Scribner's Monthly.

A serial story by Dr. Holland. New story by Saxo Holm. A long story from Bret Harte. Brilliant array of contributors. Clear Cook on furniture, and decoration.

K. H. Stoddard on authors.

EXTRAORDINARY INDUCEMENTS TO

NEW SUBSCRIBERS;

500 Pages for $1.00! &c., &c.

The publishers of SCRIBNER'S MONTHLY, in the prospectus just issued, promise for the ensuing year a more brilliant array of contributors, and an increase in the variety and beauty of its illustrations, already conceded by the critics to be "finer than any which have hitherto appeared in any American magazine."

Dr. Holland, the Editor, will write the serial story of the year, which will be autobiographical in form, and will be illustrated by Miss Hallock. It is entitled Arthur Bonnicastle, and will deal with some of the most difficult problems of American life. It will be commenced in the November number.

There will be a new story by Saxo Holm, The One Legged Dancers.

Bret Harte, the best writer of short stories now living, will contribute a characteristic story, entitled The Epic of Fiddletown, which will be illustrated by Shppard.

K. H. Stoddard will write a series of entertaining papers about Authors, their personal characteristics, home life, families, friends, whims, and ways. A series of portraits of living American writers, is also promised.

Clearance Cook will write about furniture and the decoration of homes. These papers will be eminently practical as well as artistic, and will be illustrated with designs and sketches by numerous artists in addition to those which the writer himself will furnish.

Among those who will contribute are: Hans Anderson, Bryant, Bushnell, Eggleston, Froude, Higginson, Bishop Huntington, Bret Harte, John Hay, H. H. Macdonald, Mitchell, Miss Phelps, Stephen, Stockton, Stoddard, Celia Thaxter, Warner, Wilkinson, Mrs. Whitney, besides a host of others.

The editorial control and direction of the Magazine will remain in the hands of Dr. Holland, who will continue to write "The Topics of the Time," which the N. Y. Independent has more widely quoted in an any similar papers in any American magazine."

Watson Gilder will write "The Old Cabin," as hitherto. Prof. John C. Draper conducts the department of "Nature and Science," and the departments of "Home and Society" and "Culture and Progress," will engage the contributions of more than a score of pens on both sides of the Atlantic. The "Watchman and Reflector" says: "Scribner's Monthly for September is better than usual, and indicates a needless waste of editorial brains and publisher's money, for the Magazine was good enough before!" And yet the publishers promise to make it still better for the coming year!

The Subscription price is $4.00 a year, with specimen rates to Clergymen, Teachers, and Postmasters.

The following

EXTRAORDINARY INDUCEMENTS

are offered to new subscribers:

For $5 50 the publishers will send, or for $5 00 the New-dealer will supply, the Magazine for one year, and the twelve numbers of Vols. III. and IV., containing the beginning of Mrs. Oliphant's Serial "At His Gates," for $7 50. The Magazine for one year, and the 24 back numbers bound (4 vols.), charges on bound vols. paid. This will give nearly 5000 pages, the choicest reading, with the finest illustrations, for $10 50, or nearly 500 pages for a dollar! and will enable every subscriber to obtain the series from the first.

Special terms to Dealers, Clergymen and Teachers.
