

The Evening Post.

WILMINGTON, N. C.
Wednesday, June 4th, 1873.

Enlarged.

The Washington Chronicle comes to us this morning greatly improved and enlarged to the size of the New York Herald. As the Washington papers reach here by the morning's mail, we have the news twelve hours in advance of the New York dailies, which is a great convenience and it is to our interest to have a good paper published at Washington. We believe the Chronicle will fill the bill.

Hon. John A. Bingham.

The appointment of this gentleman as Envoy Extraordinary and Minister Plenipotentiary to Japan will be approved by the great majority of Republicans all over the land. Judge Bingham was admitted to the bar in 1849, was a member of the thirty-first Congress in 1854, and has remained in Congress for sixteen years. He has filled many very important positions, and has the entire confidence of the administration. He is a very fine orator and in all closely contested elections his services are in great demand. He is about fifty seven years of age.

Captain Jack.

The telegraph informs us that Captain Jack has surrendered, and this, we suppose, ends the Modoc war. The Government now owes it to the people to send these treacherous savages to the happy hunting grounds of their fathers, where they will no more molest or interfere with the people of the West. The blood of men, women and children cry up from the ground for vengeance, and we hope they may now be avenged. As the murderer of Gen. Canby, Captain Jack is most assuredly amenable to the laws, and we hope a drumhead court martial will be immediately instituted, and Captain Jack and his infamous associates be made to suffer the full penalty of the law. There never will be a lasting peace while this crew are permitted to walk the earth, and the Government has always been too lenient with them. We want the Government to be of sufficient power to be felt and heard.

WASHINGTON NOTES.

The Treasurer's books show a total decrease in the public debt since May 1 of $3,525,282 50; total decrease from March 1, 1869, to June 1, 1873, $375,499,389 55; a decrease in annual interest charge of $25,249,746.

The Commissioner of Internal Revenue has just issued a circular to collectors of customs in relation to the collection of the tax of one twenty-fourth of one per cent. on deposits, excepting the tax on the national currency, which is of importance.

The Internal Revenue Bureau has been notified that, by a decision of the Supreme Court of the United States at its last session, the collection of taxes, after having been once assessed, does not render the Bureau liable for trespass even where such assessments prove erroneous.

It is expected at the Navy Department that the Frolic, which has been dispatched to St. John's, N. B., to bring to Washington the survivors of the Polar, will arrive in Washington this week. She was five days making the trip from New York there, and on her return trip will take plenty of time and avoid dangerous seas and sailing in bad weather.

The Treasury Department decides that striped brown drills less than 30 cents per yard are held to be dutiable at 30 per cent. ad valorem under the provisions for brown or bleached drills in section 14, act March, 2, 1861, and act July 14, 1872, notwithstanding that the article is striped, it appearing that the stripe is formed by an admixture solely of the brown and white linen thread, which forms the body of the material.

General Baker, Commissioner of Pensions, rules that in claims under the last clause of section 25, act of March 3, 1873, when the death of the applicant is known to the office, any person should be allowed to furnish evidence to complete the claim. Information should be given to such person as the basis requisite for title and limitations of payment. When the claim is complete a certificate should be issued and sent to the pension agent, and the question of expense, assets, and amount of payment should rest with the pension agent and Second Comptroller.

The hotel at Nag's Head will be opened for the summer on the first of July. A good wharf is being built, and a comfortable steamer will run regularly during the season.

EDITORIAL BUDGET.

In the Supreme Court at Little Rock, Arkansas, the Attorney General filed an application for a writ of quo warranto against Governor Baxter to show by what authority he holds the office of Governor. The application sets forth that the Governor has unlawfully usurped office. Although Gov. Baxter refuses to recognize the right of the court to hear such application, and announces that he will obey no mandate issued by it on such application, and refused to employ counsel to contest the case. Judges English and Campton, both eminent attorneys, appeared in court and approved the filing of the application. Argument has been going on all Monday evening, and was to be continued Tuesday. The filing of the application by the Attorney General renewed the excitement of a few days ago, when it was rumored that such action was to be had. Should the writ be granted it is thought a conflict will ensue. The Governor holds that the Legislature adjudicated the matter, and that it was the only power that could do so. The militia are being reorganized by Baxter.

The following dispatch has been received from an officer:

ARLEGATE'S HOUSE, CLEAR LAKE, CAL., June 2, 3:30 P. M.—A series of prolonged yells and cheers aroused this camp from a pleasant siesta a half an hour after the departure of my last courier. Generals Davis and Whetton, and other officers, and all the men, rushed from the house and tents to find the cause of the uproar, and at once the whole camp was in commotion. Down the level plain north of the house was a grand cavalcade of horsemen. The steeds rushed forward at once at a furious rate, and soon neared groups of spectators scattered about the premises. "Captain Jack captured!" shouted a sturdy sergeant. Again the valley echoed with cheers and yells. The mounted command was Perry's. He had returned from a scout of twenty three hours. Three miles above the mouth of Willow creek, at 10:30 o'clock this morning, the Warm Spring scouts struck the trail, and, after a brief search, the Modocs were discovered. Colonel Perry surrounded the Indian retreat. His men were bound to fight. Suddenly a Modoc shot from out the rocks with a white flag. He met a Warm Spring Indian and said Jack wanted to surrender. Three scouts were sent to meet Jack. He came out cautiously, glanced about him a moment, and then, as if giving up all hopes, came forward and held out his hand to his visitors. Then two of his warriors, five squaws, and seven children darted forth and joined him in the surrender. The command that made this famous scout was the 1st cavalry Colonel D. Perry, composed of troop F, Lieutenant Miller, and troop H, Major Trumbull, and medical officer Assistant Surgeon Dewitt. The guides were C. Pullman and H. A. Applegate. Captain Jack is about forty years old, five feet eight inches high, compactly built, and has a large, well formed face, full of individuality. Although dressed in old clothes, he looks every inch a chief. He does not speak to any one. The Modocs are grouped in a field near the house, and surrounded by a guard.

