

Attorney and Counsellor at Law. STATESVILLE, N. C.,

WILL practice in the counties of Iredell, WATCHMAKER & JEWELER Wilkes, Catawla, Burke, Alexander and WITTKOWSKY & RINTELS.

- allison

$ 40

Charlotte, N. C., Aug. 6, 1873. A. HALES,

6 if the largest ever known in its natural shape, was picked up at the Reid Mine. Cabarrus county upwards of a half your Company, Mr. Elam F. Morrison, to have made a very different one-not since the war, and the greater part of staples and articles of export.

To the Stockholders of the Atlantic, Tennnessee and Ohio Raffroad.

frequently) to inquire of the parties Government ought to do something patients in the state of convelocement, whose names he had in my statement for the assistance of the South, which needing delicate attention and tender of August 21, 1872, as he did to write is really too impoverished to develop care. They are necessary to the enter

GENTLEMEN :-- The late Treasurer of formation that would have enabled him some $90,000,000 in internal taxes Their products are our most important Their Their vesh imined to the sillions vetion. fa new a and a nois in the out of themy seably astrial pps at

| 4     | L'neoln, also in the Supreme Court of NorthCarolina, and the District and Circuit Court of                                 | Watches, Clocks and Jewelry,  | ologists, was twenty-eight pounds. $\Lambda$ little of the dust from these deposits. | in submitting his report to your annual  | only in relation to this particular, but   | of it on tobacco. Were this money re  | arricultural planting and minimi as   |
|-------|--|---|--|--|--|---|---|
|       | the United States. ap 18-11  | SPECTACLES. &c.   |  | language: "I beg to call your attention  | have enabled him to have correctedother errors, of which more may be said    | turned to the people in judicious loans,  | sources are exhaustless. Their elimate  |
| 40    | WM. M. ROBBINS,  |   | prove excement fertilizers at present,   | to a deficiency of 132 Iredell county  | if it should become necessary. I can   | tage.   | situation is admirable. They are wash   |
| 1     | Attorney at Law,   |   | and stop the shrinkage of individualand national pockets. The fact is we         | bonds of $100 each that has not come  | further show to the stockholders thatthe bonds were sold months before the   | This opens up the whole subject of  | ed by the Ocean or the Gulf, or drained   |
| 1     | STATESVILLE, N. C.   |   | are ready to adopt the prayer of old   | and their whereabouts are unknown to   | end of his financial year. If I can,   | ern States. It is time now to review  | commerce of the world. With millions  |
| 10    | OFFICE IN SHARPE'S BUILDING,Second Floor, adjoining ISTRILIGENCER  | W"All work in the line neatly done, andwarranted                                      | Holbrook, once a pious Charlotte mi-   | me. Report of assets show $15,700   | and Mr. Morrison has failed to account   | the entire situation dispassionately. It  | of untilled acres waiting for cultivation.                                      |
|       | printing office. feb 1-5:tf  |   | and that quickly, more gold and bigger   | We have $2,500 on hand, and the $13,-  | for them, then who is the defaulter , he or myself?                       | ing the just penalty for her crime  | country, while with their roads and   |
|       | Dr. W. P. PARKS,OLIN, N. C.  |   | lumps, or we can never rise from theselow grounds of sin and sorrow!"            | 200 is the deficiency as shown by the  | There is one strange fact in this con-   | against the nation. No whip a child   | cities and schools and public institu   |
|       | TIAVING PERMANENTLY LOCA-  |   |  | statement, if true, shows me a defaulter   | nection: Mr. Morrison advertised sometime before the writing of his report   | to death is not justice, but cruelty  | tions they have the resources of an old   |
| -     | In ted at Olin, Iredell County, N. C., offershis professional services to the surrounding                                  |   | lad-making of a nation, and we ask no  | to that amount. I propose to show  | that the Iredell county bonds were sold,   | nation, and now that she has resumed  | attractive field for emigration in the  |
|       | in 21.1v   | N .   | greater power. "Make us sculptors,"said the lion to the man, and "we will        | you that Mr. Morrison's statement is   | and offered others on the market. Howdoes this compare with his statement    | her status and done all it is possible  | world to day; and, if lifted up out of  |
|       | J. M. CLEMENT,   | 10,000 BUSHELS OF CORN.   | chisel lions astride of you Lords of   | missing that he, and not myself, is the  | to the stockholders, that $13,200 were  | laid on her back is so much weight  | in a monition where they can Annalouv   |
