Prospectus for 1873.
 - SIXTH YEAR.
THE ALDINE,
 An illustrated monthly journal, universally admitted to be the handsomest, periodical in the world. A representative and champion of American taste.
 NOT FOR SALE IN BOOK OR NEWS STORES.
THE ALDINE, WHILE ISSUED WITH all the regularity, has none of the temporary or timely interest characteristic of ordinary periodicals. It is an elegant miscellany of pure, light and graceful literature, and a collection of pictures, the rarest specimens of artistic skill, in black and white. Although each succeeding number affords a fresh pleasure to its friends, the real value and beauty of THE ALDINE will be most appreciated after it has been bound up at the close of the year. While other publications may claim superior cheapness, as compared with rivals of a similar class, THE ALDINE is a unique and original conception—alone and unapproached—absolutely without competition in price or character. The possessor of a complete volume cannot duplicate the quantity of fine paper and engravings in any shape or number of volumes, for ten times its cost, and then there are the chromos besides!

ART DEPARTMENT.
 Notwithstanding the increase in the price of subscription last fall, when THE ALDINE assumed its present noble proportions and representative character, the edition was more than doubled during the past year, proving that the American public appreciate, and will support, a sincere effort in the cause of Art. The publishers, anxious to justify the ready confidence thus demonstrated, have exerted themselves to the utmost to develop and improve the work; and the plans for the coming year, as unfolded by the monthly issues, will astonish and delight even the most sanguine friends of THE ALDINE.
 The publishers are authorized to announce designs from many of the most eminent artists of the world, for 1873. In addition THE ALDINE will reproduce examples of the best foreign masters, selected with a view to the highest artistic success and greatest general interest, avoiding such as have become familiar through photographs, or copies of any kind.
 The quarterly plates, for 1873, will reproduce four of John S. Davis' inimitable child sketches; appropriate to four seasons. These plates, appearing in the issues for January, April, July and October, would be alone worth the price of a year's subscription.
 The popular feature of a copiously-illustrated "Christmas" number will be continued.
 To possess such a valuable epitome of the art world, at a cost so trifling, will command the subscriptions of thousands in every section of the country, but as the usefulness and attractiveness of THE ALDINE are enhanced in proportion to the numerical increase of its supporters, the publishers propose to make "assurance doubly sure" by the following unparalleled offer of

PREMIUM CHROMOS FOR 1873.
 Every subscriber to THE ALDINE, who pays in advance for the year 1873, will receive without additional charge a pair of beautiful oil chromos, after J. J. Hill, the eminent English painter. The pictures entitled "The Village Belle" and "Crossing the Moor" are 14x30 inches and are printed from 25 different plates, requiring 25 impressions and tints to perfect each picture. The same chromos are sold for $30 per pair in the art stores. As it is the determination of the conductors to keep THE ALDINE out of the reach of competition in every department, the chromos will be sold at a corresponding discount, free to the subscriber of a $5 periodical, will mark an epoch in the history of art, and considering the unprecedented cheapness of the price for THE ALDINE itself, the marvel falls little short of a miracle, even to those best acquainted with the achievements of inventive genius and improved mechanical appliances. (For illustrations of these chromos see Nov. issue of THE ALDINE.)

THE LITERARY DEPARTMENT
 will continue under the care of Mr. Richard Henry Stoddard, assisted by the best writers and poets of the day, who will strive to have the literature of THE ALDINE always in keeping with its artistic attractions.
TERMS:
 FIVE DOLLARS per annum, in advance, with chromos free.
 THE ALDINE will hereafter be obtainable only by subscription. There will be no reduced or club rate; cash for subscription must be sent to the publishers direct, or handed to the local agent, without responsibility to the publishers, except in cases where a certificate is given, bearing the fact-simile signature of Jas. Sutton & Co.

THE FASHIONABLE SOUVENIR, FOR THE HOLIDAY SEASON.
 This year will be THE SUPERB VOLUME OF THE ALDINE.
 Richly bound in morocco cloth, assorted colors, beveled boards, red edges, gilt on back and side—a truly royal volume—a gallery of fine art engravings that will be at once a great pleasure to the recipient, and a demonstration of the taste of the donor.
 There are about 300 plates, most of which could not be matched in size or quality in the art stores at a dollar each. They comprise designs by the leading painters and draughtsmen of day, giving the widest range of figure, animal and landscape subjects, combined with pure, light and graceful literature, edited by the poet scholar, Richard Henry Stoddard, forming a most attractive ornament for the parlor or library.
PRICE, $5.

