KEEP BEFORE THE PEOPLE!
Gov. CALDWELL and his friends GAVE THE MECHANICS and LABORERS OF THIS STATE THE FIRST LIEN LAW THEY EVER HAD.

Judge Merrimon and his friends told the people of this State in 1868 that every vote for our present Constitution was a vote for negro supremacy. Was their assertion true?

Who told the people of Wake last summer that if the Convention was voted down they would have to pay fifty dollars tax on every thousand dollars worth of property. Answer—Judge Merrimon.

It is urged by the Democratic organs that the law is to be enforced in State and municipal elections. This is done to make it more obnoxious, if that be possible, to their party. But, unfortunately, this is an error. The law applies only to Presidential and Congressional elections, though we heartily wish it could be made to apply to all others.—N. Y. Tribune.

When the rebellious Traitors are overwhelmed in the Field, and scattered like leaves before an angry wind, it must not be to return to Peaceful and Contented Homes. THEY MUST FIND

POVERTY AT THEIR FEET, AND SEE PRIVATION IN THE BLOODY EYES OF MOTHERS AND THE BIDS OF CHILDREN.
—THE FREE PRESS, Tribune, May 1st, 1871.

From the 15th of 1871.
"I hold our Government bound by its duty of protecting our citizens in their fundamental rights, to pass and enforce laws for the extermination of the execrable Ku Klux conspiracy; and if it has not the power to do it, then I say our Government is no Government, but a sham.
I therefore on every proper occasion advocated and justified the Ku Klux act. I hold it especially desirable for the South; and if it does not prove strong enough to effect its purpose, I hope it will be made stronger and stronger."
—Work.

An infamous article, with the above title appeared in the Raleigh Standard, in 1868, which was immediately repudiated by the proprietors of the paper, and the writer discharged. Although this was done immediately and the article denounced by every Republican paper in the State, several Democratic papers keep extracts of this article standing at the head of their editorial columns. We are reliable informed that the writer of this article is one of the editors of the New York Tribune, now the leading Greeley organ of the United States.

"I have listened with unmitigated horror to some of the testimony which has been brought before you. The outrages proved are shocking to humanity; they admit of neither excuse or justification; they violate every obligation which law and nature impose upon men; they show that the parties engaged were brutes, inhuman to the obligations of humanity and religion.
The day will come, however, if it has not already arrived, when they will deeply lament it. Even if justice shall not overtake them, there is one tribunal from which there is no hope. It is their own judgment—that tribunal which sits in the breast of every living man—that small, still voice that thrills through the heart—the soul of the mind, and as it speaks, gives happiness or torture—the voice of conscience the voice of God. If it has not already spoken to them in tones which have startled them to the enormity of their conduct, I trust, in the mercy of Heaven, that that voice will speak before they shall be called above to account for the transactions of this world. That it will so speak to make them repent, and that trusting in the dispensations of Heaven, whose justice is dispensed with mercy, when they shall be brought before the bar of their great tribunal, so to speak, that incomprehensible tribunal, there will be found in the fact of their penitence, or in their previous lives, some grounds upon which God may say PARDON."— Speech of Hon. Reverdy Johnson, in Ku Klux trials, December 18th.

The Election takes place on Thursday
the first day of August.

Attention Voters! Things to be Remembered.

Registration is not allowed on the day of election.

Every voter should ascertain before the day of election if his name is on the Registration books.

To vote for all the candidates, four tickets must be voted, and every ticket must be deposited in a different box.

The tickets must be printed or written, or partly printed and partly written, on white paper.

Republicans should not touch or receive tickets from Democrats—but only from true and tried Republicans—Democrats will give you the wrong tickets.

Be sure and deposit your ticket for Governor and State officers in the box designated for State officers.

member of Congress in the box designated for members of Congress.

State Senator and members of the House of Representatives in the box designated for members of the Legislature.

Be sure and deposit your ticket for Sheriff, County Commissioners, Treasurer, Coroner, Register of Deeds, Surveyor, in the box designated for county officers.

Candidates should make the people familiar with these points of the election law.

No tax of whatever character is required to be paid to entitle a citizen to register and vote.

DON'T BE AFRAID OF DEMO-CRATIC CHALLENGERS.

