

It is well known that on and after the 1st of July next, newspapers will be required to pay postage on their exchanges the same as individuals. This will cost one dollar and twenty cents per annum for a paper published six times a week. The matter has been fully discussed, and many different views advanced. To our mind, the most nonsensical is where a paper advocates paying for what papers it requires in exchange. Thus we are informed that the New York Sun, rather than exchange with the Star of this city, as usual, for which it would have to give a copy of its paper and pay $1 20 for postage, makes it cost the Star $8 20 per annum. We fail to see where the economy comes in, unless the Sun costs its proprietors more than $7 a year to print and mail. It is, however, none of our affair. We are willing to pay the postage on our exchange list, take it as a whole, and will send the Post to every paper in this State desiring it as an exchange, no matter how small the weekly may be. We desire to see every paper in the State.

We presume this law will be repealed at the meeting of Congress in December. It is certainly an outrageous act, especially as the Congressmen themselves increased their pay to provide for the abolishment of the franking privilege. We always supposed that this action on the part of Congress was rather in retaliation, because of the press demand for the abolishment of the franking privilege. Be that as it may, we consider this attack upon newspaper exchanges as a retrograde movement to be deplored. While we are adopting penny postage and free delivery, we are taxing a class of industry harder worked and poorer paid than any other in the land. A profession, too, which has built up and made the country what it is—the wonder of the world.

Oxford Orphan Asylum. This magnificent charity appeals to all the people of the State for aid. Though the building is owned by the Masonic Fraternity and this movement was organized by the Grand Lodge at its last session, it is not supported by the Order, nor are its benefits conferred upon the children of Masons only. All unfortunate are welcomed and cared for here. The ladies in many of the cities of the State are organizing fairs, tableaux, etc., to aid this object, but nothing has, as yet, been done in this vicinity. Wilmington has representatives among the inmates and we trust that something will be done here at an early day to assist it. The teachers and entire management, are of the highest order, and nothing sectarian is taught, so that no scruples can be had on that score. Shall Wilmington do anything? The object is praiseworthy, and aid is actually needed.

Supreme Court. All the Justices present. The following cases were argued. Geo. D. Flack, adm'r., vs. John Dawson et al., New Hanover. W. S. & D. J. Devane for the plaintiff and Robert Strange for defendants. Sinclair, Owen & Brown vs. State of North Carolina, Cumberland. J. W. Hinsdale for plaintiffs, and Attorney General Hargrave for the State. U. A. Greene et al. vs. G. F. Greene, Union. J. H. Wilson for plaintiffs, no counsel for defendant. Thomas J. Jones vs. Commissioners of Bladen county. B. & T. C. Fuller for plaintiff and T. H. Sutton, N. McKay and Robert Strange for defendant. The Court adjourned to meet to day at 9 a. m. Argument of appeals from the Fifth District will be continued.—News 13th.

Four members of a St. Louis family were done in oil recently—Kerosene. One of the indispensable at an Indiana picnic is a wagon load of brickbats. Sundays at Vienna are the same as any other day—which isn't saying much. The canned fruit factories made money last year, and are going in big this season. A photographer requested that his big sign, "Taken from life," should be his epitaph. One active, intelligent boy can break a great many window lights if he only sets out right. Spain might replenish her coffers by charging so much a head for advertising correspondents. The working population of the United States is estimated at 13,000,000—one third of the population.

In the United States Circuit Court, Thursday, Judge Blatchford denied the motion for the setting aside of the indictment in the Woodhull and Claflin case on the ground that it is even more full than the previous one. The trial of Miss Claflin and Colonel Blood was then set down for Monday. Judge Blatchford states that Mrs. Woodhull's presence at her trial was not necessary, as her counsel stated she was still ill.

—Advices from Arizona state that on Monday last a band of Apaches started southward, probably intending to invade Sonora. Another band is besieging Santa Cruz, in Sonora, five miles over the border. Advices from General Davis' camp represent that only three or four Modocs remain at large. The Pitt River Indians delivered eleven Modoc refugees to General Davis last Saturday.

—George Fulmer was found with a bullet in his head in Third street, near Chesnut, Thursday morning, and died at noon in Philadelphia. An officer states that he met Fulmer about 2 a. m., at the door of a saloon, and was told by him that he had been attacked at Sixth and Arch streets, during which a cane was found in the place this morning; it was broken, and he expressed regret that any accident should have happened to it, since he had borrowed it. The officer walked with him to the corner of Third street, and then left him, and heard no shot afterward.

