St. Nicholas for 1874.

Book for Boys and Girls.

Of this book Charles Dudley Warner writes:

"In the bound volume of ST. NICHOLAS, with its gloss of red and gold, we have a permanent addition to the literature of the young. Never before has so much literary and artistic talent co-operated in the service of children. It is a continual education of their taste and of their humor and courage. I do not see how it can be made any better, and if the children don't like it I think it is time to begin to change the kind of children in this country."

St. Nicholas for 1875.

The prospectus of the second volume shows that there is to be no falling off, but an increase in its literary and pictorial attractions. Among other attractive features are

Two Splendid Serial Stories,

"THE YOUNG SURVEYOR,"

by J. T. Trowbridge, author of the Jack Hazard Stories, etc.

"EIGHT COUSINS,"

by Louisa M. Alcott, author of "Little Women," etc.

The peculiar features of ST. NICHOLAS, which have conduced so largely to its popularity, will be kept up with spirit:

Short and easy stories in French, German, and Latin for translation, will appear occasionally, while Jack-in-the-Pulpit, the Letter Box, and the Riddle Box, will continue to be full of interest, and the department for very young readers will be enlarged.

Bayard Taylor and other distinguished travellers will give Stories of Foreign Countries.

Mr. Riding will continue his series of delightful and instructive Papers on Practical Subjects.

Mr. Bartlett and others will attend to the department of Home Entertainments, Tableaux, Vivants, etc.

New writers, in addition to our present large corps of contributors, will give young people of all ages, Poems, Jingles, Stories, Sketches, and Papers on History, Biography, Travel, Adventure, Natural History, Out-door and In-door Sports, Boys' and Girls' Handicraft, Kinder-garten Games, Literature, Popular Science, with a hearty sprinkling of fun throughout the volume.

Price, $3.00 a year, but up to Jan. 1st we will send the twelve numbers for the year just closed (Vol. I.) for only $2.00. The same, elegantly bound in red and gold, will be sent, charges paid, for $4.00. One year's subscription and twelve back numbers, $5.00. One year's subscription and volume one, bound as above, sent, charges paid, for $6.00.

THE SUN.

FOR 1875.

THE approach of the Presidential election gives unusual importance to the events and developments of 1875. We shall endeavor to describe them fully, faithfully, and fearlessly.

THE WEEKLY SUN has now attained a circulation of over seventy thousand copies. Its readers are found in every State and Territory, and its quality is well known to the public. We shall not only endeavor to keep it fully up to the old standard, but to improve and add to its variety and power.

THE WEEKLY SUN will continue to be a thorough newspaper. All the news of the day will be found in it, condensed when unimportant, at full length when of moment, and always, we trust, treated in a clear, interesting and instructive manner.

It is our aim to make the WEEKLY SUN the best family newspaper in the world. It will be full of entertaining and appropriate reading of every sort, but will print nothing to offend the most scrupulous and delicate taste. It will always contain the most interesting stories and romances of the day, carefully selected and legibly printed.

The Agricultural Department is a prominent feature in the WEEKLY SUN, and its articles will always be found fresh and useful to the farmer.

The number of men independent in politics is increasing, and the WEEKLY SUN knows their paper especially. It belongs to no party, and obeys no dictation, contending for principle, and for the election of the best men. It exposes the corruption that disgraces the country and threatens the overthrow of republican institutions. It has no fear of knaves, and seeks no favors from any one of six supporters.

Money, stocks, markets of every kind and the fashions are regularly reported in its columns.

The price of the WEEKLY SUN is one dollar a year for a sheet of eight pages, and large columns. As this barely pays the bills in a time of paper and printing, we are not able to make any discount or allow any commission to friends who may make special efforts to extend its circulation. Under the law, which requires payment of postage in advance, one dollar a year, with the paper, prepays the cost prepaid postage added. We have no traveling agents.

THE WEEKLY SUN.—Eight pages, 56 columns. Only $1.20 a year, postage prepaid. No discounts from this rate.

THE DAILY SUN.—A large four-page newspaper of twenty-eight columns. Daily circulation over 120,000. All the news for 2 cents. Subscription, postage prepaid 55 cents a month, or $6.50 a year. Clubs of 10 or over, a discount of 20 per cent.

REPRINTS

BRITISH PERIODICALS.

The political ferment among the European nations, the strife between Church and State, the discussion of Science in its relation to Theology, and the constant publication of new works on these and kindred topics, will give unusual interest to the leading foreign Reviews during 1875. Nowhere else can the enquiring reader find in a condensed form the facts and arguments necessary to guide him to a correct conclusion.