|       | ATTORNEY'AT LAW,Mocksville, N. C.,   |   | Creation. Northern writers have ap   | guilty party. On the 20th of August.   | missing! I can also show that Mr.  | added to the load of the country at   | their resources and do instice to them  |
| 1     | TORACTICES in the counties of Davie, Row-  | 500 SACKS OF FLOUR.   | misrepresentations not only of our late,   | letter: "Will you please send to me a  | Morrison received a large part of thesebonds himself from the First National | the nation by consenting to crush or  | draw the floating capital and industrial  |
| 100   | an, Davidson, Iredell, Wilkes and Yadkinand in the Supreme Court of North Caroli-  | We are now prepared to receive on con   | but of our first revolutionary struggle.   | statement of the bonds on deposit from   | Bank, that the bonds deposited with  | keep her down a moment longer. And  | forces of this country and Earning as   |
| 1     | ba. Also in the District and Circuit Courts of   | the state have a series of form and   | loss of self-respect, the consequent of  | elsewhere from this read!" On the  | Col. Simonton, Cashier, and with Mrs.Springs, have been delivered to the     | of the South is serious in the extreme.   |   |
| -     | RUFUS BARRINGER  |   | admitted humiliation and degradation.  | 21st of August, 1872, the next day   | Company. Outside of the three par-   | and materially impairs the strength   | A Quaint Sermon.  |
| - C   | ATTORNEY,  | Flour from planters or country merchants, to  | those who refuse to help themselves.   | after the receipt of his note, I wroteMr. Morrison as follows: "Your favor   | ties above named, there remained only$800, and they in the hands of Col.    | and prosperity of the nation. Hercountry has been stripped in many  |   |
|       |  | be sold for cash and prompt returns made.   | If we listen to their editors, orators,  | enquiring of Bonds belonging to the  | Osborne, (and they may also have been  | places down to the naked acres and  | Mr. Dodd was a minister that lived  |
|       | A LSO NEGOTIATES LOANS, LendsMoney (on long time and at lowest Bank-   | Facks furmabed on application.  | divines, school teachers, and book ma-   | A., T. & O. R. R. came duly to hand.   | returned.) Now what goes with this declaration, that "that their whera-          | immense districts which once were fruit-ful under tillage are left wild. Here   | many years ago a few miles from Cam-bridge ; and having several times been  |
|       | ing rates), on Real Estate, and good Collater-   | LT COFF   | Englanders are the superiors of all  | sired:   | bouts are unknown?"  | people are too poor to help themselves.   | preaching against drunkenness, some   |
|       | als, such as Railroad Stocks, County Bonds,Ac. may 10-191f   |   | creation. They tell us of Boston andConcord, of Lexington and Bunker             | $31,500 C. C. & A. R. R. bonds withC. Bouknight, Treasurer, Columbia.   | I have sought justice without ap-  | the set of | of the Cambridge scholars (conscience,which is sharper than ten thousand    |
| 100   | T . BATCET. JOHN W. MAUNET   | june 14-11: f Charlotte, N. C.  | Hill; but neglect to inform us that  | 0,   | pearing before the public, as may beseen from the correspondence with Mr.    | and been decision and been in   | witnesses, being their monitor) were  |
| 10    | BAILEY & MAUNEY,   |   | years before rebellion was a chief virtue  | with Farmers's and Merchants' Bank.  | Morrison; to remain silent longer might  | Leen broken up, and a new one has not   | very much offended, and thought he  |
| 1.    | BANKRUPT LAWYERS,  |   | in New England, and British tea wasKu-kluxed in Boston, the "Black Boys"         | Charlotte.$74,300 Mecklenburg county bonds  | give a shadow of truth to his state  |   | made reflections on them. Some littletime after, Mr. Dodd was walking to-   |
|       | SALISBURY, N. C.   | WALTER BREM & CO.,  | of Cabarrus, N. C., had taken the war-   | with First National Bank, Charlotte.   | There is much more I might say no.   | whites are divided into two classes the   | wards Cambridge, and met some of the  |
|       | may 10:19:1  |   | path, and the "Regulators" of then Or-   | $1,000 Mecklenburg county bonds   | on this subject, but my article hasgrown to larger proportions than I an     | ignorant negroes led and incited by   | gownsmen, who, as soon as they saw  |
|       | J. A. STEPHENSON,  | IMPORTER AND DEALAR IN  | English troops (1771), on the banks of   | lege.  | ticipated ; less at this time I could not  | things pretty much their own way.   | some ridicule of him. As soon as he   |
