REGISTRATION.—The Registration books for the Second Ward are now open at the Court House. F. C. Burnett Registrar.

COUNTY COMMISSIONERS met yesterday evening and made a few changes in the Registrars, and passed a few bills. They will meet again Saturday.

SECRET.—The action of the Committee from the "mass meeting" is still secret. The rumors published in the Democratic press of the city lack confirmation. They are evidently trying the little bluff game.

PEACHES.—The finest peaches we have seen this year, were grown on Gen. Estes' magnificent plantation in Edgecombe county. They are large, luscious and fascinating. A few of those large rosy, downy cheeked specimens would make even a local editor happy.

MILITARY.—Col. Mendenhall with a portion of his command came up from Fort Johnson early this morning on the Seward, and went up the Wilmington, Charlotte and Rutherford Railroad. The expedition is secret, but it looks like a movement against the outlaws in Robeson county.

Mayor's Court.

HIS HONOR E. R. BRINK PRESIDING.
SAMUEL NORMAN, for disorderly conduct, paid five dollars to the support of the city.

ALEX. MARTIN, for same offence, was required to disburse the same amount for the same laudable purpose.

BINGHAM SCHOOL.—We have received the catalogue of the Bingham School, of Mcbaneville, N. C., for the session of 1871-'72. This school is under the able management of Col. Wm. Bingham, assisted by an equally efficient corps of teachers. It numbers ninety-one pupils in the various practical branches, seventy-three of whom are from North Carolina. We wish the Colonel success.

THE TOWN CRIER.

Gold $112.

—Delightfully hot.

—More shade trees wanted.

—Magnificent breezes at Smithville.

—Ice rum punch is good on warm days.

—Again the Seward officers promenade the streets.

—Democratic Republicans abuse Senator Pool. Good.

—Miss Bradley's school house is rapidly approaching completion.

—Mayor Brink adjudicates difficulties without worry or fuss.

—Western papers want Wilmingtonians to breathe their mountain air.

—Major Matt Taylor is still willing to insure a few more healthy subjects in spite of the Baltimore nominations.

—The Journal is putting in a new steam boiler. We suppose this is necessary to work their engine up the heavy Greeley grade.

—Dr. King has returned from his northern trip and assumes his professional labors, with his old time kindness and attention.

—At the midnight hour, the Odd Fellows closing hymn is wafted with the cool breezes bringing fond recollections of past hours spent in that abode of Friendship, Love and Truth, never to be forgotten. May they sing that same hymn for a hundred years.

So Schurz, Trumbull and others of the "Liberals" are coming to speak in this State. Its necessary to have some one to speak in favor of Greeley and to explain why those opposed to his nomination add to his platform were not allowed even to speak one word in opposition during Convention. Nice sort of teachers of freedom are these Democratic Liberals.

POLITICAL.—C. D. Myers & Co., are out as candidates for purveyors to the people. We have as yet seen no other ticket in the field and as they attend strictly to business, we presume they will be elected. We recommend especially the black-berry brandy to the disaffected Democracy who have got to swallow Greeley. As friend Myers has got to take that dose, and as he knows how it is himself, we presume he has ordered a large amount of the brandy for his friends.

We acknowledge the reception of the following periodicals:

The American Farmers Advocate, Jackson, Tenn., containing the usual amount of valuable suggestions for agriculturalists.

We have also received the American Land and Law Adviser, Pittsburg, Pa. Several excellent plans and specifications for cottage buildings are published in this number.

The Farm and Fireside Journal, for June, is on our table. It is ably edited and demands the attention of our home people.

Harper's Bazaar, one of the most acceptable publications of the Harper Brothers, has reached us. It is truly the most valuable fashion journal published in this country, and our fair townswomen look for its weekly appearance with the same eagerness that they watched for the advent of a successful blockade runner.