The news continues to come cheering and good. Our prospects are bright and if our friends only do their duty, the victory will be ours. Let us labor on to the end. Only one more day of registration and one for voting. Are your friends all on the books? See to it at once. The importance of this election cannot be overestimated. A Republican triumph in North Carolina means a certain and easy victory for Gen. Grant in November. A defeat, will place a heavy load on the shoulders of our friends in the North, and we do not wish to do that. Remember the whole country is now anxiously waiting the result in North Carolina, and it expects every Republican to do his duty on Thursday. Advice from the West, assure us, that if we of the East will do our duty like men, our whole Republican ticket will be elected. Is not this worth striving and laboring for day and night until the sun goes down on the day of election? See that a full vote is polled, and that every ballot is placed in the proper box. Let us do our duty and deposit our ballots in spite of the multitudinous obstacles thrown in our way by our opponents.

Be vigilant, active, firm! No danger need then be apprehended. Do not forget that we have heard these same braggocio statements of what the Democracy of the State was going to do, before every election held since the war. We have been regaled with prophecy after prophecy, day after day, growing greater each hour until it seemed as though there would not be a Republican vote cast in the State—but we beat them every time but one. We can do it again now if we work together. The difficulties in our ranks in our adjacent counties, have all been healed, and we are ready for the fray. Let us then go into the battle with a stout heart.

the first day of August.

Another Letter.

Greeley will kill himself and his party if he does not allow his pen to rest.

The following from the Washington Chronicle meets our views precisely:

"Greeley has written one more letter, this time to neutralize that North Carolina epistle, in which he talked so much like a Democrat, he hardly knew whether it was the same Donnell or some other when he looked in the glass.
As he in the first epistle comes as near as he could to accepting the Democratic cry that this is a "white man's government," by intimating that the North had been attempting wrongfully to deprive the South of its rights, in this last epistle (which is severely short, as if the least said the soonest mended) he desires to have it understood that he has not abandoned the Republican doctrine, which declares all men equal before the law. The first epistle was for the rebel element and old Democrats of the South, (particularly North Carolina;) the last is for the colored men, who were confirmed in their hostility to him by the former. Perhaps this blowing hot and cold, playing fast and loose, Republican and Democrat, will tend to inspire the confidence of straight-forward, honest men of both parties. Perhaps it won't. We'll see."

DEMOCRATIC BLUFF IS PLAY-ED OUT.

[From the Journal.]

"We are advised to clasp hands across the bloody chasm made by the war. I protest against this advice."—Boutwell, U. S. Treasurer and Grant's mouth piece, at Greensboro.

Boutwell said that the Republican party all say—"We want no bloody chasm." We are willing to clasp hands on equal ground, with the men who were once our foes. The men who fought in the Federal Army have no bitter feelings against those who fought in the Confederate Army. The North and the South should clasp hands and labor together for the common welfare of the country, and that is what we wish. To do this, we believe the true policy of the South is to vote for Gen. Grant and the Republican ticket, and to that end we are laboring day and night. Let us have no bloody chasms! Let us clasp hands on equal grounds and giving every man his equal rights, work for the common good.

the first day of August.

EDITORIAL BUDGET.

—Carl Schurz is still in hot water.
—The Pioneer has not been released.
—Ed. F. Foster, Editor of the Dramatic News, of Boston, is dead.

—Seventy-one horses have entered for the Buffalo Park races. The value of the purses is $60,500. American Girl, Goldsmith Maid, and Lucy, will run for one of $10,000.

—The Government receipts for the fiscal year ending June 30th, were $295,- 101,368 90. The expenditures for the year were $277,517,962.67. Excess of receipts over expenditures $17,582,606.23.
Of the expenditures over $214,000,000, were on account of the late war.

—Gen. Ryan the officer in command of the Panama expedition to Cuba, is to be arrested on his arrival at New York.
We fail to see wherein he has sinned.
The United States authorities had ample facilities to cause his arrest while at Key West, if they had so chosen.

—The counsel in the Stokes case will move for bail to-day. Whether it will be granted remains to be seen. We think that the popular opinion is too strong against Stokes as yet to allow the Court to take action in the case. We have no doubt, however, that he will be eventually released on large bail.

Miss Wilson was married on Saturday to the Count de Paris. The nuptials were witnessed by a large number of Americans. We wish the beautiful songster happiness in her new life.
Her marriage will not prevent her from appearing again in this country. The bridal presents received by the singing beauty are estimated at $60,000.

