PRITE CAROLINA

"This Argus, o'er the People's Rights doth an Eternal Figil Keep ; No Soothing Strain of Maia's Son can Lull his Hundred Bless to WADESBORO, N. C., THURSDAY, JUNE 10, 1875.

DEBHAGEN.

ated ding.

Cat by and by ven all was schtill,

guier ban, ta as big as life,

Natty gifs a jork, unt den High begins ter toot thousand er toot ter toot, fer toot ter toot, As fast as it could goes, thust like zum leetle paby toys A printing drough its nose.

Unt deu der guiers all scood ap, Behand like der vas en aprings; De laties valla dere eyes apout, Unt den pegins to sing.

He-he, haw-haw, yah-yah, wow-wow, Ge-bu, yah-hoo, mine Got; Sat wat it vas dey tried ter zing, Louida't told you yot.

Ber brencher man pegin er dell de beeples all apout Der vays of death unt sin.

gouldn't mind a vord she zaid Vor dinking of dat ding. Unt dinking of der fanny vays Dem guier vellers zing.

Heme.

There is a simple little word er ils courms dest oughout the universe 'tis beard, And pawhere but with jay; There's music in its meagre flow, Wherever we may roun. drest, sweetest sound belowlittle word is Hom?

cars not where may be its site, Or roofed with straw or tile, So that the hearth fire burns more bright Neath woman's radiant smile; Affection on her fondest wing Will to its portals fly, When that blest place is nigh.

fancy—it may be nething fur nobler—far; t Love is my divinicy, or there teachings there.

Our Story-Teller.

THEOLD MAN'S LOVE he bright fresh flowers, can the sirken wave, the it zently are now, in the tree signs of proconfessing his ted, and her hands oded over her imaginadetermined to put the shand to the test.

g it, was the question. ave it," said she, triumphantwo myself; that is, figura-and good looking, it kept her in a butter."

perpetual worriment and jealousy. "Good to put her plan into "Firs

Just behind the house was ell, that had not been used d it was covered ove vent the cattle from ling into it.

removed the covering from the well, bonnet and shawl upon vied in under a large ait developments. d and she was nearher husband and arn where "Mercy on us, Mr. Clark! Your wife has thrown herself in the well !" he shoutad frantically.

Mrs. Clark expected that her husband would tear his hair and rushed to the edge of the well, and after calling her all the ondoaring names he could think of, descen into the weary depth, in eager search o her cold, damp corpse.

But Clark did not do anything of the kind. He calmly took a fresh chew of tobacco, and then approaching the well, looked quietly into it.

"I guess the old girl hes suicided," said he, without any emotion worth speaking of. "Jake, you sling them boards back again; I wouldn't have that brindled heifer to get in their for fifty dollars; and after dinner we'll hoist the old woman

"Hadn't I better get some of the neighbors here first ?" asked the frightened man. "After dinner will do, Jake. Business before pleasure, is my motte, and I'm awful bongry."

Jake covered up the well, and the men went into the house, leaving the old lady

The neighbors arrived and were full of of the loss. The duty on sympathy for the bereaved husband; and article as a rure adds in Josepi us bore his honors meekly.

"I'll tell you the best way, friends," them or for a great pr said Clark, pathetically, "She is gone, and This last mentioned loss is will never come back to this world of woo, be calculated even approximat and trouble; so I think we had better let cannot fall short of the total any woll. It will save a power of troublement try, it is to the agriculture.

This proposition was agreed to by the neighbors as being feasible, and the work equally by the whole country of filling it up commenced, Jesephus throw- be an aggregate of $450. ing in all the large stones and blocks of wood that be could lay his hands on .-

"There," said he, "I guess that will do," after they had thrown a couple of carloads Sato of miscellaneous rubbish into the well. "Jake can fill up the rest rainy days. W. his I get done hauls there were no tasis

Near by the side of Josephus stood a woman of about thirty summers, or wi and she had been regarding scene with a mixture of plan row intermingled, and neighbers took the

the prime of life, like the flower at de," said she, mourefully.