RUMORS.—Many rumors are rife on the street of the new ticket to be put out in this county by men who have heretofore acted with the Republican party. We have heard of most of the candidates and know that many of them have positively refused to allow their names to be used. How they will fix up the matter, we are uninformed, but of one thing our friends may be certain; every vote cast for a man not on the regular ticket, is one vote in favor of Democracy! Let that be distinctly understood. If a man refuses to submit to the regular nomination, made in Republican Convention according to law, he is not acting with the Republican party and has no right to claim allegiance to it. We want no half way politics. Let us vote for the regular nominees and Grant, or for the Democratic nominees and Greeley.—There can legally be no medium ground. We will take Grant in ours, every time.

EXCELLENT.—Mr. S. G. HALL has laid upon our table one of the finest specimens of printing in colors, we have seen in a long time. Mr. HALL is a success as a printer.

WELDON.—A large crowd of Republicans and Democratic Republicans are going to Weldon to-night to the big pow wow. If all the big guns they advertise are present, their armament will be like the Cuba which came into our waters some time ago; many guns—but of no use. All the powder, and flags and drums they can put up, and all the barbecues they may offer, won't heal the big disgust felt by the old line democracy at the present aspect of affairs. They are about as sick as they can well be, and while we sympathize with them, we don't pity them at all. They put themselves in this ridiculous position and must abide the result.

THE proposition to bolt is fast dying out, and we are indeed glad to see it. We believe this effect is owing to the result of the so-called mass Convention that met on the 9th. The sudden transformation of the Convention into a ratification meeting endorsing the nominations made at Rocky Point, was the best thing that could have happened to the Republican party of New Hanover. It fully sustained the fact that the people had become tired and weary of discord and disaffection, and that they intended to stand by the regular nominations, united and undivided, and defeat the sore-headed democracy of this county by a majority of two thousand in the August election. Not a single nomination was made in the Convention we refer to, in opposition to the regular ticket. The few that there were, were sorely disappointed at this open action of the people. Democratic influence and trickery has utterly failed to cause a split in our party, and they have ceased to laugh under the sleeve, and are wearing even longer faces, and seem to be more chagrined at the result than the few dissatisfied Republicans themselves. The people all over the county are engaged in preparing for large mass meetings that will sustain the regular nominees of the party.

STATE ITEMS.

NIGHT DISPATCHES.

(Condensed from the Morning Papers.)

The Bolters Convention

BALTIMORE, July 10.

The bolters' convention adopted an address to the American people, and after issuing a call for a national democratic convention to meet at Louisville Sept. 3d, adjourned sine die.

The officers of the convention were: President, Samuel J. Bayard, of New York; Vice-Presidents, E. Stokes, of South Carolina, James Sweeney, of Pennsylvania, Ezra Keyser, of Texas, and Jesse Miller, of West Virginia; Secretaries, James Sherwood, of Connecticut, and S. J. Clute, of New York.

The Greeley Convention.

After speeches by Hoffman, of New York and Wallace, of Pennsylvania, the band played the "Battle Cry of Freedom," followed by "Hall to the Chief."

When the music ceased a scene was lowered at the rear of the stage representing a view of the White House. (Applause.)

Order being restored, the motion of Mr. Wallace that the nomination be made unanimous, was put and carried, with one or two dissents only.

The roll was called on the nomination for Vice-President.

On motion of Mr. Chalmers, of Mississippi, the nomination was made unanimous.

Mr. Bouck, of Wisconsin, moved the adoption of a resolution appointing a committee of one from each State, to be named by the respective delegates, to apprise the candidates of their nominations.

Mr. Payne, of Ohio, moved to amend by adding the President of the convention, to be chairman. Agreed.

On motion of Mr. Heaton, of Ohio, a resolution was adopted that, on the adjournment of the Convention it would, with music, escort the New York and Missouri delegations to their quarters.

A resolution was adopted leaving the place of meeting of the next National Convention to be decided by the National Committee.

Resolutions of thanks to Messrs. John T. Ford, Frederick Raine, and to Baltimore, for courtesies; also to Mr. Doolittle for the able and impartial manner in which he has presided over the convention, were passed.

