NOTICE.

IN the year 1816, I sold a negro boy named TITUS, then about twelve years old, to Joseph Smith, who as the boy states, sold him to John Miller, in the state of Georgia, who he says resides in the county of Morgan. He returned to this place about three months past, during which time I have been endeavoring to ascertain where his master resides, but without effect. The owner is requested to give the subscriber the necessary information, who will render any assistance in his power to have the boy delivered to him.

FRANKLIN HAT MANUFACTORY,

No. 122½

Market Street, Philadelphia.

THE subscribers having brought to perfection their newly discovered economical HATS, which they can afford at three dollars and fifty cents, now offer them to the public to test their improvement.

Being conscious that they have arrived to that degree in the art of Hat Manufacturing which is the true Franklin Economical style, are willing to hazard their future prosperity, by the sample now offered to the public.

One trial of the $3 50 Hats will doubtless establish the fact in the minds of the citizens of Philadelphia, that they stand unrivalled for cheapness, durability, and beauty, and are justly entitled to the favorable appellation of Franklin, to whose genius and invention we owe so much.

They also offer to the public, their Super-fine Water Proof Beavers, of the best quality, and newest fashion, and not subject to fade and become foxy, as Water Proofs generally are.

Also, a general assortment of Drab Beavers, Castors, Borams, youths' and children's Hats, children's fancy Hats and Jockies, ladies' Beavers, trimmed or untrimmed.

Hatters supplied with finished or unfinished Hats.

Bespoke hats made agreeable to directions and at the shortest notice.

Hats of every description, manufactured and sold, wholesale and retail, on the most reasonable terms.

All orders thankfully received, and attended to with dispatch.

CAUTION: No hats are the genuine patent Franklin hats but those manufactured and sold by us and our agents, and have our stamp in them. Those who wish to purchase, cannot be too particular.

Sept. 11. 32-1f

State of North-Carolina, ORANGE COUNTY.

Superior Court of Law and Equity, September Term, 1820.

James Webb and Frederick Nash, executors of James Whitted, deceased, vs. Joseph Dickey and Chesley F. Faucett, surviving partners of said James Whitted, deceased.

In Equity.

IT is ordered by the court that this cause be referred to Thomas Clancy, esq. to take and state an account of all the dealings and transactions of the firm of Joseph Dickey and Co., of the stock in trade, dealings and transactions, of each of the said copartners, for, of, or concerning the said firm, of the profits or loss gained or sustained by the said firm, and of the losses therein by the fraud, covin, laches, or neglect of said defendant Joseph Dickey; with liberty to examine all the books, entries and accounts, papers and vouchers of the said firm, and also the said parties respectively and their witnesses on oath, and to make report to the next term of this court. And for as much as it appears to the court that the said defendant Joseph Dickey does not now live within the limits of this state, but hath removed thereout and resides in distant parts: It is ordered by the court, that the said commissioner Clancy may proceed to take and state said accounts, and make reports, without personal service of the warrant, or notice of reference on said Joseph, and after giving notice of the time or times of taking and stating said accounts, by way of public advertisement in the newspaper called the Hillsborough Recorder for and during the term of sixty days, which advertisement shall be deemed, taken and held to be as valid as personal service of notice, to all intents and purposes. And it is also ordered and decreed, that said commissioner Clancy shall, in his said report, state such special matter as the parties may require him to state.

A copy from the minutes.

Test,

James Webb, c. & M. E.

PURSUANT to the foregoing order, I do hereby appoint the 18th day of January next, at my office in the town of Hillsborough, to take into consideration the several matters and things thereby to me referred; at which time and place the said Joseph Dickey, and all others concerned, are hereby notified and required to appear and produce before me, on oath, all books, papers, vouchers, accounts, and evidences whatever in his or their custody or power, relative to the matters in question in the above cause, at which time and place I shall proceed to state the said accounts and report thereon.

Test,

Thomas Clancy,

Commissioner appointed by the Court of Equity.

CONGRESS.

HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES.

Wednesday, November 15.

The house proceeded to ballot the twenty-second time. The whole number of votes was 148-75 necessary to a choice. The votes were,

For Mr. Taylor	76
For Mr. Lowndes	44
For Mr. Smith	27
Scattering	1

So John W. Taylor, Esq. a representative from the state of New York, was elected speaker.

The new members having been sworn in—

A message was received from the senate, informing the house that a quorum thereof was formed, and that they were ready to proceed to business.

On motion of Mr. Nelson, a similar message was returned to the senate.

On motion of Mr. Nelson, also, a committee was appointed, jointly with such committee as should be appointed by the senate, to wait upon the president of the United States, and inform him of the organization of the two houses, and of their readiness to receive any communication he may have to make to them.

The resolutions of the senate for appointing a joint committee of enrolled bills, and for the appointment of chaplain for each house, were agreed to; and, on motion of Mr. Slocumb, to-morrow at 12 o'clock was assigned as the hour for proceeding to appoint a chaplain on the part of this house.

On motion of Mr. Smith, of N. C. the daily hour of meeting, until otherwise directed, was fixed at 12 o'clock.

The committee appointed to wait on the president of the United States reported, that they had performed that service, and received for answer, that a message would be transmitted by the president immediately.

Accordingly, about 3 o'clock, the message was received and read, and The house adjourned.

Thursday, November 16.