The N. Y. Express states that Henry Ward Beecher wrote a statement exonerating Theodore Tilton from all blame in connection with the scandal with his name has been connected. The statement of Mr. Beecher will be printed to day. The same paper states that the man who lately made public the tiring statement is Samuel Wilkinson. The following card was published Tuesday afternoon by Henry Ward Beecher:

I have maintained silence respecting the slanders which have for some time past followed me. I should not speak now but for the sake of relieving another of an unjust imputation. The document which was recently published without consultation either with me or with Mr. Tilton, nor with any authorization from us. It that document should lead the public to regard Mr. Tilton as the author of the calumnies to which it alludes it will do him great injustice. I am unwilling that he should even seem to be responsible for the injurious statements whose force was derived wholly from others.

HENRY WARD BEECHER.

The Secretary of War has received the following dispatch from General Sheridan respecting certain captured Indians by General McKenzie, while on his recent raid into Mexico:

Chicago, May 30.

General W. W. Belknap,

War Department:

The prisoners captured by McKenzie—fifteen women and twenty four children—have arrived at San Antonio. I will send them up to Fort Gibson, in the Indian Territory, where they belong, unless you otherwise direct.

The dispatch was submitted to the President, and the course indicated therein approved by him.

RIDGEWAY is shipping large quantities of strawberries to the Northern markets.

PROSPECTUS.

THE EVENING POST

ENTERS UPON ITS SECOND VOLUME with indications of enlarged future usefulness. The past year has demonstrated that a

DAILY REPUBLICAN NEWSPAPER

can be made self supporting, and that it is consequently independent of all rings or combinations. The Evening Post will labor for the welfare of this portion of North Carolina with renewed vigor. THE POST is a warm advocate of

INTERNAL IMPROVEMENTS

Calculated to improve the condition of the people, and strongly favorable to

IMMIGRATION,

AGRICULTURE and EDUCATION,

as its course during the past year has shown, and it commends itself to all the people now on earth who believe in progress, as a co worker for the material interests of North Carolina.

The columns of THE POST are offered to the advertising public as a first class investment for liberal dealers, who wish to extend their trade. Such men receive politics, and place their announcements "where they will do the most good" among the people. THE POST does not claim that it is the only advertising medium in this city, but it does claim that it enables merchants to reach

HEALTH ORDINANCE.

SECTION 10TH. All cellars, excavations, or open spaces, under any building in which water at any time stagnates or rises, or which are damp, and in which foul and unwholesome air is generated or found, shall upon the notification and requirement of the Mayor (which it shall be his duty to give), be filled up by the owners, the level of the street or alley adjoining thereto, with sand or gravel, or some other imperishable substance. Any lot on which water remains and stagnates, the owner shall be held liable therefor, and shall be generally wet and damp, and all lots sunken below the level of the adjacent street or alley, and from which there is no suitable drain or gutter, or a permanent character, sufficient to vent water from the same, shall upon like notification and requirement (which it shall be the duty of the Mayor to give), be filled up by the owners in the manner aforesaid, or so drained by cutters, culverts or drains as to be kept free from water or dampness.

Every person failing to comply with the foregoing provisions of this section, after notification and requirement from the Mayor, or shall forfeit and pay twenty dollars for each and every day of such failure; and moreover, shall pay the cost and expense of filling up or draining as aforesaid, which, upon such failure, the Mayor shall cause to be done at the expense of the city.

All occupants of houses with cellars, and if there be no occupants, then the owners, shall cause all dirt, filth and rubbish to be removed from such cellars, and the same to be cleaned and whitewashed, whenever and as often as they shall be notified and required by the Mayor so to do.

All occupants, and if there be no occupants, then the owners of all stores, shops and warehouses, shall remove therefrom all fish, beef, pork, hides, or other matter or articles, whatsoever, which may be putrid or offensive to the smell, or may tend to corrupt the atmosphere, and shall vent and cleanse their building whenever notified and required by the Mayor.

All persons keeping one or more cows, horses or hogs within the limits of the city, shall keep their stables, yards, pens or enclosures in which such animals usually stand or be, dry and thoroughly cleaned, and once in every fortnight, they shall remove the filth and offal from the same beyond the limits of the city.

No person shall dump any putrid, noxious or offensive matter or substance of any kind, to remain or be upon the lot or premises occupied by him, but shall immediately remove the same beyond the limits of the city.

All privies or necessary houses, or places used as such, shall be emptied or cleaned out, or thoroughly disinfected once in every fortnight by the occupant, or in his absence, by the owner of the lot on which such privy may be.

No owner of any lot shall suffer any James-town or other weeds to grow thereon; but all lots shall be kept clear therefrom, by the owners.

No person shall place, deposit, throw, pour or convey by any drain or gutter, into any street, alley, wharf, or other public place within the city, any dead animal, offal, garbage, fish, manure, or any matter, soil or putrid water or other fluid, or any matter offensive to the smell or injurious to health, nor shall any person keep, or suffer to remain, any of the articles or things above mentioned, in or upon his yard or lot more than twenty-four hours.

Every person violating any of the provisions of this section, shall forfeit and pay twenty dollars.