Mr. Thayer, of New York made a few remarks eulogistic of Greeley.

The chairman returned thanks for the kind expressions towards him, and invoked the blessing of Providence upon the efforts of the convention.

Brown was nominated by a vote of 712, Stevenson, of Kentucky, received 6 votes.—There were 13 blanks, viz: Florida, 2; New Jersey, 3; West Virginia, 2. Delaware voted for Stevenson.

The female suffragists are disappointed.—They declare their intention to work for the Philadelphia nominees.

Augustus Schell was elected chairman of the National Executive committee.

From Washington.

WASHINGTON, D. C., July 10.

The Revenue Commissioner decides that a person who has a fixed place of business in a car, as for instance, at a stand in a Pullman car or in a steamboat to which persons may go and procure cigars, &c., instead of being sought out in various parts of the train or boat and solicited to purchase, is a dealer in tobacco and not a peddler.

NOON DISPATCHES.

From New York.

NEW YORK, July 11.

The World says: "In the faithful fulfillment of pledges which the World has constantly repeated since its great disappointment at the surprising nomination at Cincinnati, we bow to the decision of the Democratic National Convention and loyally accept Greeley as the Democratic candidate for the Presidency. It deprecates abusing anti-Greeley Democrats and says unless these are uttered hopeless. The great object is harmony and unanimity."

General Breckenridge expresses himself in favor of Greeley.

The Tribune had its account of the proceedings at Baltimore, with two hands grasped.

The Times captions its account in midsummer: "Madness and last act of the Democratic Bedlamites."

Francesca Leinen, who jumped $25,000 bail, for robbing in Savannah, has been arrested here. He goes back to-day.

Two persons who robbed Martin Hines, of Atlanta, Georgia, get five and two and a half years in the penitentiary.

The deaths in Brooklyn for the week were 639 including 45 suicides.

A special from Madrid to the 10th, says Dr. Howard is free. An order from Madrid offered his release as an act of pardon, to which he demurred as his acceptance of it, might appear an acknowledgment of guilt.

—Heard of his flight in compensation. He was then turned or forced out from his place of confinement.

ELMIRA July 11.

Sam'l C. Taber has resigned his membership in the State Executive Committee to support Greeley.

From Alabama.

MONTGOMERY, July 11.

All the daily democratic papers of Alabama have hoisted the Greeley ticket, and the weeklies will do so at the earliest day. The white people are satisfied with the work of the convention, but the negroes are not on the subject.

A negro speaker promised a whipping to any negro voting the Greeley ticket, and his hearers loudly applauded the sentiment.—This incident indicates the general feeling among the colored men on the subject of Greeley's nomination.

From Virginia.

GREENSBORO, WHITE SUPPLIER, July 11.

Fifteen miles west of here, the construction train went into Greenbrier river, the engineer, fireman, and four laborers killed, and five wounded. The accident occurred on the new road towards Ohio, not on the road frequented by travellers to the Virginia resorts.

SARATOGA, July 11.

The report that the time of the Saratoga races had been changed is not true. The races begin Saturday 13th, and continue six days. Longfellow and Bussett are here.

THE PEOPLE'S STAMP OF VALUE.—The Government endorsement, which legalizes the sale of Plantation Bitters, is not the only stamp fixed to that famous Vegetable Tonic. It bears, in addition to that official sanction, the still more valuable stamp of public approbation. This inestimable voucher of its rare properties as a Tonic, Corrective and Alterative, is of much earlier date than the Government credential; for millions of sick persons had pronounced it the Grand Specific of the Age long before Congress thought of issuing proprietary medicines. It is unnecessary to repeat, in detail, the properties of this wonderful Vegetable Invigorant. The best reference that can be offered to those who desire the full particulars of its virtues, is the General Public. Ask those who have tried it as a remedy for dyspepsia, constipation, biliousness, intermittent fevers, nervous debility, rheumatism, sea sickness, low spirits, or loss of vital power, what Plantation Bitters has done for them, and be governed by the response they make to your inquiries.
