Tribune.

We consider the Tribune the able paper—Agriculture, the New York Tribune in its search for truth and justice.

The best newspaper in the world is the New York Tribune. It combines the dignity and sagacity of the London Times with the representative news enterprise of America.

A paper to be admired for its independence of tone and reliability of its Episcopal Methodist, Baltimore, Md.

To-day the New York Tribune is what ever may be said of its rival, it is clearly won pre-eminence at all and creditably does represent the journal of the country.

The great success of the Tribune is therefore a matter of vital importance to the country that the direction of this vast section should be consecrated to honest and unflinching excellence has the Tribune—the N. Y. Sun.