Mr. Scott, delegate from Missouri, presented the constitution formed by the people of that territory, for their government as a state; and, on his motion, the same was ordered to be referred to a select committee.

In committee of the whole, the several sections of the message of the president of the United States, were referred to different committees.

Mr. Bloomfield offered for consideration the following resolution:

Resolved, That, in all cases where petitions were presented at the last session to this house, and referred to committees, but not finally acted upon, both by the committees and the house, the said petitions shall be considered as again presented and referred to the same committees respectively, without special order to that effect. An it shall be the duty of the said committees respectively, upon application in behalf of any petitioner, whose petition was presented and referred, as aforesaid, to consider and report thereon, in the same manner, as if it were referred to such committee by special order of the house.

And, on motion of Mr. Williams, of N. C. it was ordered to lie on the table until to-morrow.

On motion of Mr. Crowell, it was

Resolved, That the committee on public lands be instructed to inquire into the expediency of providing by law some relief to the purchasers of public lands in the United States, previous to the 1st July, 1820.

At the hour of one, the house proceeded to ballot for a chaplain on the part of this house,

The following exhibits the result of three successive ballots:

	1st.	2d.	3d.
Rev. Mr. Allison	52	50	55
Rev. Mr. Campbell	34	52	81
Rev. Mr. Sparks	29	20	3
Rev. Mr. Post	19	10	3

So the Rev. Mr. Campbell was chosen on the third trial. And The house adjourned.

Friday, November 17.

The following members attended yesterday, viz. Messrs. Burton, Folger, Reid, and Crawford.

After the presentation of petitions—Mr. Gross, of N. Y. offered for consideration the following resolve:

Resolved, That the committee of ways and means be instructed to prepare and report to this house, as soon as may be, a list of all the expenditures, under their proper heads, authorised by the existing laws of the United States, with an opinion respecting the reduction, which, consistently with the public interest, may be made in each of them respectively.

Mr. G. said the motion related to a subject which ought, in his opinion, to receive the early and earnest consideration of the house; but, not wishing to take the house by surprise, he should move for it to lie on the table for the present.

It was ordered to lie on the table accordingly.

Mr. Foot offered the following proposition, which lies on the table one day of course:

Resolved, That the following addition be made to the standing rules and orders of the house, viz: A committee of three members shall be appointed, whose duty it shall be to examine all bills, amendments, resolutions, or motions, before they go out of possession of the house, and to make report that they are correctly engrossed, which report shall be entered on the journal.

And the house adjourned to Monday.

Monday, November 20.

The following members, in addition to those already noticed, attended this day: Messrs. Parker, Floyd, Bryan, and Allen.

Mr. Solomon Sibley, elected a delegate from Michigan, vice Mr. Woodbridge, resigned, appeared, was qualified, and took his seat.

Mr. Eddy, of Rhode Island, offered for consideration the following resolution:

Resolved, That the act entitled "an act allowing compensation to the members of the senate, members of the house of representatives of the United States, and to the delegates of the territories, and repealing all other laws on the subject," passed the first session of the fifteenth congress, ought to be so altered and amended that the compensation to the members and delegates aforesaid shall hereafter be six dollars for each day's attendance, and six dollars for every twenty miles' travel, instead of the compensation now allowed by said act, and that it be referred to a committee to prepare and report a bill for altering and amending said act accordingly.

And the question being put, without debate, will the house now proceed to the consideration of this resolution? it was decided thus:

For consideration,	58
Against it,	61

So the house refused to proceed to the consideration of the resolution at this time.

The resolution moved on Friday last by Mr. Bloomfield, for altering the rules of the house with regard to petitions, was considered and agreed to; and that offered by Mr. Foot was disagreed to.

Mr. Cocke, of Tennessee, submitted for consideration the following resolution:

Resolved, That the committee on the military establishment be instructed to inquire into the expediency of reducing the military peace establishment of the United States.

And the resolution was agreed to, without debate or division.

Mr. Smith, of North Carolina, submitted for consideration a joint resolution. In doing so, he expressed his earnest hope that, as a similar resolution had passed the senate at the last session, but not been acted upon in this house for want of time, it would have an early consideration at this session, and receive that approbation from the house which he thought it merited. The following is a copy of the resolve moved by Mr. Smith:

Resolved, by the senate and house of representatives of the United States of America, in congress assembled, That the following amendment to the constitution of the United States be proposed to the Legislatures of the several states, which, when ratified by the legislatures of three-fourths of the states, shall be valid, to all intents and purposes, as part of the said constitution:

"That, for the purpose of choosing representatives in the congress of the U. States, each state shall, by its legislature, be divided into a number of districts, equal to the number of representatives to which such state may be entitled; the districts shall be formed of contiguous territory, and contain, as nearly as may be, an equal number of persons entitled by the constitution to be represented, or of persons qualified to vote for members of the most numerous branch of the state legislature. In each district the persons qualified to vote shall choose one representative. That, for the purpose of choosing electors of president and vice-president of the United States, the persons qualified to vote for representatives in each district, shall choose one elector. The two additional electors, to which each state is entitled, shall be appointed in such manner as the legislature thereof may direct. The electors when convened at the time and place prescribed by law, for the purpose of voting for president and vice-president of the United States, shall have power, in case any of them shall fail to attend, to choose an elector or electors in place of him or them so failing to attend. The division of states into districts, as hereby provided for, shall take place immediately after this amendment.