Yes," said he, shifting his quid from of the tariff. one side of his mouth to the other, "but Betty was getting along in years, and we must be resigned.

"Just so, Mr. Clark; resignation is cooling balm, as it were, to fill the void in which, for the year ending dune 30, 187 a troubled breast, and I always thought that is estimated to yield a hundred and eig your wife was too old for such a smart, active man as you."

"To be sure, I did; I always took a But is we los great interest in your welfare." Clark was lost in meditation for so

"Miss Perkins," said

Wow, Mr. Clark," she answered, blush

" Good cook ?"

"First-rate." " Understand house-keeping ?"

" None better."

"Then, I'll tell you what I have been thinking about," said he, picking up auother large stone and throwing it into the well. "Suppose you and I get married!"

" Now, really, Mr. Clark, you are so sudden and take me by surprise; but my heart bleeds for you in your bereavement, and-and I consent. Take me-I am

The fond couple embraced, taking a kiss to ratify the bargain.

Mrs. Clark under the gooseberry bush, tem, adopted to hide yeas boiling with rage, but she restrained trated by Government

"I say," said Clark, after they had re-gained their composure, "won't Betty's clothes fit you?"

"Of course they will, and it will be a

" And I will take that new cloak of hers and make me an overcoat—a long one, like the city folks wear," said Clark.

"O! you dear creature!" replied she.
"Sweet angel of my soul!" said he. Just then something lit upon Clark's ack, and he did not know at first whether was a wild cat, a streak of lightning, or devil, but he found out directly.

sition, and scooted.

says it was the worst case of inflammatory the per cent. of taxes upon them. Here is sickness he ever bad.

Bu he is the meekest husband to found and the well is filled up.

Miscellantous.

Our Indirect Taxes.

For the fiscal year ending June 30, 1875, the receipts into the Treasury, of the United howling with rage.

"I'll old girl him! I'll suicide him!

Takes more pains over that pesky heifer than he does with me. I'll—."

Words failed her; they were inadequate to express her feelings.

After display Clark sent, the bired man. Words falled ner; they work to express her feelings.

After dinner Clark sent the hired man after some of the neighbors, and while he was awaiting his return he seated himself upon a log, in plain sight of his loving wife, and whistled Old Hundred all through without missing a stave.

porters must have a point which will sumde to cover interest, insulance and profits on the increased value of it which will sumde to cover interest, insulance and profits on the increased value of it which will sumde to cover interest, insulance and profits on the increased value of it ortations equal to at least ten per cent, on cost, or about $50,000,000, making the lot loss to consult this is by no means without missing a stave.

The duty on the increased value of it which will sumde to cover interest, insulance and profits on the increased value of it ortations equal to at least ten per cent, on cost, or about $50,000,000, making the loss to consult this is by no means without missing a stave.

imported article as a fure fidds in to the price of every similar a proportion cle made Valous plans were canvassed for raising in this country, so that in consequence of the body, but, owing to the great depth of the tariff the consumers of American made. On his had were and merchandise are obliged of pay on his from twenty to the cent his for On his > sof the countes precisewere felt

Louisiana, an agric population of abo 100 fiftieth par population ng no more than from the tariff, suffers from it to the exten al ser- or nine millions of dollars ould command more American goods to the extent ne millions of dollars. This loss is in the nature of a tribute paid to the United States Government, with this exception, them vote for Democratic men who will that the Treasury receives only about half arture, she linger- the sum that consumers of foreign products melp in the aching heart of lose by the tariff. A direct tax of five per cent. on all the taxable property of Louisiareat pity to be so suddenly cut na for the support of the General Govern- after the General ment would be less onerous than the loss or indirect tax now suffered from the operation

In addition to the tax put on the agri- from Gg cultural States by the operation of the du- parter ties on the imports which they consume, of they suffer from the internal secure tax, articles taxed, withat the loss "Did you really?" answered Clark, source to commers amount to he tax. nt of the tax, the sh that would all to Louisiana would fibution to the millions, swelling her millions, swelling her confers of the Republic an equivalent of eleven millions. It is true that government of the ing, "you touch me on a tender point, for, if I do say it myself, I won't turn my back ing several years younger than to any woman in the county making good three hurself and forty millions of dollars."

