THE NORTH CAROLINA LEGISLATURE.

(Condensed from the News.)

SENATE.

THURSDAY, Feb. 6, 1873.
The Senate was called to order at 10 o'clock, Mr Allen in the chair.
By Mr Fleming, a petition from the citizens of McDowell, asking the establishment of a branch of the State Lunatic Asylum at Marion, in said county. Referred to the committee on Insane Asylum.

By Mr Murray, a memorial from citizens of Alamance county concerning the valuation of real estate.

On motion of Mr Ellis, the School bill was made the special order for Monday at 12 o'clock.

Messages Received.

From His Excellency, the Governor, transmitting a copy of the report of the Commissioner of the Board of Public Charities. In his message the Governor says: "I have the honor to transmit herewith for your consideration, an elaborate report of the Board of Public Charities, which I have read with a great deal of interest, and upon which it would afford me pleasure to make some suggestions, stating wherein I do not concur with the recommendations of the Board; but fearing that it may be charged, as it was charged by members of your honorable body on a former occasion, when I endeavored to make what appeared to me, legitimate suggestions with regard to our public debt, that I manifested a desire to usurp legislative functions and interfere with your prerogatives, I forbear now to say or do anything on the subject matter of the accompanying report, further than to transmit the report itself."

The report was ordered to be printed, and after some discussion as to what disposition should be made of the Governor's message.

On motion of Mr Harris, its further consideration was postponed until the first day of June.

Introduction of Bills.

By Mr Troy, a bill to re-enact and continue in force the act authorizing the Commissioners of Cumberland county to levy a special tax.

By Mr Love, a bill to incorporate the Rabon Gap Short Line Railroad. Referred.

Special Order.

At 11 o'clock the President announced the arrival of the special order, which was the consideration of the Constitutional Amendments.

Mr Cunningham at some length advocated the necessity and importance of passing the amendments proposed, referring to each of the proposed alterations.

Previous question being called on the passage of the bill on its second reading, the vote returned on the 1st amendment offered, which was to strike out the section in relation to the public debt.

The yeas and nays being called the amendment passed by 34 to 7.

The second amendment, which provides for the abolition of the office of Superintendent of Public Works passed by 33 yeas to 8 nays. Mr Harris changing his vote to the negative.

The third amendment, which strikes from the Constitution the provision providing for the Code Commission passed by 33 yeas to 6 nays. Eppes not voting, and Harris voting for the amendment.

The fourth amendment, which allows tax exemptions to be applicable to any species of property to the amount named passed by 33 yeas to 7 nays. Eppes voting for the amendment.

The fifth amendment in relation to the State University, which takes the charge of the University from the Board of Education and transfers it to the General Assembly, failed by 30 yeas to 10 nays. Mr Morehead, of Guilford, who had changed his vote from the affirmative to the negative before the vote was announced, moved a reconsideration, and on motion, the vote on the reconsideration postponed until 10 o'clock to-morrow.

The sixth amendment in relation to Public Schools and Public Instruction failed by the same vote as above, with the exception, that Mr Troy changed his vote to the negative, and afterwards moved a reconsideration, the consideration of which motion was postponed till to-morrow at 10 o'clock.

On motion of Mr Troy, the consideration of the special order was postponed till to-morrow, and the Senate adjourned.

HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES.

At 10 A. M. the House was called to order by Mr Speaker Robinson.

Mr Turner presented a memorial from certain citizens of Ireddell, asking that the charter of the Atlantic, Tennessee & Ohio Railroad be not interfered with.

By Mr Whitmore, a bill to amend chapter 178, laws of 1868-'69. Referred.

By Mr Anderson, of Clay, a bill to cure any irregularities that may exist in the titles to certain lands in Macon and Clay counties. Referred.

Special Order.

The bill repealing the General Incorporation act of 1871-'72 and re-enacting chapter 36 of the Revised Code, being the special order, was taken up.

Mr Houston moved to indefinitely postpone. He thought the law had not yet had a fair trial. He did not think it fair to those corporations who had paid their incorporation fee.

Mr Gudger hoped the motion to indefinitely postpone would prevail. He thought this general incorporation act was a step in the right direction. It had the tendency to prevent the time of the General Assembly being consumed by passing the bills incorporating petty corporations, nine out of ten of which never go into operation.

Mr McNeil agreed with Mr Gudger, and entered into an argument to show the utility and wisdom of the law as it stood.

Mr Bennett was opposed to the 45th section of the original act which requires the pre-payment of a tax of $25. He thought it contravened the spirit of the constitution, &c.

The motion to indefinitely postpone was put to a vote and rejected by a vote of yeas 35, nays 67.

Mr Bennett withdrew his amendment on this reading of the bill and would offer it on the third reading.

The bill then passed its second reading.

Mr Bowman moved to suspend the rules and put the bill on its third reading. Adopted.

After a lengthy debate the bill was, on motion of Mr Moring, referred to the Judiciary Committee.

On motion of Mr McGehee, the Senate bill to incorporate the Midland North Carolina Railroad Company was taken up.

Mr Jones, of Caldwell, moved to print and make special order for 11 a. m. Monday.

At the instance of Mr Moss the motion was divided.

The question first recurred upon the motion to print, which was adopted.

The motion to make special order for Monday was put to a vote and adopted.

On motion of Mr Wheeler, the bill for the relief of disabled soldiers was taken up. [The resolution gives $50 to soldiers who lost limbs in the late war.]

Mr Moring moved to amend by saying "and all who are permanently disabled."

Mr Bowman moved to postpone until Wednesday next.

Mr Badger moved to amend by limiting the appropriation in the bill to $7500.

Mr Houston moved to re-commit to the Judiciary Committee. Carried. Adjourned.
