THE NORTH CAROLINA LEGISLATURE.

(Condensed from the News.)

SENATE.

WEDNESDAY, Feb'y 5, 1873.

Senate called to order at 11 o'clock, Lieutenant Governor Brogden in the chair.

On motion of Mr Cunningham, the special order ordered for the consideration of the school bill was reconsidered, and the bill referred to the committee on Education.

On the motion to refer, Mr Grandy desired to submit some remarks on this bill prepared by himself.

Introduction of Bills.

By Mr McCauley, a bill to amend the charter of the town of Moore, Union county.

By the same, a bill declaring certain acts of State officers a misdemeanor.

By Mr Dunham, a bill to incorporate the Cape Fear and Neuse River Steam boat Company. Referred.

Calendar.

Senate resolution relieving W. W. Holden, of the political disqualification imposed upon him by the high Court of Impeachment.

On the motion of Mr Murphy to postpone the further consideration of the resolution until Monday next, and be referred to the Judiciary committee, Mr Love called the previous question, and upon this motion Mr Avera demanded the yeas and nays.

The call for the previous question was not sustained.

The motion of Mr Murphy to refer to the Judiciary committee, withdrawing the day named for its consideration, prevailed.

Special Order.

At 11 1/2 o'clock, the Constitutional Amendments were taken up and considered.

Mr Grandy occupied the floor in opposition, stating that he had been misrepresented in the statement that he was opposed to Constitutional Amendments, but he was opposed to any alterations or amendments to that instrument at this time. It was not important, and the people did not demand a change.

If there were imperfections in the constitution, he would rather stand by them than to "fly to evils he knew not of," as this bill proposes. He referred to the clause in the constitution providing how it shall be changed or amended, and argued that the eighteen bills now offered were not in accordance therewith. He was here interrupted by Mr Morehead, of Guilford, who asked if he would vote for the original bill. Mr Grandy—no, sir. He thought the passage of the original bill was calculated to uproot the whole government of the State. To support the amendments, as they appear, he thought would be antagonistic to the law now existing, and would necessarily lead to revolution. A violation of one part was a violation of the whole, and he counseled Senators to avoid the dangerous ground they were treading.

On motion of Mr Morehead, of Guilford, the further consideration of the amendment was postponed till to-morrow.

Unfinished Business.

The consideration of the Agricultural Bill came up, and the question first recurred on the amendment of Mr Merriam. The amendment provides that the salaries of the proposed Commissioners be paid out of the fund appropriated to the Geological survey. Allowing them $1,200 each for their services.

Pending the discussion, the Senate adjourned.

HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES.

At 10 A. M. Mr Speaker Robinson called the House to order.

By Mr Dickey, a bill to regulate the salary of the Superintendent of the Insane Asylum. Referred.

By Mr Anderson, of Clay, a bill to repeal chapter 36, laws of 1868-'69. Referred.

By Mr Jones, of Tyrrell, a resolution of instruction to our Representatives in Congress. Calendar.

The Senate amnesty bill was taken up.

On motion of Mr Bennett, its consideration was postponed until to-day week.

The bill to amend the charter of the Cape Fear Iron and Steel Works was taken up and passed its several readings.

On motion of Mr Johns, the resolution appointing W. B. Rowe Keeper of the Capitol, with a salary of $500 per year was taken up.

On motion of Mr Bowman, the resolution was postponed for a week.

On motion of Mr Heaton the resolution in favor of J. C. McGowan was taken up and passed its several readings.

On motion of Mr Bowman, the Senate resolution adjourning on the 17th inst., was taken up.

Another long debate ensued, during which Mr Heaton moved to strike out "17th inst." and insert "26th inst.," which motion was rejected by a vote of yeas 18, nays 65.

The resolution was adopted, after being amended by Mr Gudger to read "15th" instead of the "17th inst." by a vote of yeas 88, nays 10.

The resolution paying James McQueen, of Robeson county, the full amount of the reward offered for the apprehension of Boss Strong, one of the Robeson county outlaws, was taken up.

After debate the resolution passed its several readings.

The bill to amend the act creating a Mechanic's and Laborer's Lien Law was taken up.

The substitute offered by the committee was adopted.

On motion of Mr Gorman, the bill was postponed until Tuesday and ordered to be printed.

The bill to amend chapter 185, laws of 1871-'72 was taken up. (Allows voting by certificates.)

Mr Jones, of Caldwell, moved to table. L. s.—yeas 29, nays 68.

On motion, the bill was postponed until to-morrow week.

Adjourned.

A Danbury man was explaining to his wife, Sunday morning, how his mother used to cook pan cakes, when she interrupted him with the batter pitcher. He is now experimenting with a new kind of salve.

A California paper says: Streams are very high in Southern Oregon at the present time. The Umpqua raised one foot last night; it will raise the other, probably, within the next twenty-four hours, when it will run.
