HARPER'S BAZAR.

NOTICES OF THE PRESS.
The Bazar is edited with a contribution of fact and talent that we seldom find in any journal, and the journal itself is the organ of the great world of fashion.—Boston Traveller.

The Bazar commends itself to every member of the household—to the children by droll and pretty pictures, to the young ladies by its fashion plates in endless variety, to the provident matron by its patterns for the children's cloths, to the domestic by its tasteful designs for embroidered shawls and luxurious dressing gowns. But the reading matter of the Bazar is uniformly of great excellence. The paper has acquired a wide popularity for the seaside enjoyment it affords.—N Y Evening Post.

THE PEOPLE'S MAGAZINE.

Edited by Edward E. Hale.
The enlarged resources placed in the hands of the OLD AND NEW, by the public and by the proprietors, enable them to announce a volume of wider interest than they have ever published.

Mrs Greenough's Story, Pythonia, and Mr Hale's Story, Ups and Downs, will be continued and completed in this volume.

A series of short stories by Miss Meredith, Mrs Stowe, Mrs Whitney, Miss Hale, Mr Perkins, Mr Loring, and others, has been engaged.

The series of articles on Political Science by gentlemen of recognized ability, will comprise papers on Railroads, Servants or Masters?—The Ballot in England—Land—The Law of Maritime Jurisdiction; The Indian Question; The Suffrage of Women; Equal Taxation; Tariffs and Protection; What the New Administration must do Labor and Wages Question.

The subjects of critical interest in NATURAL HISTORY AND PHILOSOPHY will be illustrated by different gentlemen eminent in their lines of research. We shall soon have the pleasure of printing papers, among others, by Prof. Lesley, Mr Dall, Dr Gray, and President Hill.

THE EXAMINER is not confined to the review of the publications of a few houses, but attempts to give some account of the more important issues from the French, German and English press, as well as our own.

THE RECORD OF PROGRESS describes the substantial advance which the world has made, in whatever direction or in whatever region, with special reference to improvements in domestic life which may be attempted in America.

PROSPECTUS.

THE EVENING POST.

J. C. MANN,
EDITOR & PROPRIETOR.

Published every evening, except Sunday, at Five Dollars per Annum.

The Post is designed to reach all classes of citizens, and its subscription price is therefore placed so low as to be within the reach of all. It contains the
LATEST NEWS,
up to the time of going to press,

TELEGRAPHIC,
BY MAIL,
COMMERCIAL AND LOCAL.

It should be in the hands of every man who desires to know what has transpired during the day, and, as it aims to give its publisher hopes it will prove a welcome guest in many families.

RELIABLE INTELLIGENCE.

THE POST is sprightly without being sensational, and it carefully excludes all objectionable incidents and reports calculated to offend the sensibilities of the most fastidious. As an Advertising Medium it claims to be first class. It has a good and constantly increasing circulation, and is read by almost every business man in the city. Politically the Post is UNSWERVINGLY REPUBLICAN.

Its editor having been a consistent member of that party since 1855, through its vicissitudes and triumphs, he claims to speak advisedly when advocating its principles. He is not, however, an "extremist," and accords to others what he claims for himself, the right of free thought and of free speech.

THE ADVERTISING RATES of the Post, like its subscription price, are at liberal and at living prices, as an examination of them will show, and it bespeaks a share of public patronage.

THE EVENING POST is closely identified with the local welfare of the Cape Fear region, and the believers in progress, whether

AGRICULTURAL,
MECHANICAL, or
COMMERCIAL,

will find an enthusiastic ally in THE POST.

THE POST is opposed to monopolies, but in favor of internal improvements, and a firm believer in the patronage and support of home enterprises and institutions.

We especially call the attention to the following testimonials of the Paint:
C. P. Knight, Esq.—Dear Sir: I have used Bradley's Patent Enamel Paint on my dwelling last Spring, and am much pleased with it, and it looks as well now as when first painted, and consider it a good Paint. Yours, truly,
Creswell P. O., Hartford county, Md., Feb. 6th, 1873. A. H. STRASBAUGH.

THE PLAINS, FAUQUIER CO., VA., Feb. 6th, 1873.
Mr. C. P. Knight—Sir: The Paint came safely to hand as ordered—two kegs, five gallons each, and three buckets, one gallon each. As practice was slack, I did the job myself. Two weeks, (not constant work,) completed the house two coats. The last coat I applied thick, and it is now generally conceded that for enamel-like hardness, and body, and harmony of colors, there is not a handsomer job in the place. I saved sixty-five dollars by the operation, which is an item just now with Southern people. It should be generally adopted in this State. Any country lad can apply it. I have never dabbled in such stock as testimonials, but I feel so forcibly the great adaptability of your "Enamel Paint" to the wants of our people, in excellency of material, in beauty of color, and in the fact of its being "ready mixed" that I give you free permission, (if it is desirable to you,) to make what use you think proper of this letter.
Very respectfully and truly,
S. MCGILL, M. D.

To the Public:—It affords me much pleasure to state that in July, 1871, Front Street Theatre was painted inside and out with Bradley's Patent Enamel Paint, for which C. P. Knight, Esq., No. 93 West Lombard Street, is agent, and, to testify to its superiority over any and all other paints for similar uses. In no private dwelling can paint possibly be subjected to the very severe test it undergoes at this establishment, where, during our daily cleaning, soap and soda are constantly applied to it, and yet it appears as sound and fresh as when put on. Of the numerous advantages it possesses over other paints, I will only mention its being mixed and ready for use in quantities to suit purchasers, its quickly drying properties, which saves much time in the execution of work where paint is needed, and its very perceptible tenacity, which imparts beauty and durability to the objects on which it is used. As such I most earnestly recommend it to the merchants and tradesmen of our city, believing it will give them greater satisfaction than they can possibly anticipate.
WM. E. BINN,
BALTIMORE, April 20, 1873.

