MARRIAGE GUIDE.
EVERY ONE HIS OWN DOCTOR.—Being a private instructor for married persons, or those about to be married, both male and female in everything concerning the physiology and relations of our sexual system, and the production and prevention of offspring, including all the new discoveries never before given in the English language, by WM. YOUNG, M. D. This is really a valuable and interesting work. It is written in plain language for the general reader, and is illustrated with numerous Engravings.—All young married people, or those contemplating marriage, and having the least impediment to married life, should read this book. It discloses secrets that every one should be acquainted with; still it is about the house. It will be sent to any address on receipt of 50 cents. Address Dr. WM. YOUNG, No. 416 Spruce street, above Fourth, Philadelphia.
AFFLICTED AND UNFORTUNATE.—No matter what may be your disease, before you place yourself under the care of any of the QUACKS—native and foreign—who advertise in this or any other paper, get a copy of Dr. Young's Book and read it carefully. It will be the means of saving you many a dollar, your health, and possibly your life. Dr. Young can be consulted on any of the diseases described in his publications by mail or at his office. No. 416 Spruce street, above Fourth, Philadelphia.

Scribner's Monthly.
A serial story by Dr. Holland. New story by Saxe Holm. A long story from Bret Harte. Brilliant array of contributors. Clarence Cook on furniture, and decoration. R. H. Stoddard on authors
EXTRAORDINARY INDUCEMENTS TO NEW SUBSCRIBERS;
500 Pages for $1.00! &c., &c.
The publishers of SCRIBNER'S MONTHLY, in the Prospectus just issued, promise for the ensuing year a more brilliant array of contributors, and an increase in the variety and beauty of its illustrations, already commended by the critics to be "finer than any which have hitherto appeared in any American magazine."
Dr. Holland, the Editor, will write the serial story of the year, which will be autobiographical in form, and will be illustrated by Miss Hallowell. It is entitled "Arthur Bonnicastle," and will deal with some of the most difficult problems of American life. It will be commenced in the November number.
There will be a new story by Saxe Holm, "The One Legged Dancer."
Bret Harte, the best writer of short stories now living, will contribute a characteristic story, entitled "The Epic of Fiddletown," which will be illustrated by Saxe Holm.
R. H. Stoddard will write a series of entertaining papers about Authors, their personal characteristics, home life, families, friends, whims, and ways. A series of portraits of living American writers, is also promised.
Clarence Cook will write about furniture and the decoration of homes. These papers are eminently practical as well as artistic, and will be illustrated with designs and sketches by numerous artists in addition to those which the writer himself will furnish.
Among those who will contribute are: Hans Anderson, Bryant Bushnell, Eggleston, F. M. Higginson, Bishop Huntington, Bret Harte, John Hay, H. H. Macdonald, Mitchell, Miss Phelps, Edman, Stockton, Stoddard, Celia Thaxter, Warner, Wilkinson, Mrs. Whitney, besides a host of others.
The editorial control and direction of the Magazine will remain in the hands of Dr. Holland, who will continue to write "The Topics of the Time," which the N. Y. Independent says "are more wisely quoted than any similar papers in any American magazine."
Watson Gilder will write "The Old Cabin," as hitherto. Prof. John C. Draper conducts the department of "Nature and Science." The departments of "Home and Society" and "Culture and Progress" will engage the contributions of more than a score of pens on both sides of the Atlantic. The "Watchman and Reflector" is "Scribner's Monthly for September" is better than usual, which indicates a needless waste of editorial brains and good enough money, for the Magazine writes and publishes to make it still better for the coming year!!
The Subscription price is $4 00 a year, with special rates to Clergymen, Teachers, and Postmasters.
The following
EXTRAORDINARY INDUCEMENTS
are offered to new subscribers:
For $5 50 the publishers will send, or any Bookseller or News-dealer will supply, the Magazine for one year, and the twelve numbers of Vols. III and IV, containing the beginning of Mrs. Oliphant's Serial, "At His Gates;" for $7 50, the Magazine for one year, and the 24 back numbers from the beginning; for $10 50, the Magazine for one year, and the 24 back numbers bound one year, and the 24 back numbers bound one year, charges on bound vols. paid.
This will give nearly 5,000 pages of the choicest reading, with the finest illustrations, for $10 50, or nearly 500 pages for a dollar and will enable every subscriber to obtain the serial from the first.
Special terms to Dealers, Clergymen and Teachers.