It is true that he government of the dollars in the first state and the government of the dollars in the first state that he government of the dollars in the first state that he government of the dollars in the first state that he government of the dollars in the first state that he government of the dollars in the first state that he government of the dollars in the first state that he government of the dollars in the first state that he government of the dollars in the first state that he government of the dollars in the first state that he government of the dollars in the first state that he government of the dollars in the first state that he government of the government of the first state each year but the people of the agricultural States need not wonder at hard times their indirect taxes are so great and cted in such a costly and damaging ner. The farmers of the United States are working one de at least out of five for the beneat their State and General Government, and for those who import of manuscture the goods and wares which the farmers consume and use,-N. O. Bul-

> In the same directions we append thoughtful articles taken from the Belle fonte (Pa.) Watchman:

Indirect taxation is but a thieving sys tem, adopted to hide the robberies perpe afbroed, are nothing but a tribete levied upon the consumers of the country for the benefit of the wealthy manufacturers and indolent officials. We doubt if there is, under the present system of taxation, a tax payer in the entire country who knows the amount he pays annually in one way or another to support the Government. There is but one thing all are certain of, and that s that taxation in this county has become a burden, that bears too heavily and onjustly upon the poorer classes. While the wealth of the rich man good scott free of all taxes, the pourer classes are taxed on His charmer cast one glance at the ap- every necessary of life. From a calculation made by one understanding the ques Clark has just got around again. He tim fully, we call the following items with

THE POOR MAN IS TAXED!
Line of the service of the service of the service of
On his salt,
On his pepper, 140
NAME OF TAXABLE PARTY OF TAXABLE PARTY OF TAXABLE PARTY.
150 min nom Pa
On his starch, 50
TO THE RESIDENCE OF THE PARTY O
On the sheets of his bed, 55
On the blankets that cover them, 240
On the carpet he buys, 80
On his window curtains, 80
On his knives and forks, 35
On his window glass, 55
On his water other, 45
On the second of
On his stocki 3, 75 On his dress woolen, 100
On his dress of woolen, 100
On a handle hief, 35
A COLUMN OF MUNICIPAL CONT. TO SU PARAMENTO
THE RICH MAN
On his bon Nothing.
PARMER IS TAXED!

On a dinner can,

On his bonds. would be more outrageous in its extortions from the laboring classes, and more unjus imptions of the wealthy, we cannot mptions of the wealthy, we cannot what it could be. And as long as the great toiling masses are willing to be slaves, for bondholders, or bondsmen for the bloated aristocracy of the country, they have only to vote for Radical candidates and endorse the oppressive, thieving system of taxation that that party has forced upon the country. If they would rather see their taxes lowered and the bondholders made to pay his portion of the government expenses, let favor these measures.

GENERAL MCRAE.-The following anecdote of General M Rae is told : Soon charge of the Westfailroad, an employee of ern and Atlan the superintendent's office the road ente as he thought, some slight and receiv al McRae. The employee dehigh dudgeon and meeting some comrades, relieved his feelings by ring his opinion of his superior in very forcible language. Some days afterwards he was told that these expressions had been reported to General McRae. Expecting instant discharge the man hastened to the superintendent and said, "General, I understand that it has been reported to you all to the that I have been cursing you. I desire to apologize," Turning to the apologist the ore than two General asked: "Have you performed your work to the satisfaction of Mr .--- ?" (the employer's immediate boss). "Yes, sir." "Well, then, if you do your work all right and find spare time to curse me,

