rejoicing. He couldn't help it. Any man must rejoice who takes the the Gospel. It gives him life and peace and joy. You remember Paul's sermon at Antioch. He suched a Christ that died for the world, we directly a substitute and went into the grave formus sake, but who burst it as under the died for the world. Now, the meaning of better news, and I never expect to hear "GOOD NEWS," " GLAD TIDINGS.

Why, when it is preached in Brooklyn me only that Thou mayst be the people ought to rejoice; it should take To show the scod's ways were away their long faces and the wrinkles out ays, he gave the quatration of the of their brows. In all my travels I never ary mode in with Jericho was met a man or woman who did not like to He remarked that there were as hear good news. Suppose a telegraph orters there as lighthat meeting messenger should come among this audiopen their wes in aston- ence and go up to a man and give him a at Dr. Covler, Dr. Budington, dispatch telling him that his long wandering Potter and the round son was coming back, and would be home blowing ram's horns. God may to-morrow morning, how that man's face pitchers to do his work. If He would light up. I wouldn't have to go bersealle of Jericko down from this platform to know that he do it in His own way. He beard had been getting good news. I could see Scotland remark that every man it from here, and I guess the man wouldn't knew God sould kill Goliah, but wait till I was done with my sermon before he would get out and burry home and say to his wife: "Wife good news! our bay is man trying to in-coming home." Yes, we I rejoice when we get good news, and that is just what the uld now shout this one Gospel is that we preach. Yet a great have been washed away by the blood of the many act as if we brought them their death-warrant, or as if they were listening to some stupid lecture when we tell them these glad tulings, the best news that ever fell on mortal ears, the best news that ever came to this sin-cursed earth. The angels told the shepherds at Bethlehem, that they brought tidings of great joy, that is the Gospel. St. Paul tells the Corinthians he declared unto them the Gospel, and then again he warns those Galatians and tells them be is surprised at them for allowing themselves to be turned away from the simple Gospel. And he says, "If any man preach any other Gospel unto you than I have preached, let him be accursed.' I believe we live in days when men preach anything but the Gospel. Of course we have many faithful Gospel preachers, but 92 W. Pratt St. - - - - Baltimore there are many who and then wonder why the people don't go and hear them. Not long ago a minister came to me and said, "Mr. Moody, there is a great difference between our preaching. You are either wrong or I am." I said, "I have not heard you preach. You have heard me. Perhaps you can tell me the service the trouble." "Why," he said, "you WOuly an make a great deal of the death of Christ. very I tell them death hasn't anything to do with it. I preach the life of Christ-you preach the death." "Well," said I, "what do you do with the text : 'He was wounded for our transgressions. He was bruised for our iniquities: the chast sement of our peace was upon Him; and with His and full of stripes we are healed," He hung his het; Said he: "I never preach on that." Said I: "What do you do with this: 'Who His own self bare our sins in His own body on the tree." Said he: "I never preach on that." "Said I: "What do you preach on?" Said he: "I preach on essays, moral essays. I leave out the atenement." He didn't hold up Christ as a Savior for the race, for a lost world. Now my friends, if you would take that way, I would have to turn to farming or something else. I wouldn't know how to preach. I could not handle this Bible. If you take the carlet thread out of it that holds the back ther, the leaves will all fall apart. fOn of Passenst three thousand peoen down, and why? Be-

BITTEREST ENEMIES I EVER HAD.

The first enemy that it takes away is sin. "Behold the Lamb of God that taketh away the sins of the world." All sin is against God. To be sure sin may be against our fellow-men, but all sin is against God, and it is God alone that must overcome sin. We needn't look anywhere else. If God cannot overcome sin who can? Now the Gospel brings me the good news that out of love to me He has taken away all my sins. Not part of them. All my sins. And it tells me that He has put them all behind His back. That's a good place to have them. You see if Satan wants to get eternity, and they will never have any revery soon be brought to light, but they Lamb, and will never appear again. Isn't that good news? How every blood bought sinner ought to rejoice! Hor every redeemed sinner ought to rejoice to day, and call upon all that is within him to praise God for His mighty grace. Oh, wonder ful story of redemption, that we have been saved for time and eternity!

Another enemy has been turned out of the way, and that is death. "The last enemy that shall be destroyed is death." If you are a believer, then [TO BE CONTINUED]