Scribner's Monthly.
 A serial story by Dr. Holland. New story by Saxo Holm. A long story from Bret Harte. Brilliant array of contributors. Clarence Cook on literature, and decoration. E. H. Stoddard on authors.
EXTRAORDINARY INDUCEMENTS TO NEW SUBSCRIBERS:
 500 Pages for $1.00! &c., &c.
 The publishers of SCRIBNER'S MONTHLY, in the Prospectus just issued, promise for the ensuing year a more brilliant array of contributors, and an increase in the variety and beauty of its illustrations, already conceded by the critics to be "finer than any which have hitherto appeared in any American magazine."
 Dr. Holland, the Editor, will write the serial story of the year, which will be autobiographical in form, and will be illustrated by Miss Hallock. It is entitled Arthur Bonnicastle, and will deal with some of the most difficult problems of American life. It will be commenced in the November number.
 There will be a new story by Saxo Holm, The One Legged Dancers.
 Bret Harte, the best writer of short stories now living, will contribute a characteristic story, entitled The Epic of Fiddletown, which will be illustrated by Stoddard.
 R. H. Stoddard will write a series of entertaining papers about Authors, their personal characteristics, home life, families, friends, whims, and ways. A series of portraits of living American writers, is also promised.
 Clarence Cook will write about furniture and the decoration of homes. These papers will be eminently practical as well as artistic, and will be illustrated with designs and sketches by numerous artists in addition to those which the writer himself will furnish.
 Among those who will contribute are: Hans Anderson, Bryant, Buswell, Eggleston, Frode, Higginson, Bishop Huntington, Bret Harte, John Hay, H. H. Mac Donald, Mitchell, Miss Phelps, Edman, Stockton, Stoddard, Celia Thaxter, Warner, Wilkinson, Mrs. Whitney, besides a host of others.
 The editorial control and direction of the Magazine will remain in the hands of Dr. Holland, who will continue to write "The Topics of the Time," which the N. Y. Independent says "are more widely quoted than any similar papers in any American magazine."
 Watson Gilder will write "The Old Cabin" as hitherto, from John C. Draper conducts the department of "Nature and Science" and "Culture and Progress," will engage the contributions of more than a score of pens on both sides of the Atlantic. The "Watchman and Reflector" says: "Scribner's Monthly for September, better than usual, which indicates a needless waste of editorial brains and publisher's money, for the Magazine was good enough before!" And yet the publishers promise to make it still better for the coming year!
 The subscription price is $4.00 a year, with special rates to Clergymen, Teachers, and Students.
EXTRAORDINARY INDUCEMENTS are offered to new subscribers:
 For $5.00 the publishers will send, or any bookseller or New-dealer will supply, the Magazine for one year, and the twelve numbers of Vols. III, and IV, containing the beginning of Mrs. Oliphant's Serial, "At His Gates," for $7.50, the Magazine for one year, and the 24 back numbers from the beginning; for $10.50, the Magazine for one year, and the 24 back numbers bound (4 vols.), charges on bound vols. paid.
 This will give nearly 500 pages of the choicest reading, with the finest illustrations, for $10.50, or nearly 500 pages for a dollar! and will enable every subscriber to obtain the series from the first.
 Special terms to Dealers, Clergymen and Teachers.

SPECIAL FEATURES AND ADVANTAGES.
 1st. No restriction on Residence or Travel.
 2d. No extra charge on the lives of Females.
 3d. Policies Incontestable after Five Years.
 4th. The rates of interest on the Funds of the Company higher than those on the Funds of the Companies located in other States, thus insuring larger Dividends to Policy Holders.
 5th. The Directors and Officers of the Company are prominent NORTH CAROLINIANS, who are KNOWN to be men of INTEGRITY and WORTH.
 6th. The Company is established on a solid and permanent basis, steps having been taken to increase the Capital Stock to $500,000.
 7th. All the Funds of the Company are Invested in this State and Circulated among our own people. This fact should commend the Company, above all others, to North Carolinians. It is well known that hundreds of thousands of dollars in Life Premiums are annually sent North to enrich Northern Capitalists, thus continually draining our people of immense amounts which should be kept at home. On this point the friends of the Company confidently appeal to every son of the Old North State, and ask their support for this Home Institution, which, while it offers substantially all the advantages of Northern Companies, helps to build up Home Interests.

SPECIAL ANNOUNCEMENT.
 In accordance with our last prospectus, the specially reduced rates for 1873, $1 per Week, per year, for American Agents, Semi-Weekly, per year, for Foreign Agents, will be maintained for all new subscribers, and all old subscribers renewing prior to the 15th day of January, 1873, when the above Club rates will take effect.
THE NEW YORK WEEKLY TIMES will contain Selected Editorials from the Daily Times; General News, Domestic and Foreign; The Proceedings of Congress and the State Legislature; Full and Interesting Correspondence; Book Reviews; The Choice Literary Selections; while its most prominent feature will be a COMPLETE AGRICULTURAL DEPARTMENT, with original articles from practical farmers; full reports of the American Institute Farmers' Club; complete weekly market reports; financial, domestic produce, live stock, and goods and general.
AS A FAMILY PAPER,
 THE TIMES will have no superior; it will be free from all appeals to vulgar and impure tastes, and may be safely admitted to even domestic circles.
AS A REPUBLICAN JOURNAL,
 THE TIMES will be devoted, as in the past, to an intelligent and firm support of the Republican Party. Its course in reference to the Tammany Ring, at a time when all the other party papers in New York obstructed and disguised the facts, attests its sincerity in the cause of Reform. THE TIMES stood alone in demanding Reform from 1869 to the close of 1871, and there is no sincere and honest proposal for Reform, in any branch of the Government, which will not be heartily supported by THE TIMES. It will not condescend to assist ambitious politicians in their efforts to reach power under false pretenses. It will not encourage defection from the Republican Party, which is still the party of progress, security and national prosperity. It will sustain, with all the force and influence at its command, the principles and policy which have rendered that party so justly famous in our history. It will advocate those measures by which the honor, the peace, and the prosperity of the nation can be best secured and promoted, and will constantly study the wants of the people rather than the wishes of the politicians.
THE NEW YORK SEMI-WEEKLY TIMES
 Is published every Tuesday and Friday, and contains all the agricultural and literary matter of the Weekly edition, and a full and careful compilation of editorial and news features of the Daily.
 Terms of the Semi-Weekly Times. One copy, one year, $5; two copies, one year, $8; ten copies, one year, $25—and one extra copy free.
 Subscriptions to either of our editions received for a less length of time than one year at yearly rate.
 These prices are invariable. Remit in drafts on New York or Post-office Money Orders, if possible, and where none of these can be procured, send the money in registered letter. All Post-masters are obliged to register letters when requested to do so, and the system is an absolute protection against losses by mail. Address THE NEW YORK TIMES, New York City.
