THE EXPERIMENT.—The barge Experiment, now in course of construction by Messrs. Lemmerman & Coney, will be completed about Tuesday, and a grand free excursion for the benefit of their friends and acquaintances will be given on Wednesday or Thursday. The barge is a beautiful thing, and provided with ample conveniences, and no doubt the Experiment will prove a success. Should it do so, the Captain informs us that he shall construct a Orest Cemetery during the past week: larger and more beautiful one, for the benefit of excursionists next season.

Editor Post: The campaign is about to open. The Democrats have met. conceived and brought forth. A Salary Grabber for Congress. A Ku-Klux Chief for Judge. A legislative geremander and constitutional patcher for Solicitor. The way is open—all things are now ready. This Judicial District wants and must have a pure, impartial, just, uncontaminated and upright man for Judge. A substantial but not over money loving man for Congress-and a Soliditor of quick perceptions and ready business habits. This county will, say give us Russel, our boy Judge, who went upon the Bench a beardless youth, and at once came in contact with the very best legal talent of the State. The boy's mind at once touched the chaotic masss, moulded it, and brought unity and strength out of confusion. Born a man, only waiting a few years to be developed a pilot, was mortally wounded.

To-day Daniel L. Russel stands forth, without superiors, if an equal in he District or State.

Such men must be appreciated, and Daniel L. Russel must be elected Judge of the Fourth Judicial District Columbus county will roll up a majority for Russel that will astonish the

The Democratic papers have been boasting of the fact that they carried many towns in the State in the late municipal elections. Salisbury was hailed as having gone Democratic, among others. The facts in the case are briefly these: There was a Temperance ticket, consisting solely of Democrats, for Mayor and Commissioners. This ticket was supported as follows:

FOR MAYOR. J. J. Stewart,

FOR COMMISSIONERS. W. A. Davis, E. Marsh, R. R. Crawford, 44. G. A. Bingham H. N. Woodson, Andrew Murphy,

The other ticket which was supported by the Republicans, and elected, FOR MAYOR. Dr. Keen,

TENNESSEE.

NASHVILLE, May 9. Ten thousand persons, two-thirds of them colored, witnessed the hanging of Bill Kelly. A passing train frightened a horse, which stampeded 2,000 people.

Several were hurt. MEMPEIS, May 9. At five minutes past 9 o'clock this morning the Little Rock wires went down, and it is now impossible to communicate with that city, either directly or indirectly, or by way of St. Louis or Orleans. At last accounts fighting was going on, and the supposition is that the lines have all been cut, or the telegraph office seized.

Capt. Sam Houston, who was killed esterday above Little Rock, was formerly Supervising Inspector of Steamboats at this port.

NEW YORK.

NEW YORK, May 2. The Pennsylvania met the Ethiopia, with a broken shaft, and took off her passengers. The Ethiopia proceeded under sail.

A letter from Havana, dated April 59th, says: Frederick Dockray was taken from Nuevitas on the 24th, of April, and taken to prison in Puerto Principe, no doubt for security's sake, as the Cubans have been so near Nuevitas as to render the capture of the place not difficult. Nothing new has, up to the present time, been made known regarding his case.
