> " LEFERRED STOCK. Work. C

To the friends of the Cape Fear Agricultural Society : Your officers have labored dilligently to make the next Fair a success, such as is worthy the great city of Wilmington and the county which sustains it They have perfected all the arrangements and now alone need the hearty co-operation of those desiring a success. They now appeal to the citizens of the city to come forward and do their duty. We admit that the financial crisis has dampened the ardor of those from whom the Association expected aid. But we ask the question: Has it really injured any? There have been no failures; we are all worse frightened than hurt. Then come forward like men and do your duty. Officers can't do everything without the aid of those really interested. Those men who have the reputation of their city at heart; those men who will really derive pecuniary advantage from the annual collection of a vast concourse of people, each man leaving in the city from $10 to $100. Let those who reap the profit come forward like liberal men and contribute to its success. Deal fairly, and if benefitted do not underrate the advantage of the Fair to the city, in order that you may conceal from the world how much you may really profit by it. Let the croakers and the despondent, the over-ambitious and wilfully obstinate close their mouths for the time. Say a good word, and not be ever ready to complain of the management. Activity in managers is a very good thing, yet it requires a little liberality on the part of the wealthy, influential, the business men-running through all the various departments of city and commercial life. The commission merchant, the wholesale and retail merchant, the railroad man, the hard and saloon keeper, the butcher, well as Sapolio. Try it. the artist, the banker, in ry one interested in the HAND should come forward bute but a pittance nterprise. And the news-

ever been liberal and public-spirited, and when they know and understand the difficulties of the management they will not be ready to blame. The State Fair was a success, but it was at an expenditure of $40,000.

The management only asks that those most interested shall contribute to make | HAND up such purses as may be within their means. It would ask of the Commission merchants to make up one, of the retail merchants one, of the rail road men one, of the turpentine buyers and distillers one, of the mill men and timber buyers one, of the cotton factors one, of the butchers one, of the hotel keepers one, saloon keepers one, and thus encourage the best horses to be brought to the fair. These need not be large in any instance, yet the producer | HAND will in a measure judge of the liberality of each by its encouragement of that holiday sport to which the city has invited the country.

Our premium list will be liberally provided for. The country has given evidence that the approaching fair will be the largest and most successful that we have yet held. As Christmas apbroaches the holiday will be kept in that spirit in which neighbor should meet neighbor on an high and festive occasion. With a spirit of generous rivalry the farmer will meet the farmer and vie with him in exhibiting specimens of those things which go to make up the wealth of the land. Here, too, fair hands will exhibit the work which will refine the rough nature of the be-holder, while it will adorn the Floral department of the annual exhibtion Here will the sturdy farmer exhibit his stock and while it is beheld and admired will his heart glow with pride as enconium after enconium is bestowed upon his care, his thrift and his possession. All will be one grand, one gay, one fes-tive scene, made up from the energy and wealth of the sons of toil and beautified by the hand of art. Fostered and encouraged by the hand of commerce and adorned and made lovely by the bright eyes, smiling faces and fair presence of lovely woman. Let no croaker endeavor to throw a damper upon the coming Fair. But, as friends, let all come forward and act their parts well and the Fair must be a success.
