KEEP BEFORE THE PEOPLE!

Gov. CALDWELL and his friends GAVE THE MECHANICS AND LABORERS OF THIS STATE THE FIRST LIEN LAW THEY EVER HAD.

Judge Merrimon and his friends told the people of this State in 1868 that every vote for our present Constitution was a vote for negro supremacy. Was their assertion true?

Who told the people of Wake last summer that they would have to pay fifty dollars tax on every thousand dollars' worth of property. Answer—Judge Merrimon.

It is urged by the Democratic organs that the law is to be enforced in State and municipal elections. This is done to make it more obnoxious, if that be possible, to their party. But, unfortunately, this is an error. The law applies only to Presidential and Congressional elections. THROUGH WE HEARTILY WISH IT COULD BE MADE TO APPLY TO ALL OTHERS.—N. Y. Tribune.

When the rebellious Traitors are overwhelmed in the Field, and scattered like leaves before an angry wind, it must not be to return to Peaceful and Contented Homes. They must find Liberty at their firesides, and the Protection of the Rights of Children. MONSIEUR GREY, of Wilmington, 1861.

"I hold our Government bound by its duty of protecting our citizens in their fundamental rights, to pass and enforce laws for the extirpation of the execrable ku klux conspiracy; and if it has the power to do it, then I say our Government is no Government, but a sham. Therefore on every proper occasion advocate and justify the ku klux act. I hold it especially desirable for the South; and if it does not prove strong enough to effect its purpose, I hope it will be made stronger and stronger."

The Importance of this Campaign.

There has probably never been a time in the political history of the country, when people looked with such eager eyes towards North Carolina. As Senator Wilson said Thursday, we are on the skis of the line and are first to meet the enemy. If we vanquish him here, the election of GRANT will be a matter of form. If we are defeated here, we are indeed casting a heavy burden upon the shoulders of our comrades in the other States. We have but a few short days more to labor in the good cause. The enemy is making strenuous exertions. Vast sums of money have been sent here for his use, and all the renegade Northern speakers who could be found are at labor in the State. What does it mean? It simply means that if the Democrats succeed in carrying North Carolina on the first of August next, it will be hailed as a Liberal Republican triumph all over the Union and inspire our enemies with new vigor. We will see large placards in the press declaring that the old North State has wheeled into line, and the foes to good government will greatly rejoice. The result of such a triumph would be disastrous to the poor or laboring man. The Constitutional amendments would be passed—all together, for they can't select part—and away will go the Homestead Law. Has any one forgotten how the supporters of MERRIMON fought the Constitution with this noble provision in it? Does not every one know that Judge MERRIMON carries his warfare against the Homestead Law to the Supreme Court of the State? Away will go the Mechanics Lien Law! Every Mechanic in the State knows he is indebted to the Republican party for this great law. Will he vote to destroy the party which gave it to him?

They would reestablish the old County Court system which is much more expensive than the present one. Cannot all Administrative matters be settled more promptly and cheaply now than ever before? Every man who has business with Probate Judges knows it to be true. To be sure it is a hard system for Attorneys, for under the present Code, anyone can appear in the Probate Court and transact his business without the expense of employing an attorney if he chose. We do not blame Attorneys, therefore, for disliking the Code, but like the Homestead and the Lien law, it is the poor man's friend. Do you want it all swept away and the old anti-law laws reenacted? Shall we go back to the time when a man must own one hundred acres of land to be a member of the House and three hundred acres to be a Senator? Shall we put a property qualification on the voter and removing the homestead law, imprison the unfortunate for debt? Shall we again have that barbarous room fitted up in the jail, called the "debtors room" and confine the unfortunate behind iron bars? Shall we exempt the rich from military duty and conscript the poor man whose daily labor is necessary to the support of his family? If we wish all these things, let us vote for Judge MERRIMON and the other Democratic candidates!

It is urged by our opponents, that they are in favor of the Homestead Act, and the Lien law, and abolishing the property clause, and imprisonment for debt. But why do they claim this? It is to inveigle honest laboring men and small farmers into voting their ticket. If they are in favor of all these great REPUBLICAN BLESSINGS, why did they not give them to the people when they had the power? We all know they did not. If they endorse these Republican measures now, they admit that the Republican party was doing right when they were moving Heaven and Earth to defeat it. If they had succeeded in their designs, does any sane man believe they would now be enjoying these great benefits? We think not.

It behooves all those who want the Homestead Act, and all these Republican measures, to stand by the party which gave them, or they will be imperiled if not absolutely lost! If we are desirous of losing all we have gained in the past four years, of prosperity and the confidence of our Northern States, let us alter our Constitution and thereby prevent any more capital from coming here and go back to the old times, by voting the State Democratic ticket!

But on the other hand, if we desire peace and prosperity and the continuance of the great benefits we are now enjoying, stand by the Republican party, which never said a rich man was better than a poor man, but always has labored for the good of all mankind.

Let us then remember how few more days there are to labor and give our fire time to this great work. A Republican triumph in North Carolina in August means a National Republican triumph in November. Peace and Prosperity will smile upon us and the Star of the Republic will ascend higher in the constellation of the world.

"Radical Terrorism."

Our Democratic friends accuse the Poor of trying to manufacture ku klux items for political purposes, and they say, we are injuring the fair name of the State. How very sensitive! We have in one of our contemporaries this morning an article on the other side which accuses our party of "terrorism," and refers first to the "Tarboro outrage." What were the facts? The editor of a Democratic paper was at a Fourth of July celebration and conversing with some colored men, when he was grossly insulted by a colored man who approached him. Of course he struck the fellow with his cane, which was proper enough, and a row became imminent. Who protected the editor? COLORED MEN. In spite of the flaming dispatches that fifty armed negroes assaulted one unarmed man, he escaped with no serious damage. His own statements were a sufficient refutation of any intimidation, but we still read the charge in the Democratic press. Mr. Briggs was assaulted by rowdies and was protected by Republicans.

And now we have another case. One SAMUEL G. CROSS a colored marshal at a Democratic meeting was assaulted by thoughtless colored men, and what is the result? Why the United States Commissioner arrests the parties and examines into the case! Where is the accustomed Democratic howl of "Despotism," "Grant's henchmen" et cetera, which we always hear when ku klux persons are tried? The article in question says that Cross left the guard house where he had fled for protection and started for home and that "he has not been heard of since," and yet in the State items of the same paper is the announcement that he has "turned up all right." The Raleigh News also informed the papers that the persons attacking Cross had been brought before the United States Commissioner at Raleigh. We haven't the remotest idea that our contemporary will admit the justice of these remarks, but we intend to keep pegging away, ventilating outrages of all kinds, whether ku klux or otherwise, and denouncing them.

The Duplin Ku Klux Again.

The Journal publishes a new version of the Duplin county outrage, which accuses the deceased of having attempted an outrage on a woman. We have written for further particulars, which we hope to lay before our readers on Monday. In this connection it is proper to state that a portion of the report of this murder in the Post is liable to a misconception and we therefore say that we are always opposed to mob violence or rowdism of any sort. We have the law to protect us, and to that should all appeals be made. No man has a right to take the law into his own hands. Two wrongs cannot make one right and we utterly repudiate any and every act of ruffianism, by whomsoever made. The Post believes in the laws, and upholds and endorses the present Constitution under which we are living. We ask our friends to sustain that Constitution and the laws under it, at all times.

RALEIGH, July 15th, 1872.

EDITOR POST:—I learn that the Democratic candidate in your District speaks of Gen. Grant as a man without brains, and as a common drunkard.

A. H. STEPHENS, white Vice President of the Southern Confederacy, met Gen Grant at Hampton Roads in Virginia, and he gives his impression of Gen. G. in his book, "War between the States" vol. 2, page 597, as follows:

"I was instantly struck with the great simplicity and perfect naturalness of his manners, and the entire absence of everything like affectation, show, or even military air or mien of men in his position. * * * There is nothing in his appearance or surroundings which indicated his official rank. * * * His conversation was easy and fluent without the least effort or restraint. In this, nothing was so closely noticed by me as the point and terseness which he expressed whatever he said.

He did not seem either to court or avoid conversation; but whenever he did speak, what he said was directly to the point, and covered the whole matter in a few words. I saw before I was with him long, that he was exceedingly quick in perception, and direct in purpose, with a vast deal more brains than tongue, as ready as that was at his command. * * * The more I became acquainted with him, the more I became thoroughly impressed with the very extraordinary combination of qualities which he possessed. He was wholehearted, and this in acquaintance with Gen. Grant was a common saying on my mind that taken all in all, he was one of the most remarkable men I had met with, and that his career in life, if his days should be prolonged, was hardly entered upon; that he, himself, was not aware of his own powers, and that if he lived, he would in the future exert a controlling influence in shaping the destinies of this country, either for good or for evil. Which it would be, time and circumstances alone could disclose."

Who is most capable of forming a correct estimate of Gen. Grant—A. M. Waddell or A. H. Stephens?

Yours, for GRANT, N.
