distribution of the Revenue and Machinery Acts-that three thousand cop as of each be printed. Passed.

A message received from the Governor, relative to the action of the General | unanimously adopted : Assembly asking the Governor and the Attorney General for information conof the Western North Carolina Railroad, and as to the condition of the W. U and R. R. R. The Governor stated that he had already given all the information in his possession in a former communi-

Mr Ellis, of Columbus, a resolution of thanks to the President and other officers of the Scuate, for the fair and disaharged their duties. He paid a special compriment to t' e presiding officer, stating that he believed he had acted solely for the interests of the State, unbiased by party influences.

The Lieutenant Governor replied with the following remarks:

SENATORS: - The resolution that you have just passed unazimously affords the best assurance that my endeavors, faithful and impartial I hope they have been, to discharge worthily and properly the duties confided to me, have not been altogether unavailing.

That I am feelingly touched by this voluntary and generous manifestation of approbation and favor, you may believe, but you are not as conscious as I am of the deep impression it leaves upon me. Words are wenting to fully express my appreciation of your uniform kindness to me, and I make the acknowledgment with the deepest sensibility.

Our official intercourse has been pleasant and agreeable, and it will leave its impress and its memories

"On the sands of our wasting years." I am not so vain as to believe that I have not committed errors as the presiding officer of this honorable body, but it so, they were indeed uninten tional, and I think I may safely say, that no presiding officer of the Senate has in his decisions than I have been. I know that I have acted fairly and impartially in the performance of my official duties, and you have promptly sustained me on every occasion. To the public man the approbation of those he has served is his highert reward. For your generous be towal of that reward, and the indulgence at all of the people will be on your side when times, kindly extended to me, I beg you to accept my grateful acknowledg.

Permit me, Senators, as the only return which it is now in my power to make, to tender to you the assurance of my great anxiety to unite with you in any House has been called away. Trusting and all measures which may be best calculated to encourage and reward honest and return you to your families and industry and labor, to develop the re- triends, I declare this House adjourned sources of the State, to improve our until the $rd Monday of November educational interests and facilities, and next." to promote the permanent peace, prosperity and happiness of all the people again on the third Menday in Movember of North Carelina,

Your legislation forms a part of the history of the times in which we now live. Much business has been brought before the Legislature, some of it has been carried through, and some has failed. Let us hope that what has oeen done is for the best, and that it may receive the approbation of the people.

If in the course of our deliberation, any irritation has been occasioned, or any unkind expressions escaped us, let us, in the spirit of generous friendship throw ever them the mantle of forget fulness, and recollect only the pleasures arising from association, and the consciousness, which I am sure pervades the bosom of every one, that all have been actuated by a high sense of public

Senators, we must now close our legslative deliberations. The hour for adjournment has arrived. We have met o day to part. I wish each and all of you a speedy and safe return to your families and friends, and that you and they may enjoy a long life of peace. health and happiness.

"Our several engagements now call us Our parting is needful and we must obey." It remains for me only to announce that the Senate stands adjourned until the third Monday of November next. At 11:80 o'clock the Senate went into executive session to consider a message 213, laws of 1871 72, was taken up and from the Governor, concerning the appointments of the Boards of different State institutions. His Excel ency stated that, not having had sufficient time to consider the action of the execu tive session of the Senate, held Saturday afternoon, when his appointments had been considered and a portion of them rejected, he declined making any further nominations. The Senste then adjourned its executive session until the first Tuesday after the third Monday in

Mr Badger said that in introducing this resolution he had expressed his honest conviction and what he believed faithful manner in which they have to be the unanimous sentiment of the House. In drafting it he had gone out of the ordinary "rut" of complimentary resclutions, and had sought to make it speak the coast truth.

To Mr Speaker Robinson the House was greatly indebted for the harmonious and friendly feelings that have characterised all of our proceedings. Public bu-iness has been greatly forwarded, and the true interests of the State, not solely party ends, have been the result of our deliberations. He has been kind and courteons to all the members, but at the same time firm and inflexible in executing his trust. He has displayed follows: a thorough acquaintance with parliamentary law, and a promptness in applying it, that has greatly facilitated the prosecution of our work and saved to the people much expense. The House and North Carolina owe him a debt of gratitude. Mr McGehee endorsed all that Mr Badger had said:
