LOCAL ITEMS.

Just received at VanOrsdell's another lot of those Beautiful Walnut Mouldings.

All sorts of blanks printed and for sale by S. G. Hall. Office on Princess st. ti

One person sent to the poor house to-day.

Mr. T. C. SERVOS, City Clerk and Treasurer, is quite sick, and has been for several days.

AGAIN.—Messrs. J. & T. Johnson, Sewing machine agents, lost another valuable horse this morning. They are certainly unlucky in horse flesh though they sell many sewing machines.

Big sale of Third street property to-morrow, at Exchange Corner. As this street is to be the Boulevard of our city, speculators are more than usual interested. Sale to commence at 12 o'clock.

Mayor's Court.
His Honor JAMES WILSON, Mayor, presiding.

Only one case before His Honor to-day.
JOSEPH FOWLE, charged with disorderly conduct, was discharged upon payment of costs.

Why don't we hear more of that movement for a park in the lower part of the city. It is indeed a matter of great public interest, and the munificent offers from property holders in that vicinity should be accepted and the movement started. What shall be done?

THE COLORED PEOPLE'S CEMETERY.
The ladies of the several congregations in the City, will hold a Festival in the City Hall, on Wednesday and Thursday evening, for the purpose of raising means to improve the condition of Pine Forest Cemetery. We hope that both colored and whites will patronize this laudable enterprise. Admission at the door for all, 10 cents. Turn out, turn out and make their Festival a grand success. 2t.

The advertisement of Messrs Turrentine & McRae deserves more than a passing notice. They are young men who have lived here for many years and grown up in our midst, having been in the largest dry goods establishments of the city ever since the war. They are therefore perfectly conversant with their business, and what is better, have a knowledge of exactly the varieties of goods most acceptable to the Wilmington ladies. Their business character and habits are of a high order, and we sincerely hope to chronicle their success. They are every way worthy of patronage.

POCKET DICTIONARY.—Webster's Pocket Dictionary, in its present shape, is a great improvement over all previous editions and all similar works. In the first place it is neatly printed, and bound in morocco, with gilt edges. Then it contains 300 pictorial illustrations, which give a much clearer idea of the meaning of many words than could possibly be conveyed by the usual definition. The little volume, while being no larger than an ordinary pocket-book, embraces in its vocabulary a careful selection of over 18,000 of the most important words of the language, with definitions sufficiently clear, though necessarily brief, to meet the ordinary wants of any one requiring its use. Prefixed to the work are tables of money, weight and measure, abbreviations, words and phrases from foreign languages, rules for spelling, explanations, etc. It is in fact a most valuable little book, and is doubly worth the dollar it costs. It is very beautifully and substantially bound, with tucks and gilt edges. The Publishers, Ivison, Blakeman, Taylor & Co., 138 and 140 Grand Street, New York, will forward it by mail on receipt of One Dollar, or it can be bought almost anywhere.

THE TOWN CRIER.

—It is warm to-day.
—Gold is quoted in New York to-day at $113½.

—The thermometer marked 84 degrees to-day at noon.

—Squire Cassidy has not sent any one to jail to-day.

—Rice birds are said to be plentiful, but we have not seen many.

—The alligator trade is becoming poor. There are but few coming to market.

—We do wish somebody would invent a method of taking the bark out of dogs. Their infernal howls and cries all the night through are terrific!

—If the river gets much lower, we will have to take up some water for the benefit of the fish and other varmint which thrive best in the damp.

—It really seems as though we were to have an addition to the Court House at last. The Register's office is altogether too small and we are glad it is to be improved.

FREE SCHOOLS.—Rev. Henry B. Blake, one of the members of the School Committee from Wilmington Township, writes from the North that he expects soon to be in Wilmington, prepared to open the Hatheway School on Seventh Street, by the 7th of October, and probably, all the other free colored schools shortly thereafter.

The importance of the continuance of these schools cannot be overestimated. The evidences of their need and of extended privileges wait about our streets. A greater interest should be awakened. The colored people have a most incalculable interest at stake. The white people also have an interest. It costs tax payers less to educate the children than to keep up the Courts, prisons and police necessary to punish the crime engendered by ignorance. Statistics show this.

It is time the city took the matter in hand. By the amended charter, it has the authority to establish City Schools and levy a tax for their support.

There are nearly five thousand children of the school age in Wilmington. The attendance on the public and pay schools is not over half that number. Many more would attend if we had the means to keep the free schools up. By the present law, the greater part of the school support must come from the parents and guardians of the children. The colored people who need education, are not sufficiently well off in worldly goods to contribute much. As both races are benefited by the education of the whole people, it seems to us that the establishment of City Schools by the levy of a city tax would bring forth reward sufficient to compensate.

The Township has two Schoolhouses and nearly $3,000 cash with which to build two more. Rev. H. B. Blake's schoolhouse on Seventh street, and the schoolhouse on the old colored cemetery lot, are occupied for colored schools, and will probably be at the service of the city for a long time. We may say then that we have the use of the following buildings for free schools for Whites. Union free school, capacity 200; Hemmingway schoolhouse on 4th street capacity 250. For the colored, Mr. Blake's schoolhouse—300, schoolhouse on colored cemetery, capacity 200 making accommodations only for 450 whites and 500 colored children. Two new schoolhouses of small size, or one large one could be built for the colored children with the funds in hand, adding to the room for them enough to accommodate 750 pupils.