Front Street Theatre, CHAMBERSBURG, December 10th, 1872.
Mr. C. P. Knight—Dear Sir:—The paints we received from you have been applied to several of our own buildings and to those of our friends, and have given entire satisfaction in covering qualities, in gloss, and in adaptability to all kinds of surface of material and we cheerfully recommend it, especially to that class of consumers who have to depend upon unknown parties, or painters to mix and furnish materials, wherein we have found the most deception.
Yours, truly,
JACOB STOFFER & SON.

FROM HON. JOHN WETHERED.
Mr. C. P. Knight:—At the recommendation of a friend, I was induced to apply your patent "Bradley's" paint to my house. I have pleasure in stating that it has proved highly satisfactory, covering more surface than you promised, is more economical, carries better gloss than ordinary paint, and is freer from disagreeable odor.
Yours, Respectfully,
JOHN WETHERED.

BALTIMORE, December 27th, 1871.
C. P. Knight, Esq., Agent for Bradley's Patent Enamel Paint.—Dear Sir:—The paint we purchased from you we will cheerfully endorse as the best of any kind we have ever used; its covering qualities is everything desired, drying promptly and with a hard gloss which must, we think, resist the action of all kinds of weather. This is our experience, and we can recommend it with certainty, and intend to use it on all occasions where we desire a good job of work.
Very Respectfully,
EMART & QUARTLEY, 270 W. Baltimore St.
House, Sign and Fresco Painters.
PLEASANTVILLE, HARTFORD CO., MD.

Mr. C. P. Knight—Dear Sir:—I am very happy to inform you that your "Patent Enamel Paint" has given entire satisfaction. I prefer it to any paint I have ever seen used, and recommend it for durability and beauty as paramount to any other.
Very Respectfully,
R. DICKEY, M. D.
C. P. KNIGHT, Sole Agent,
No. 93 W. Lombard Street, Baltimore.

"Unquestionably the best sustained work of the kind in the World."
Harper's Magazine.

NOTICES OF THE PRESS.
The ever-increasing circulation of this excellent monthly, proves its continued adaptation to popular desires and needs.—Indeed, when we think into how many homes it penetrates every month, we must consider it as one of the educators as well as entertainers of the public mind, for its vast popularity has been won by no appeal to stupid prejudices or depraved tastes.—Boston Globe.
The character which this Magazine possesses for variety, enterprise, artistic wealth, and literary culture that has kept pace with it has not led the times, should cause its conductors to regard it with justifiable complacency. It also entitles them to a great claim upon the public gratitude. The Magazine has done good and not evil all the days of its life.—Brooklyn Eagle.

SPECIAL ANNOUNCEMENT.

In accordance with our last prospectus, the specially reduced rates for 1873, viz: Weekly, per year.....$1 00
Semi-Weekly, per year.....$2 50 will be maintained for all new subscribers, and all old subscribers renewing prior to the 15th day of January, 1873, when the above Club rates will take effect.

THE NEW YORK WEEKLY TIMES Will contain Selected Editorials from the Daily Times; General News, Domestic and Foreign; The Proceedings of Congress and the State Legislatures; Full and Interesting Correspondence; Book Reviews; The choicest Literary Selections; while its most prominent feature will be a COMPLETE AGRICULTURAL DEPARTMENT, with original articles from practical farmers; full reports of the Farmers' Association; Farmers' Club; complete weekly market reports; financial, domestic produce, live stock, dry goods and general.

AS A FAMILY PAPER, THE TIMES will have no superior; it will be free from all appeals to vulgar and impure tastes, and may be safely admitted to every domestic circle.

AS A REPUBLICAN JOURNAL, THE TIMES will be devoted, as in the past, to an intelligent and firm support of the Republican Party. Its course in reference to the Tammany Ring, at a time when all the other daily papers in New York obstructed and discouraged its efforts, attests its sincerity in the cause of Reform. The Times stood alone in demanding Reform from 1869 to the close of 1871, and there is no sincere and honest proposal for Reform, in any branch of the Government, which will not be heartily supported by the Times. But it will not conspire in assisting ambitious politicians or demagogues to reach power under false pretenses. It will not encourage defection from the Republican Party, which is still the party of progress, security and national prosperity.

It will sustain, with all the force and influence at its command, the principles and policy which have rendered that party so justly famous in our history. It will advocate those measures by which the honor, the peace, and the prosperity of the nation can be best secured and promoted, and will constantly study the wants of the people rather than the wishes of the politicians.

THE NEW YORK SEMI-WEEKLY TIMES Is published every Tuesday and Friday, and contains all the agricultural and literary matter of the Weekly edition, and a full and careful compilation of editorial and news features of the Daily.

Terms of the Semi-Weekly Times: One copy, one year, $3; two copies, one year, $5; ten copies, one year, $25; and one extra copy free.

Subscriptions to either of our editions received for a less length of time than one year at yearly rate.

These prices are invariable. Remit in drafts on New York or Post-office Money Orders, if possible, and where neither of these can be procured, send the money in a registered letter. All Post-masters are obliged to register letters when requested to do so, and the system is an absolute protection against losses by mail. Address
THE NEW YORK TIMES,
