MARRIAGE GUIDE.

EVERY ONE HIS OWN DOCTOR .-- Being a private instructor for married persons, or those about to be married, both male and female in everything concerning the physiology and relations of our sexual sys-tem, and the production and prevention of offspring, including all the new discoveries never before given in the English language, by WM. YOUNG, M. D. This is really a valuable and interesting work. It is written in plain language for the general reader, and is illustrated with numerous Engravings .-All young married people, or those contemplating marriage, and having the least impediment to married life, should read this book. It discloses secrets that every one should be acquainted with; still it is a book that must be locked up and not let lie about the house. It will be sent to any address on receipt of 50 cents. Address Dr. WM. YOUNG, No. 416 Spruce street, above Fourth, Philadelphia.

NATE.—No matter what may be your diaease, before you place yourself under the care of any of the QUACKS—native and foreign—who advertise in this or any other paper, get a copy of Dr. Young's Book and read it carefully. It will be the means of saving you many a dollar, your health, and possibly your life. Dr. Young can be consulted on any of the diseases described in his publications by mail or at his office. No. 416 Spruce street, above Fourth, Philadelphia.

in the Prospectus just issued, promise for the ensuing year a more brilliant array of contributors, and an increase in the variety and beauty of its illustrations, already conceded by the critics to be "finer than any which have hitherto appeared in any American magazine."

biographical in form, and will be illustrated by Miss Hallock. It is entitled Arthur Bonnicastle, and will deal with some of the most difficult problems of American life. It will be commenced in the November number.

There will be a new story by Saxe Holm, The One Legged Dancers.
Bret Harte, the best writer of short stories now living, will contribute a character-istic story, entitled The Epic of Fiddletown,

R. H. Stoddard will write a series of entertaining papers about Authors, their personal characteristics, home life, families, friends, whims, and ways. A series of por-traits of living American writers, is also promised.

Clarence Cook will write about furniture and the decoration of homes. These papers will be eminently practical as well as artis-tic, and will be illustrated with designs and sketches by numerous artists in addition to those which the writer himself will furnish.

Hans Anderson, Bryant, Bushnell, Eggleston, Froude, Higginson, Bishop Hunting ton, Bret Harte, John Hay, H. H. Mac-Donald, Mitchell, Miss Phelps, Stedman, Stocktan, Stoddard, Celia Thaxter, Warner, Wilkinson, Mrs. Whitney, besides a host of

Watson Gilder will write "The Old Cabi-net;" as hitherto. Prof. John C. Draper conducts the department of "Nature and Science" The departments of "Home and Society" and "Culture and Progress," will engage the contributions of more than a score of pens on both sides of the Atlantic. The "Watchman and Reflector" says: "Scribner's Monthly for September is better than usual, which indicates a needless waste of editorial brains and publisher's money, for the Magazine was good enough before!" And yet the publishers promise to make it still better for the coming year!! The Subscription price is $4.00 a year, with special rates to Clergymen, Teachers, and Postmasters.

The tollowing EXTRAORDINARY INDUCEMENTS

are offered to new subscribers : For $5 50 the publishers will send, or any Bookseller or Newsdealer will supply, the Magazine for one year, and the twelve numbers of Vols.
