OTTO SCUTZER, Observer, U. S. A.

The Blackfish excursion yesterday was greatly enjoyed by the participants. A large quantity of fish were caught and barring the sun burns, nobody was accommodated.

The Presbyterian Sabbath School excursion was a perfect success. Over two hundred participated in the festivities and not an accident or any incident to mar the harmony of the occasion.

MARY QUEEN OF SCOTTS--Our citizens should not forget the entertainment promised us by the young ladies of the Academy of Incarnation on next Thursday night.

The drama Mary Queen of Scots, has been translated from the French, by one of the lady pupils for the occasion. During the interval we are to be favored with vocal music from the young ladies and we feel assured, that as heretofore, the concert will be a perfect success.

CHINQUEPIN SWITCHES AND RAZORS--John Waddell and Richard Jones applied at the Dispensary yesterday afternoon to have their wounds dressed. John and Richard said they were playing with each other with chinquepin switches, and had cut a "little too hard." Upon examination it was found that Jones had been cut pretty severely on the head by a sharp instrument of some kind, and that Waddell had received a like wound, about eight inches long, on his back.

"WET AND DRY."--Tuesday morning, about 11 o'clock, two or three of our "nice young men," might have been seen wending their way down Water street, rigged out in their "best bib and tucker," in search of a steamboat on which they were to embark for Smithville. On their arrival at Smithville they, like all tourists, immediately commenced to "do the town up." Their patent leather boots, lavender colored pants, dark coats, white vests, pearl colored gloves and flashy cravats attracted no little attention from the inhabitant of the city by the sea.

THE TOWN CRIER.

- Warm.
- Streets delightful.
- Advertise in the Post.
- No more rain is needed.
- Disinfect your premises.
- Pigfish delighteth the epicures.
- Next Monday begins "court week."

- Gold is quoted to day in New York at 115 1/2.

- The city is very healthy in spite of the hot weather.

- Now is a good time to renew your subscriptions to the Post.

- Notice the new Postoffice regulations at the head of the local column.

- The prosecutions of Annie Speight are almost amounting to persecutions.

- The town crier is indicative of careful thought over the "midnight oil."

- 'Twas very still last night, without a single bark to disturb the solemn stillness of the hour!

- Capt. Jack is to endure the glorious uncertainty of the law. He is a peace man now.

- Last year we had plenty of water-melons on the 4th of July. We fear we wont see them this time.

- In two weeks more the balance of those who take their annual flight North will sail out, leaving editors to endure the hot weather as best they may.

- A printer sticks about his form. It is an imposing scene. No sound so sweet as the rap upon the planer, nothing so soothing as the noise of the press.

WANTED--A good cook, either white or colored. One who will be well recommended, can get good wages. Apply to Sol. Bear, on Red Cross, between Second and Third streets.

RUNAWAY.--Mr. Geo. Kidder's horse ran away yesterday evening, and partially demolished the buggy. The horse ran on some distance when he fell and slid along on his side some twenty feet, but was unhurt and springing up dashed off again with wonderful speed. Nobody hurt.

Mayor's Court. His Honor W. P. CANADAY, Mayor, presiding.

ANNIE J. SPEIGHT'S case has been continued until the first Monday in July when she will have a hearing.

BEN CLARK, whose arrest was noticed in yesterday's Post, was arraigned before his Honor for stealing about 50 cts. out Mr. Hyde's money drawer and attempting to carry it off, was fined $50.

The Newbern Times says Joseph Bell, a seaman on the steamship Jas. A. Gary of Baltimore, now at that port, fell from the house of the steamer, on the 16th, to the deck, thereby receiving severe and serious injuries. The surgical neck of the humerus of his left arm was fractured, a severe contusion of the right knee and a cut on the forehead in addition to a severe shock to his nervous system was the extent of the injuries as reported by Dr. H. G. Bates, Marine Hospital Surgeon of the Port. Bell was admitted to the Hospital for treatment and will recover.

Some of the heads of bureaus in the Government Department who have vacancies existing in the higher classes of clerkships under them, decline to have them filled by competitive examinations on the ground that they are best qualified to judge who, under them, are best qualified, and therefore most entitled for promotion. They have strong hopes that Congress will wipe out the whole system next winter.

Nearly all the heads of bureaus in the Government Departments condemn the new stamp law, which goes into operation on the 1st proximo, as one which will prove highly annoying and difficult to work under.

Many books and other works, especially of a statistical nature, that are now sent to the Departments, both from this and other countries, free of postage, simply by marking them "free," will now have to be prepaid with stamps. Even in mailing matter from the Departments a great deal of additional labor will be imposed in printing, weighing, marking, stamping, &c.

THE "Great Industries of the United States," contains an historical summary of the origin, growth and perfection of the chief industrial arts of the country. It also contains 1,304 pages with 500 illustrations showing the modus operandi of the manufactory of every article in use.