—The Association of Maryland Editors, numbering between thirty and forty members, left Baltimore on the steamer of the York River line Thursday afternoon for Richmond, Va., on their annual excursion. Before returning they will visit Cincinnati, Louisville, the Mammoth Cave, Indianapolis, St. Louis and Chicago, going from Richmond over the Chesapeake & Ohio Railroad.

—The United States now has postal treaties with all the great civilized nations of the world except France, Russia, Turkey, Spain, Japan and China, France is the only nation of considerable importance with which we have no treaty, but negotiations have been pending a long time to that end. The question of establishing a postal treaty with Japan will be laid before the President by the Postmaster General shortly. The correspondence with Turkey, Russia and Spain is inconsiderable as not to justify a treaty.

—The duty of discovering the instigators and perpetrators of the recent massacre of the Modoc captives by parties in Oregon rests solely with the military authorities under charge of General Davis. If the movers in this massacre are ferreted out, punishment will be meted out to them through the military authorities. The Commissioner of Indian Affairs states that no action of the Department here has been taken, nor none will be, unless the War Department submits the subject for the consideration and action of the Department. In so far as detecting the perpetrators through the aid of the people of Oregon, Commissioner Smith, of the Indian Bureau, does not hope for this, on account of the hostility of that people to the whole Modoc tribe.

From the Charlotte Observer we have the following particulars of a murder and suicide in Yadkin county: John Holcombe, who had not been married long, became enraged at his wife Emma Holcomb, on account of the intimacies which had grown up between her and a man or men in the neighborhood, and on last Friday morning, taking his pistol, emptied the contents of four barrels into her body, killing her instantly.

No one saw the shooting; but a young man, a neighbor, coming up soon, Holcomb told him what he had done, and announced his intention to kill himself, at the same time asking him (the neighbor) to assist him with the body into the house. The young man so stupefied with terror that he could do nothing at all, and Holcomb walking up to where the body of his murdered wife lay, took out his pistol and placing it at his throat, he fell across the feet of the woman, and died instantly.

An important decision to the planting community was rendered in the Federal Court at Raleigh, Wednesday evening. We refer to the Guano case, in which a firm known as Meraimon & Co., sold to W. C. Stronach, of that city, 17 tons of a guano, manufactured by them, Stronach in turn selling to a prominent farmer. This planter refused payment on the ground that the guano was entirely worthless. He also had the guano subjected to test to prove its value. Both, Prof. Liebig, of Baltimore, and Prof. Kerr, of that city, decided it to be worthless as a manure. Prof. Kerr finding 68 per cent. of sand in the article. The manufacturers, in the statement of formula used by them, acknowledge to 950 pounds of street dirt, and yet in the face of all this, Mr. Stronach is obliged to pay the claim with interest.

PROSPECTUS.

THE EVENING POST

ENTERS UPON ITS SECOND VOLUME with indications of enlarged future usefulness. The past year has demonstrated that a DAILY REPUBLICAN NEWSPAPER can be made self supporting, and that it is consequently independent of all rings or combinations. THE EVENING POST will labor for the welfare of this portion of North Carolina with renewed vigor. THE POST is a warm advocate of

INTERNAL IMPROVEMENTS

Calculated to improve the condition of the people, and strongly favorable to

IMMIGRATION, AGRICULTURE and EDUCATION,

as its course during the past year has shown, and it commends itself to all the people now on earth who believe in progress, as a co-worker for the material interests of North Carolina. The columns of THE POST, are offered to the advertising public as a first class investment for liberal dealers, who wish to extend their trade. Such men eschew politics, and place their announcements "where they will do the most good" among the people. THE POST does not claim that it is the only advertising medium in this city, but it does claim that it enables merchants to reach of buyers, which can be done in no other way, and dealers consulting their own interests will patronize the advocates of both political parties.

hopes to gain the reputation of being a Live Newspaper.

in its broadest sense, and to commend itself to the people, irrespective of political predilections, as a news paper to be sought for by every one desiring the very latest intelligence. While the editors of THE EVENING POST are firm believers in

they have shown during the past year—even during the heated political campaign through which they have passed, a firm belief in the

RIGHTS OF OPINION,

Inherent to every man in the State.— Liberal to its opponents, acknowledging their full rights of free thought, it claims the same for itself, and equal justice of criticism at their hands. This policy will be in the future as in the past, the rule and guide of its faith. Experience having proved the soundness of a cheap daily paper, THE EVENING POST will be offered at the following
