C. P. Knight, Esq. - Dear Sir: I have used Bradley's Patent Enamel Paint on my jewelry last spring and am now in possession of it and it looks as well now as when first painted and is not so much rubbed as the ordinary paint. Yours truly, Creswell P. O., Hart and County, Md., Feb. 6th, 1873. A. H. STRASSBAUGH.

THE PLAINS, FAUCIER CO., Va., Feb. 6th, 1873.
Mr. C. P. Knight - Dear Sir: The Paint came safely to hand as ordered - two kegs, five gallons each, and three tickets and one receipt. As practice was slack, I did not buy my self. Two weeks, not counting the time of the receipt, I did not use it. The last coat I applied to a large iron safe and it was so hard that I could not get it off with a hardy scraper. I have used it on a large iron safe and it was so hard that I could not get it off with a hardy scraper. I have used it on a large iron safe and it was so hard that I could not get it off with a hardy scraper. I have used it on a large iron safe and it was so hard that I could not get it off with a hardy scraper. I have used it on a large iron safe and it was so hard that I could not get it off with a hardy scraper.
Very respectfully and truly, S. MCGILL, M. D.

To the Public: - It affords me much pleasure to state that in July, 1871, Front Street Theatre was painted inside and out with Bradley's Patent Enamel Paint, for which C. P. Knight, No. 53 West Lombard Street, is agent, and to testify to its superiority over any and all other paints for similar uses. In the private dwelling can paint possibly our daily cleaning away and it is so hard that it is not so much rubbed as the ordinary paint. I will only mention its being used and ready for use in quantities to suit pa-chases, its quick drying properties, and its being so hard that it is not so much rubbed as the ordinary paint. I have used it on a large iron safe and it was so hard that I could not get it off with a hardy scraper. I have used it on a large iron safe and it was so hard that I could not get it off with a hardy scraper. I have used it on a large iron safe and it was so hard that I could not get it off with a hardy scraper.

Mr. C. P. Knight - Dear Sir: - The paint we received from you have been applied to several of our buildings and to the one of our friends, and have given entire satisfaction in covering quantities, in gloss, and in its durability. It is a very economical and we can recommend it with certainty, and intend to use it on all occasions where we desire a good quality of work.
Yours, respectfully,

FROM HON. JOHN WETHERED.
Mr. C. P. Knight: - At the request of a friend of mine, I was induced to apply your patent Bradley's paint to my house, and I have pleasure in stating that it has proved light and satisfactory, and is a great improvement over the ordinary paint. It is a better gloss than the ordinary paint, and is free from disagreeable odor.
Yours, Respectfully,
JOHN WETHERED.