| 5     |  | HARDWARE,   | the Alamance. Mecklenburg soon fol-lowed and declared Independence, May          |  | have written and done myself justice ;the balance may be written in the fu-  |   | came up, they accosted him with "Yourservant, sir!" He replied, "Your ser-  |
| 210   | AND SOLICITOR IN BANKRUPTCY.   | OF EVERY DESCRIPTION.   | 30, 1775. The world need not be told   | lege.  | ture. There are many stockholders in   | ambitious and corrupt hands, and the  | vant, gentlemen." They asked him if   |
| 1.00  | YADKINVILLE, N. C.   | DESIRES to call the attention of up-countryMerchants, and the public generally to his | that the sun of freedom which then andthere rose so brightly and shed its me-    | $4,300 Mecklenburg county bonds toE. F. Morrison, Treasurer, as per re-   | this Company residents of Iredell coun-  |   | he had not been preaching very muchagainst drunkenness of late ? He an      |
| 10    | Gives strict personal attention to all caseswatrusted to him. may 17-tf  | Large and Well Selected   | ridian light and heat at old Guilford  |  | ty, and I hope I will not be asking toomuch of the INTHILIGENCER and Amer-   |   | ewered in the affirmative. They then  |
|       | watrusted to him. may 17-tf  | STOCK OF GOODS.   | C. H. went down in blood and darkness  | $35,600 Iredell county bonds with   | ican to copy.  | the enrichment of political plunderers.   | told him they had a favor to beg of him, and it was that he would preach a      |
|       |  | IMPORTED  | on the field of Bennettsville, near bythe spot of its origin. Well might         | First National Bank, Charlotte.$10,000 Iredell county bonds with  |  | Business has forsaken Charleston anddrifts away from Mobile. Houses can   | sermon to them there, from a text they  |
|       | COMMISSION MERCHANT,ROCK HILL, S. C.   | Expressly for this Market.  | Barrington, royal Governor of North  | R. F. Simonton, Cashier, Statesville.  | to submit the following proposition to   | be had in New Orleans for the taxes,  | should choose. He argued that it wasan imposition, for a man ought to have  |
|       | COLICITS shipments of Flour, Meal Wheat  | July 6th. 1872. 12-ti   | Carolina, writing to the Duke of New-castle (1731), say:                         | $1,800 Iredell county bonds withMrs. E. C. Springs, Charlotte.  | Mr. Morrison, which I cheerfully ac-cede to, to wit: I will leave the matter |   | some consideration before preaching.  |
| a     | Corn and Oats, to be sold on commission.Those having products to sell should correspond                                    | General Hardware, Builders' Supplies, &c.   | "The people of North Carolina al-  | $800 Iredell county bonds with Col.   | in controversy to three persons, one to  | dred dollars an acre, can now be  | They said they would not put up witha denial, and insisted upon his preach- |
| 202   | with me and obtain market prices at Rock Hill.   | WE HAVE   | ways behaved insolently to the Gover-nors. Some, they have imprisoned,           | E. A. Osborne, Charlotte.$20,000 Town of Charlotte with First   | be chosen by Mr. Morrison, one bymyself, and they to choose the third,       | bought for five. The unsettled con-dition of things takes all courage out   | ing immediately, (in a hollow tree which  |
| and a | which can generally be done in 24 hours.REFERENCE :- John I. Shaver, Esq., Mr. J. O.White, and Ed. Intelligencer. 7-1f | Over 400 Dozen Door Locks, Latches,   | others exiled, and at times set up a   | National Bank, Charlotte."   | and make full publication of the facts   | of the hearts of the people, checks en-   | stood by the road side) from the wordM.A.L.T. He then began, "Helowed.      |
| 13    | E. W. STUBBS & CO.,  | would do well to get our prices, as we are de-  | Governor of their own, supported by arms."   | These bonds were placed with theparties above named as collateral se   | as they may find them. M. L. W.Charlotte, Oct. 21, 1873.                     | terprise, stops emigration, and pre-vents recovery from the natural conse-  | let me crave your attention. I am a   |
|       | Lincolnton, Lincoln County, N. C.,   | termined to sell Locks, &c., at LOW prices.   | Thus may it ever be with tyrants,  | curity for money borrowed, and em  |  | quences of the war and anything like a  | little man-come at a short notice-topreach a short sermon-from a short      |
| 0     | MANUFACTURERS OF   | We bought largely and bought low.   | foreign and domestic, and from the   | Company at that time. I heard no-  | The Devil's Soup Spoons.   | fair development of the resources ofthe country. The anarchy in Louisiana   | text-to a thin congregation-in an   |
| ÷     | MACHINERY, OF ALL KINDS.   | A very large Stock of General Hardware,Builders' Supplies, &c., &c. Calls and orders  | these "insolent" rebels, may yet spring  | thing more from Mr. Morrison in rela   |  | terrifies the people, while the move-   | unworthy pulpit. Beloved, my text isMalt. I cannot divide it into sentes    |
|       | Castings of Iron or Brass.   | solicited. Very respectfully,   | a phœnix which will fan the corpse ofthe South into immortal life and vigor.     | tion to them until the 28th of June,   | The German proverb says, "A manwho takes soup with the Devil needs a         | ments of the colored population, whohave been tampered with and played  | cos, there being none ; nor into words,   |
| 1     | Heavy Forging and Blacksmithing general-   | BREM, BROWN & CO.,Importers and Dealers in Hardware,                                  | We believe, in our letter from Salisbu-  | of his financial year, and ten months  | long spoon." And this is especially  | upon and used by politicians and ad-  | there being but one: I must, therefore.   |
| -     | ly. Agricultural work on hand and made to order.   | may 10-19tf Charlotte, N. C.  | ry, we promised to say something more  | after the statement was sent him, when   | true of those engaged in occupations   | venturers until they have lost confi-dence in white integrity and gained an   | of necessity, divide it into letters, which I find in my text to be these       |
|       | Repairs of machinery promptly attended toand orders solicited  | F. M. SHELTON,  | about a new element or enterprise andwealth in North Carolina. One day,          | was a deficit of 132 Iredell county  | watch million whom whom when   | exagerated idea of their own power,   | four-MALT.  |
|       |  |   | in conversation at a corner of a street  | bonds, and before I could reply I re-  | They dream of prosperity, and countup their present gains, but eventually    | are incalculable, and looked upon   | M-is MoralA-is Allegorical  |
| 194   | SINOXTON HOUSE,  | Undertaker,   | Venable, he directed our attention to  | ceived another letter stating that he had found my statement sent him on   | find that their soup spoon was too   | with dread. The fact that in the face of these difficulties and embarrassments,   | L-is Literal.   |
| 88.   | T. A. PRICE, Proprietor,Statesville, N. C.   | Dealer in Furniture,  | two fine mules tugging at a wagon.   | the 21st of August, 1872, and led me   | short, and while they get the soup, thedevil gets them. And almost every     | the cotton crop of the present year is  | T-is Theological  |
| 100   | HAVING taken charge of the above namedHouse, I re-pectfully solicit the patron-  | Near N. C. R. R., Trade Street,   | The load was not familiar to us as it  | to believe that all the information thathe desired was then in his possession.   | liquor shop and distillery in the land   | larger than usual is in the highest degree creditable to the industry and en-   | "The Moral, is to teach you rustichs,good manners, therefore M-my man-      |
| 1     | age of my former customers and the travellingpublic generally.   | CHARLOTTE, N. C.  | He asked us to "guess," but not being  | I did not reply to either, and you may   | can furnish instances which will de-monstrate this. Dr. Dio Lewis relates    | are of the people and an indication   | ters, A-All of you, L-Leave off, T-   |
|       | No pains will be spared in making this a   | Orders solicited and promptly filled atPrices Low-Terns Cash.                         | Yankee enough for the occasion, we   | imagine my surprise when, on readinghis report, I found that he there deliv-   | the following : "A large whisky distiller  | of the yest resources of the country  | "The Allegorical is, when one thing   |
|       | first-class Hotel. ap 18 1-tf  | nes 16:31-150   | shipment of native roots and herbs,  | ered himself of the statement above  | in central New York had three sons,who assisted their father in his nefari-  |   | te enoken of and another means. I he  |
|       | ST. CHARLES HOTEL.(Formerly the Elliott House.)  |   | from the botanical collection of Wallace   | quoted. I immediately wrote him of   | ous business. None but God will ever   | It is obvious that the wants of the   | thing spoken of is Malt. The thing meant is the spirit of Malt, which you       |
|       | STATESVILLE, N. C.   | FURNITURE ROOMS,No. 4 West Trade Street, opposite Brom,                               | the depot and from thence to England.  | the injustice done me in his report.In his reply he stated the bonds were  | know the misery of which that distil-  | anght to be missly considered and   | TUSLICES, BIALO, JL-YOUR ALONS, A-  |
|       | J. D. ELLIOTT, Manager.  | Brown & Co.'s Dry Goods Store, a  | Canada, St. Louis, Boston, and the   | still missing. (I have mislaid his letter  | 'Iry was the source."The distiller and his sons were                         | nonntly mete It is too late to talk   | your Apparel, L-Jour Laperty, and   |