The schoolhouses already provided, at least, ought to be filled. Schools for 1250 pupils with 15 teachers, could be kept up four months, at the cost of $9000 of which the State and Peabody fund would contribute one half, leaving to be raised by tax of about $1,500 or three cents on the Real and Personal property of the city.

We throw out these suggestions and hope they will draw out the views of others or be acted upon by those in charge of our city affairs. The State fund could be expended in the city schools, as well as to be used for the Township. It would be better to have but one system of schools under one management. A tax of ten cents on property would yield sufficient to start very excellent schools.

The peace, order and prosperity of every city and county depends mainly upon the education and intelligence of its people. With ignorance, vice and disorder are sure to prevail. We sadly need schools and Teachers to instruct, not alone booklearning but, to teach morals and lay the foundation of character that will give a name and reputation to our city.

Through the efforts of Miss Amy M. Bradley there has sprung up here, a temple dedicated to learning, which by and bye, many a friendless child will look upon, with grateful affection and wonder, as the source whence came light out of darkness. We want more of such blessings.

STATE ITEMS.

Frost in Statesville last Friday.

The Statesville Intelligencer man wants to say something about "the sear and yellow leaf," but don't know what to say.

Mr. F. M. Piver, of Craven county, was bit by a rattlesnake on Wednesday last.

Mr. C. Bechtler, once prominent in the Western portion of this State as a money coiner, has taken up his residence in Shelby.

With the last issue of the Hickory Tavern Eagle, Mr. J. B. Hussey is announced as editor and proprietor, Messrs Pitt and Ellis retiring.

LATEST BY TELEGRAPH.

From Ohio.

CLEVELAND, Sept. 25. In his speech Greeley denied that he said at Vicksburg, a year ago, as had been falsely charged, "that the time would come when the soldiers that fought with Lee and Johnston would occupy as proud a position in the hearts of the American people as the soldiers who fought with Grant and Sherman. No such words as these ever escaped my lips; no such thoughts as these ever entered my heart. What he did say, speaking of that war-worn, heartbroken people was, "that he trusted the day would come when the soldierly qualities and military genius of Lee and Stonewall Jackson would be regarded as a part of the heritage of the American people. That they would be spoken of as American soldiers in a cause which, though a bad cause, illustrated the military capacity, genius and energy of the American people."

At a steamboat convention a large delegation from the seaboard and Western rivers were present, representing the steam vessel property to the amount of $800,000,000.

Mr. A. P. Edgerton declines the straight out Indiana and gubernatorial nomination.

From Geneva.

GENEVA, Sept. 25. The government has removed the Catholic Priest. The Bishop resists, claiming that the power to remove lies with the Pope. There is some excitement.

From Maine.

PORTLAND, Sept. 25. The vote for Senator stands as follows: Senate Mitchell, 8; Whittaker, 5; Corbett, 3; Nesmith, 3.
House, Mitchell, 25; Corbett, 7; Nesmith, 5; Slater, 3; Whittaker, 3.

From California.

SAN FRANCISCO, Sept. 25. Consul at Callas reports small-pox an epidemic in many sea port towns between Valparaiso and Panama, and very virulent.

New York Markets.

If you feel dull, drowsy, debilitated, have frequent headaches, mouth tastes badly, poor appetite and tongue coated, you are suffering from Torpid Liver or "Biliousness" and nothing will cure you so speedily and permanently as Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery.

Lovelessness on the Increase.—A marked increase of female lovelessness is the eye delighting result of the immense popularity which Hagar's MAGNOLIA BALM has obtained among the ladies of America. Complexions radiant with snowy purity and tinged with the rosy hue of health are commonly met with whenever it is used. For the sallow and unwholesome appearance of the face and neck, which utterly counterbalances the effect of any personal attraction the owner may possess, it substitutes that clear, pearl like complexion which is such a transcendent charm in woman, and renders the roughest skin as soft as Genua velvet. No one is more astonished than the person using it at the marvelous transformation which it effects in these particulars.

MARRIAGE GUIDE.

EVERY ONE HIS OWN DOCTOR.—Being a private instructor for married persons, or those about to be married, both male and female in everything concerning the physiology and relations of our sexual system, and the production and prevention of offspring, including all the new discoveries never before given in the English language, by WM. YOUNG, M. D. This is really a valuable and interesting work. It is written in plain language for the general reader, and is illustrated with numerous Engravings. All young married people, or those contemplating marriage, and having the least impediment to married life, should read this book. It discloses secrets that every one should be acquainted with; still it is a book that must be locked up and not let lie about the house. It will be sent to any address on receipt of 50 cents. Address Dr. WM. YOUNG, No. 416 Spruce street, above Fourth, Philadelphia.

AFFLICTED AND UNFORTUNATE.—No matter what may be your disease, before you place yourself under the care of any of the QUACKS—native and foreign—who advertise in this or any other paper, get a copy of Dr. Young's Book and read it carefully. It will be the means of saving you many a dollar, your health, and possibly your life. Dr. Young can be consulted on any of the diseases described in his publications by mail or at his office, No. 416 Spruce street, above Fourth, Philadelphia. sept 18 105-3m