An Exchange says: Mrs. Lincoln has been consigned to a lunatic asylum in Illinois by the order of a competent court, and the necessity for this explains, we think, by fully her eccentricisies of behavior a few years ago, when she covered her friends with mortification at her queer performances. It is alleged that her mind has never been sound since the terrible takhas never been sound since the terrible tak-ing off of Mr. Lincoln, whose assas sination was, perhaps, the most disas trous event for the South, after the surrender, which even the ingenuity of our enemies could have devised. It is not unnatural that the as-sassination of her husband should have dinken her reason, and as such seems to have been the lamentable fact, we have no doubt that insanity, will be generally accepted by the public in explanation of her undignified and eccentric behavior to which

Wholesale and Retail Benters in all kinds of DESCRIPTION OF THE PROPERTY OF

A Large Stock of Metallic Cases. Comms & Caskets constantly on hand.
Orders by telegraph promptly attended to East Trade still 48 8ms CHARLOTTE, N. C.

Special Notice!

PHOSE INDEBTED TO DR. E. A. CO. out delay as further indulgence will see begiven.

ASHE & COVINGTON,

and risted rescondends of grid a see

THE BEST PAPER TRY IT.

BEAUTIFULLY ILLUSTRATED.

The SCIENTIFIC "AERICAN" HO in its 30th year, enjoys the i whilest circulation of any weekly now-paper of the kind in the world. A new volume commence January 4,1875.

Its contents embrace the latest and interesting information pertuning to interesting information perturing to the Industral Mechanical, and Scientific Progress of the world; Descriptions, with Beautiful Engravings of New Inventions, New Implements; New Processes, and Improved Industries of all kinds; Useful Notes, Recipes, Suggestions and Advice, by Practical Writers, for workmen and Employers, in all the various arts.

The SCIENTIFIC A ERIGAN is the cheapest and best illustrated weekly paper published. Every number contains from 10 to 15 original engravings of new machinery and novel inventions.

mery and novel inventions.

ENGAVINGS, illustrating improvements, Discoveries, and Important Works, pertaining to civil and Mechanical Engineering, Milling, Mining and Metallurgy, Records of the latest progress in the applications of Steam, Steam Engineering, Railways, Ship Building, Navigation, Telegraphy, Telegraph Engineering, Electricity

On his handsaw,

Do a pen knife,

Do a dinner can,

AND THE BONDHOLDERS:

On his bonds,

If any system could be devised that would be more outrageous in its extortions wery Reading Room, College, Academy, School.

A year's numbers contain 832 pages and Several Hundred Engravings. Thousands of volumes are preserved for binding and referance. The practical receipts are well worth ten times the subscription price. Terms $3.20 a year by mail, including postage. Discount to Clubs. Special circulars and Specimens sent free. May be had of all News Dealers.

In connection with the Scientific American, Messre

Munn & Co. are Solicitors of American and Foreign Patents, and have the largest establishment in the world. More than fifty thousand applications have been made for patents through their agency.

Patents are obtained on the best terms,

Models of New inventions and sketches examined and advice free. A special notice is made in the Scientific American of all Inventions Patented through this Agency, with the name and residence of the Patentee. Patents are often sold in part or whole to persons attracted to the average of the patentee.

whole, to persons attracted to the invention by such notice. Send for Pamphlet, 110. pages, containing laws and full directions for obtaining Patents.

Address for the Paper, or concerning Patents, MUNN & CO., 37 Park Row, N. Y. Branch Office, cur. F and 6th Sts., Washington, D. C.

Copartnership. R. B. GADBYI

HAVING this day, surchased the inter est of L. L. Polk in the late firm of Polk & Gaddy, we offer our present stool LOW FOR CASH.

to make room for our New Goods now daily This March Seth, 1874.

GADDY & WILLIAMS.

For Rent!

THE SENTINEL.

JOSIAH TURNER. Office near the Court House.

Goods Cheap?

VANCE & BURWELL

CHARLOTTE, THE SENIOR WILL HERE

January 1st 1875-40-tf Watches and Clock

R. P. Simmons, ATE OF ANSONVILLE, has

Crawford & Crowder. WADESBORO', N. C.

AND POLI

ARE OUR WITCH