| 80    | Board per Day,   | Charlotte, N. C.  |  | and may not have quoted his language.)I wrote him again without receiving  | among the victims. The father threw  | about compensation for slaves liberatedby the necessities and fortunes of war.  | - The Literal is according to saw Mr-   |
|       | W. A. Daniels & Co 's Livery Stables attach.   | Metalic Burial Cases, Caskets, SpringBeds and Mattresses, and a full as-              | there witnessed upwards of four hun-   | any satisfaction. Again, on the 30th   | himself into a well in a fit of delirium   | And it is easier to see what the South  | ters, M-Mach, A-Ale, L-Lattle, T-   |
| 100   | ed to this House. june 7.32.   |   | dred varieties of roots, herbs and dried   | September, I addressed him the follow-ing letter: "I hope a sufficient length  | tremens. The oldest son, during an attack, imagined his tongue a snake,          | wants than how its wants can be met   | "The Theological is, according to the   |
| 1.7   |  | Charlotte, June 21, 1873. 24 tf.  | bales, barrels and hogsheads. Millions   | of time has passed since the publication   | drew it out, bit it off, and bled to   | ingt that interference with the rights  | effects it works-in some, in-muruer   |
| 1     | STATESVILLE MALE ACADEMY.  | W. H. H. HOUSTON & CO.,   | of pounds leave the place to return to   | of your report to the stockholders of  | destn. The next son, while suffering   | and laws of the several States which  | -in others, A-Adultery-in all, L-Looseness of Life, and in many, T-         |
| 811   | THE FOURTH SESSION OF THE  | & Williamson.   | the shape of medicines or perfumes   | the A., T. & O. R. R. for you to beconvinced that you did me great injus-  | into the well which had received his   | ion if we do not condemn The  | Treachery.  |
| 1-    | Statesville Male Academy will commence on  | Wholesale Grocers & Com'n Merchants.  | The celebrated ginseng is sent to China.   | tion in mone statement of the bonds of   | lather. The last one of the four, while  | anatomy of the States must be pre-  | "I shall conclude the subject, First,by way of Exhoriation, M-my Mas        |
| E.    | Monday August 4th, 1873, and continue twenty weeks. For further particulars addressthe Principals.J. B. CONNELLY   | DEALERS IN  | tobacco, and is worth its weight in  | the me the instice of making as Dublic   | driving a wagon load of whiskey to hisplace in the country, pitched off his  | La Jone for the States as long as the   | tern A-All of you L-Lanen 1-10  |
| 100   | the Principals.J. B. CONNELLY, Prin's.W. G. WOODS  | LIQUOTS, Iobacco, Flour, Grain &c(At Gregory & Williamson's old stand, Trade          | gold Hundreds of children and em-  | the error to that of the error to  | scal, and was full over by the wagon   | balance of political power is in the  | my Text. Second, by way of Castion.M-my Masters, A-All of you, L-           |
|       | J. B. CONNELLY,W. G. WOODS,June 28, 1873. 25 tf  | . St.)  | ployment, at good wages, in the col-   | which he replied, again asserting his  | The man who enters into each an  | tion whom praindings are samit stell  | LOOK 107, 1-400 ITUM. IIMPO. D  |
|       |  | CHARLOTTE, N. C.  |  |  |  |   |   |
| -     | HUMPHREY HOUSE,GOLDSBORD, N. C.  | AGENTS FOR  | intelligent Superintendent and chief   | lows: "Yours of the 2nd inst., mailed  | The tears of orphans, the prayers of   | be inflamed by adventurers and dema   | of modesty; the spoil of civility; the  |
| Pe.   | Dr. S. P. Wright, Proprietor.  | Sea Foul Guano, and Houston ProlificCotton Seed.                                      |  |  |  |   |   |
| 10.   | Recently fitted up in the very best manner.  | Strict personal attention to the parchase   | some put in alcoholic fluids. Flowers  | correct. This I deny, and have the   | every side. Let the wise beware. Letthe prudent foresee the evil and hide    | of the welfare of the country, and to   | wifejs corrow ; his children's trouble  |
|       | Every delicacy in season.  | and sale of Cotton. A large and convenientWarehouse for the Storage of Cotton, Corn,  |  |  |  | measures calculated to advance was  | a walking swill how . the nicture of a  |
|       | from this House. may 17-tf   | Oats, & mar 15:11-1f  | and preserve more odor than in a nat-ural way.                                   | ask you to come down and examinethem in order to be convinced yourself.  | prosper long peneath the "woe of God   | at large? The Southern States are to  | beast : the monster of a man "  |
|       |  |   |  | Whether and the second se |  |   |   |

century ago. Its weight as recorded by eye witnesses, geographers, and geologists, was twenty-eight pounds.