FOR CITY ALDERMEN. FIRST WARD .- Jacob Wise and

Henry Brewington. SECOND WARD .- Wm. P. Canaday. THIRD WARD .- Lawson E. Rice, FOURTH WARD .- James Wilson. FIFTH WARD. - Wm. H. Banks and Hiram Hankins.

Election to be held May 5th, 1878.

FROM The Villager published at Salisbury, Mass., we learn that at the High School exhibition given there the other day, special notice was taken of the oration of Homer A. Huntington, for its "clear enunciation and graceful gesture, gave promise of high rank in the tuture." Mr. Huntington is a Wilmingtonian, and his friends will be pleased to hear from him.

THERE still seems to be the greatest dou its and uncertainty as to who the murder of Mr. Goodrich, of Brooklyn, he woman, (Mrs. Myers) es days ago, as announced arres 5 only to be detained as a ille the world grows man ills of this murder, it is vn beyond our own neightite blood of a murdered man, by her busband, still ogeace almost at our doors. in is well known. ### Pacification of the Races.

George T. Downing, E.q. of Washington, has prepared a lecture with the above title, which he proposes to deliver in the South to the people of both races, wherever sufficient encouragement is given, and we hope he may be induced to deliver it in this city. From the reviews of it, published in several of our exchanges, we are convinced it would be of considerable benefit, and do much toward removing some of the bitte: ness still manifest in our midst.

A private letter to Hon. G. L. Mabson, from Mr. Vashau of Washington, states that Mr Downing is willing to deliver this lecture in this city, if sufficient encouragement is given to pay the necessary expenses, which we have no doubt will be done. Mr. Downing's extensive acquaintance with the people, not only colored but the leading white men of the United States, make him in a very large degree the right man in the right place. We hope Mr. Mabson will investigate, and secure a sufficient guarantee, and invite him. There are hundreds of our citizens who would go to hear bim, and be willing to pay a small admission fee to defray the expense.

From the Washington Republican. THE ALGERINE COAST. Where the Correspondents will go this Summer.

Now that Congress has adjourned, those peculiar fellows who inhabit the " Algerine coast" on Fourteenth street, otherwise known as Newspaper row, will begin to leave that haunt for other work and recreation. In order that our readers may know the whereabouts of the "boys," a reporter of the Republican visited the "court" and learned the following facts:

Mr George W. Adams will leave the World in the hands of a sub, and make a two months' trip to Europe. Messrs. Gobright, Holland, Barr, and

- The New York Mercury gives the tollowing story concerning the main ac tors in the Goodrich tragedy and murder: Before becoming acquainted wi h Goodrich, Lucette was intimate with McKee, of the Associated Press, will a Spaniard named Roscoe, and finding stick to their posts, relieving each other Goodrich was possessed of ample means, and that his assertions of owning houses in Brooklyn were correct, she forsook Roscoe for him. When her people remeved from Stanton she changed her workshop and strove to hide her whereabouts from the Spaniard. She gave a wrong name on employing with Mrs. Levy, and charged those in the place to deny her presence should any one call for her. That the Spaniard was cognizant of her preferment for Goodrich was evident by the dispute they had in her room, and to save him from Roscoe she thrust him into another room. After and the Richmond Enquirer refusing to removing to Rivington street Roscoe was at first unable to find Lucette, but ultimately discovered her and the intimacy which existed between her and Goodrich. Thursday night he watched call him "Jim"-wants to become a her as she started for Brooklyn, and tracked her to the house on De Graw street. He sought for a way to enter and St. Louis Republican, refuse to trust it, and after repeatedly traversing the

climbed over the tence and gained an entrance to the building by the back basement, lifting the latch with the jagged jack knife found on the foor .-When in the house he closed the door and went to the room in which were Goodrich and Lucette. Dashing in, the startled pair leaped from the bed and sought to escape from the room. Goodrich and Roscoe closed in a struggle, when the former broke loose and ran down stairs, followed by the latter, who had in the meantime secured his pistol. On reaching the basement, Roscoe fired at Goodrich, shooting him in the temple, and as he lay on the floor placed the pistol behind his ear, discharging two more shots. Taking the valuables missing from the prostrate body, Roscoe then told the woman all he had done. and the necessity for him to fly, saying he would go to Baltimore. When the woman had recevered from her fright she sought to conceal the tragedy, and arranged the body as found, locking the doors and throwing the key of basement in a basket, and then left for New York in the early morning. The Mercury adds the woman detailed to Chief of Police Campbell a full history of the murder, and every particular connected with it, and also that District Attorney Britton, when asked if the statements Copeland goes to New York city to in the Baltimore letter were correct, answers, "I believe it is; yes, that is so." It is stated that Mrs. Myers was home with her parents the night of the murder. She says she read an account of the murder in the Friday Saturday morning, charged him with it, since which time she has not seen