The Japanese Government have a fine way to manage their religious affairs. The old faith has become tiresome to them. They only have had it five or six thousand years. They have called a convention of wise men, and are even now debating what the coming creed shall be. We presume it will be forced upon the people, and will be a mongrel of Protestant, Catholic, Pagan and Mahomedan observances, and be called the High Church of Japan.

TANBARK.

The wisdom of Solomon, with variations by Brown—Better is straight whiskey without greens, than soft-shelled crab cobbler and colic in the tents of the wicked.

A bill-poster in Ingham County, Mich., recently demanded from the Democracy extra pay for posting Greeley bills, as the people made so much fun of him while sticking them up.

The Kentucky Statesman says Democrats in that State, disgusted with rebel deceit in foisting on the party the doting Horace, and having an aversion to "crow," whether raw or boiled, are coming out for Grant, and thus forsaking forever the "ways that are dark and tricks that are vain."

The Ex-Confederate Colonel who now edits the Texas State Gazette is not quite up to the standard of his party. He says "there should be no demonstrations of applause, no rejoicings of cravens from across the 'bloody chasm,' at the presentation of Greeley's name." He warns his Northern brethren that the burning of a single fire cracker in honor of such a humiliation might explode the powder magazine and blow the Democratic craft to atoms.

In reply to a letter of a correspondent of a New York paper asking whether the current statement that A. T. Stewart had contributed $30,000 for Mr. Greeley's support was true, that paper, after re-marking that it has no knowledge on that point, says: "We do know, however, that Mr. A. T. Stewart is very much disgusted because he could not get Henry Hilton appointed Collector of New York. And we also know that Mr. A. T. Stewart threw all the weight of his influence last year into the scale with the Tammany thieves, for the purpose of saving a few thousand dollars a year in his assessment. It would, therefore, not be at all surprising to find Mr.
Stewart once more on the side of Tammany, and supporting Mr. Greeley."

The Falton (Ill.) Democrat, a strong Democratic paper, has been discontinued.
The editor says: "We cannot consistently support these nominations (Greeley and Brown), and therefore withdraw from the canvass. It is useless to fight the inevitable. Greeley and Brown have been almost unanimously endorsed at Baltimore, and a large proportion of those who have heretofore acted with the Democratic party are enlisted in their support.
From our standpoint we are unable to sympathize with their advocacy of these candidates, and we yield to the wishes of the majority in discontinuing the Democrat. Policy at this time cannot gain the ascendancy over principle, in our mind."

Greeleyites in Indiana have been claiming very confidently that the Quakers in Wayne county will certainly vote the Cincinnati ticket. A little incident which the Indianapolis Journal relates shows where their sympathies really lie. The Journal says: "At Dublin, where Julian spoke the other night, they refused to allow him the use of the public hall, which is owned by Quakers, declaring that they wouldn't let Jeff Davis occupy it, and didn't see why Julian should. George W. accepted the situation, and held his meeting out of doors."

A prominent Democratic ward politician, an ex Alderman of the Nineteenth Ward of New York, in conversation about the Baltimore endorsement of Greeley, did not hesitate to express the reasons which influence his party in the present campaign. He said: "There was no use in nominating a straight ticket for the chances of its success were too poor. Greeley is a nasty pill to swallow, but we have got him down and managed to stand it. We have been out of office for a long time, and have nothing to hope from Grant; but if we elect Greeley, he will have to give us something, and 'half a loaf is better than no bread.'"

WILLIAM M. HARRIS.
FROM A CARD IN THE EVENING POST of yesterday, I see that Wm. M. Harris, Esq., announces himself as an independent candidate for the office of Register of Deeds for this county. Mr. Harris is well and favorably known to the citizens of this county as a thorough competent business man, and a good citizen. Born and reared among us, he should receive the votes of all native citizens, irrespective of party or race. An old line whig before the war, a faithful and efficient officer during the war, and having taken no active part, politically, since the war, all regardless of political bias, may consistently support him. As an old citizen of this city and county, identified with its interests from infancy to the present time, I bespeak for him the warm and cordial support of the voters of all parties, and more especially of the Conservative party of this county, of which I am a member. Our citizens know that he will serve them faithfully and well.
Let us elect him. CITIZEN.