The Leonard Scott Publishing Co.,
41 BARCLAY ST., NEW YORK,

continue the reprint of the four leading Reviews, viz:

EDINBURGH REVIEW. (Whig.)
LONDON QUARTERLY REVIEW. (Conservative.)
WESTMINSTER REVIEW. (Liberal.)

Scribner's monthly

FOR 1875.

SOME OF ITS ATTRACTIVE FEATURES.

"The Story of Sevenoaks."

BY J. G. HOLLAND.

The publishers believe that this will prove to be among the most popular of Dr. Holland's works. In the new novel the author drops the autobiographic vein made use of by him in "Arthur Bonnicastle;" and, in fact, the present story will have much wider scope and greater variety of incident that the former. The first instalment (illustrated by Sol. Eyting) will be a generous one, and cannot fail to awaken wide interest concerning a community the very name of which has hitherto remained in obscurity.

"A Farmer's Vacation in Europe."

By Col. GEO. E. WARING, of Ogden Farm, near Newport, R. I.

This series will deal in a very practical way with the industries and peculiarities of the quaint people of Holland, Normandy, and the channel Islands. The papers will be fully illustrated, and while especial attention will be paid to farm matters in both picture and discription, the author's faculty of keen and intelligent observation insures abundant interest for the general reader.

"The Canons of the Colorado."

A Vivid Account of the Exploration of the Colorado River Region by The Government Expedition under Maj. J. W. Powell.

The discription of this new and wonderful region, assisted by numerous and brilliant illustrations by Moran, Sheppard, and others, it is expected will have more than a transient value. An additional paper, with appropriate illustrations, will be devoted to the study of Indian character.

In the extensive list of illustrated material now in course of preperation, which it is expected will be published during the coming year, are occasional brilliant papers on French Life and Literature, by Albert Rhodes; articles of travel in Europe, Asia and America, by competent hands; descriptive papers on Chicago, Richmond, Baltimore, and other cities; sketches of curious phrases of vegetation, etc., etc.

In poetry, Short Stories and Sketches, Biography, Reminiscence, Essays, &c., the publishers expect to preserve their former high standard. Every effort will be made to keep the magazine [illegible] toned and companionable.

"The Lost Cause."

A MAGNIFICENT Picture, 50,000 copies already sold. It is 14 x 18 inches in size, printed on heavy plate paper, beautiful in design and artistic in execution. It represents a confederate soldier after the war, returning to his home, which he finds lonely and desolate. In front of the ruined cottage, telling a sad tale of the miseries of War, are two graves with rude crosses, on one of which some friendly hand has hung a garland. To the right the calm river and rising moon indicated peace and rest. The stars, seen between the trees, represent the Southern cross. It is a picture that will touch every Southern heart, and should find a place in every Southern home. Sent by mail, mounted on a roller, and post-paid on receipt of 25 cents, or three for 60 cents.

A Splendid Holiday Present.

The Carolina

Household Magazine.

AN ILLUSTRATED MONTHLY of choice literature will be issued from the Goldsboro Messenger office commencing with January, 1875. The first number will be ready for mailing by December 15th, and the periodical will be published each succeeding month thereafter without interruption. No advantage will be neglected which either talent or capital can command to render each issue an agreeable and instructive compendium of choice reading, by popular writers, both home and abroad.

The Carolina Household Magazine will be a large 28-page, eighty-four column monthly, handsomely printed on tinted book paper and beautifully illustrated. It is a thoroughly southern enterprise and its success is already fully assured. The publisher means to make it a first-class monthly, that, once introduced in the family circle, is sure to be eagerly watched for and carefully preserved. Its "Portrait Gallery" will prove an attractive feature. The January number will contain a life-like picture of EX-GOV. Z. B. VANCE, and biographical sketch, to be followed in each succeeding number with photographs of other prominent statesmen, divines, &c.

Only Two Dollars a Year and each subscriber can make a choice of three most beautiful, large Engravings, size of 21x25 inches, viz: "The Finding of the Saviour in the Temple," "The Madonna," or "King Lear Defying the Storm," forwarded on receipt of the subscription price. Either of the Engravings is worth double the price asked for the Magazine.

Any one sending a club of five will receive an extra subscription free. Single copies 20 cents, free by mail. Six months subscription without the Engraving $1.00.