To a man who is anxious to store his mind with useful knowledge it is simply indispensable. Parties in want of a book of this kind can receive them from Mr. George N. Harriss, at the office of THE EVENING POST, for $3 per copy, which is fifty cents under the regular subscription price.

STATE ITEMS.

NEWTON wants a money order office. The Plumbago mine in Catawba county is turning out well.

The Fair of the Carolinas opens in Charlotte on the 25th of October. Crops in Columbus county have been badly damaged by the recent rains.

J. H. Foy has been appointed post-master at Richlands, Onslow county. The wheat crop in the Catawba section is turning out much better than was expected.

Mrs. SARAH STARR, aged 80, died on last Sunday very suddenly in Jacob's Fork Township, Catawba county.

In August the people of Gaston county vote on the proposed $50,000 county subscription to the Narrow Gauge Rail Road Company.

Gov. CALDWELL has received an invitation to attend the Commencement exercises at the Washington Lee University, Lexington, Va.

The buyers and sellers of cotton in Charlotte are to meet on the 5th prox., to consult on the propriety of establishing a Cotton Exchange in that city.

The Raleigh Sentinel says: We regret to learn that Hon. Daniel M. Barringer still continues in feeble health. He is confined to his room. We hope to be able to report at an early day that he is again in his usual good health.

DR. MORGAN CLOSS, a prominent citizen of Chapel Hill, fell dead suddenly at that place on the 13th instant. It is supposed that he died from heart disease. Dr. Closs was well and favorably known, and has been prominently connected with educational interests.

The Raleigh News is gratified to learn that Captain Brain is succeeding with his ice enterprise. Over $1,100 was subscribed by the citizens on Tuesday, and it is reasonably expected that in a short time the machine will be in operation. The machine in Charlotte is now nearly completed and will soon be in operation.

The Charlotte Observer says: Yesterday morning the scaffolding around the new house of Mr. David Oates, in this city, fell while several workmen were engaged in their labors on the scaffold. They were all precipitated to the ground and all more or less hurt. Mr. Eagle sustained more injuries than any of the others, and a son of Mr. Oates had one of his wrists sprained.

The Fayetteville Eagle says: Last Tuesday about 10 o'clock, the store of W. G. Rackley and W. T. Fisher at the new factory of the Beaver Creek Company was broken into and robbed of $45 worth of goods and $35 of money. Two white men whose names we did not learn, committed the robbery, one of whom is under arrest, and the other is probably caught by this time.

The Fayetteville Eagle says: On Sunday Frank Scott, colored, and another colored man, were driving a young wild horse in a buggy when the animal became unmanageable, ran through the street by the Postoffice, threw the driver out and finally turned the buggy over and smashed it. The horse also fell or turned over, breaking some of his limbs and bones so that he died. The horse was worth some $175, and he and buggy were property of William Williams, colored. So horse breaking on Sunday came near being a neck-breaking affair.

The Raleigh Sentinel says the Wilmington and Weldon railroad will carry all persons who may attend the celebration at Oxford on St. John's Day, the 24th instant, for one fare. We are glad to learn from J. H. Mills, Esq., that Gov. Vance has written him that he will at an early day deliver six lectures in behalf of the Oxford Orphan Home. This announcement will be pleasing to a large number of persons. Every well wisher of this noble charity, as well as those who may be fortunate enough to hear him, will be glad to learn that the Home is to receive such strong help.

The Newbern Times says: We notice that a consignment of broom corn from Hyde county was received yesterday, by Messrs. Rountree & Webb, of this city, for shipment to the New York house of Webb & Rountree in order to try the Northern market. We are not aware of any shipments of this staple being made heretofore from this section of the State though we are cognizant of the fact that the article has been imported from the North here very extensively, and that we have been chiefly dependent upon the Northern States for this production. Judging from the appearance of this Hyde county broom corn, we make bold to assert, that if the article is cut and cured at the proper time, we can compete with the world as to quality and cheapness in raising this very desirable and marketable staple.

LATEST BY TELEGRAPH.

WASHINGTON, June 19. President Grant, accompanied by General Babcock, arrived here early this a. m. He will return to Long Branch by Friday night's train. It is not supposed that there will be any formal cabinet meeting in the meantime, although the heads of the departments will call on him for the transaction of business of a routine character. Among the early callers on the President this forenoon, were Messrs. Robb, Savage and Osborn, the Commissioners appointed to enquire into the outrages and depredations on the Rio Grande. Although the visit was mainly of courtesy, there was some incidental conversation relative to the results of the inquiry. The President expressed his satisfaction with the labors of the Commission, and remarked that he would do all in his power to afford the required relief to those who had severely suffered by the raids.

It was stated several days ago that there would be about twenty changes in the Southern political friends. Several such changes have already been made. The latest being the appointment of Henry Ray Myers, of Alabama, as consul at Hamilton, Ontario, in place of Blake, suspended.

As one result, the Italian Parliament has just passed an act making trading in children a felony, and severely punishing not only those who employ them, but the parents who consent to their employment.
