had an audience by the Shah, when he was pleased to play the part of an au- don says the Herald correspondent at tomaton toward them. It will, no doubt, be remembered that these gentlemen had the praiseworthy intention of arousing the Shah's sympathy for their oppressed brothers in faith in Persia; but no word of promise passed the lips of the Asiatic despot. At the day of the grand festival in the gardens of Potsdam, the train for bringing the Shah there had been ordered for 3 o'clock, but in his amiable nonchalance | Nubia to Nyazzi, and obtained a thous the Shah kept the Empress and all other and additional troops to complete the ladies for more than three quarters of an hour waiting; when he came he lounged about the perron, never thinking of excusing himself, or even saluting the Empress.

came to bring him the morning report , and to report that the troops were in readiness to receive him, he answered that he would give the order when the review was to take place, and he finally only witnessed the parade from the window.

On the arrival of the Shah the Per- Sanakim, en route to Suez. sian gentlemen of his suite threw some "Kopecks" (Russian coin) to the workmen, who had helped to bring the luggage to the castle. When these workmen called on the following morning for their money they were sent from one * Persian dignitary to the other, at last to the cousin of the Shah, who gave them the following answer : " We Persians are the guests of the German Emperor, and we would fail against the tirst law of hospitality if we were to pay for anything; if any one is our guest, we always give him a gentleman of the court (a Mih-Mandar) and he pays for everything."

THE New York Herald informs us that "the Second Auditor of the Treasury has just completed the settlement of the account of Jacob Thompson, Secretary of the Interior under Buchanan's administration, and acting at that time as trustee of the Indian fund.
