FRANKLIN HAT MANUFACTORY.

No. 123 1/2

Market Street, Philadelphia.

THE subscribers having brought to perfection their newly discovered economical HATS, which they can afford at three dollars and fifty cents, now offer them to the public to test their improvement.

Being conscious that they have arrived to that degree in the art of Hat Manuf.uring which is the true Franklin Economic style, are willing to hazard their future prosperity by the sample now offered to the public.

One trial of the $3 50 Hats will doubtless establish the fact in the minds of the citizens of Philadelphia, that they stand unrivalled for cheapness, durability, and beauty, and are justly entitled to the favorable appellation of Franklin, to whose genius and invention we owe so much.

They also offer to the public, their Super-fine Water Proof Beavers, of the best quality, and newest fashion, and not subject to fade and become laxy, as Water Proofs generally are.

Also, a general assortment of Drab Beavers, Castors, Romans, youths' and children's Hats, children's fancy Hats and Jockies, ladies' Beavers, trimmed or untrimmed.

Hatters supplied with finished or unfinished Hats.

Bespoke hats made agreeable to directions and at the shortest notice.

Hats of every description, manufactured and sold, wholesale and retail, on the most reasonable terms.

All orders thankfully received, and attended with dispatch.

CAUTION. No hats are the genuine patent Franklin hats but those manufactured and sold by us and our agents, and have our stamp in them. Those who wish to purchase, cannot be too particular.

Sept. 11. 52-tf

State of North-Carolina, ORANGE COUNTY.

Superior Court of Law and Equity, September Term, 1820.

James Webb and Frederick Nash, executors of James Whitted, deceased, vs. Joseph Dickey and Chesley F. Fancett, surviving partners of said James Whitted, deceased. In Equity.

IT is ordered by the court that this cause be referred to Thomas Clancy, esq. to take and state an account of all the dealings and transactions of the firm of Joseph Dickey and Co., of the stock in trade, dealings and transactions, of each of the said copartners, for, of, or concerning the said firm, of the profits or loss gained or sustained by the said firm, and of the losses therein by the fraud, covin, laches, or neglect of said defendant Joseph Dickey; with liberty to examine all the books, entries and accounts, papers and vouchers of the said firm, and also the said parties respectively and their witnesses on oath, and to make report to the next term of this court. And for as much as it appears to the court that the said defendant Joseph Dickey does not now live within the limits of this state, but hath removed thereout and resides in distant parts: It is ordered by the court, that the said commissioner Clancy may proceed to take and state said accounts, and make reports, without personal service of the warrant, or notice of reference on said Joseph, and after giving notice of the time or times of taking and stating said accounts, by way of public advertisement in the newspaper called the Hillsborough Recorder for and during the term of sixty days, which advertisement shall be deemed, taken and held to be as valid as personal service of notice, to all intents and purposes. And it is also ordered and decreed, that said commissioner Clancy shall, in his said report, state such special matter as the parties may require him to state.

A copy from the minutes.

Test,
James Webb, C. & M. E.

PURSUANT to the foregoing order, I do hereby appoint the 18th day of January next, at my office in the town of Hillsborough, to take into consideration the several matters and things therein by me referred; at which time and place the said Joseph Dickey, and all others concerned, are hereby notified and required to appear and produce before me, on oath, all books, papers, vouchers, accounts, and evidences whatever in his or their custody or power, relative to the matters in question in the above cause, at which time and place I shall proceed to state the said accounts and report thereon.

Test,
Thomas Clancy,

Commissioner appointed by the Court of Equity.

CONTINUATION OF Foreign Intelligence.

London, Nov. 16.

It is said, there will be more than one protest by the peers against the abandonment of the proceedings on the charges brought against her majesty. The following was entered on Saturday at the Parliament Office, and left for signature. It was already signed by lord S. Effield and the duke of Northumberland:—

Moved, That the fourth consideration of the bill be adjourned to the day six months. Which being objected to, the question was put thereupon.

It was resolved in the affirmative.

Dissentient,

“Because no sufficient ground appears for the abandonment of the bill founded on the charges against her majesty the queen, which had undergone the most solemn and accurate investigation; charges in which the morality of the country was deeply interested, and on which all the peers, spiritual and temporal, who delivered their opinions, with very few exceptions, declared their conviction of her guilt; and the abandonment of which is a dereliction which may bring into disrespect not only the character of our highest court of judicature, but that of the nation itself. And it is with the greatest concern we observe the extreme want of consideration for the sovereign, by the dereliction of proceedings so necessarily brought on, by which a wife declared by the house of peers to have been guilty of adulterous intercourse with a menial servant, and of a conduct the most depraved, is to remain his Queen Consort, thus lowering the dignity of the crown and embarrassing the country with far greater difficulties than those which seem to have induced his majesty's government to relinquish the prosecution of the bill.”

Protests may be signed by the peers until the rising of the house on the day to which it is adjourned, viz. the 25th instant.

The hon. Keppel Craven, one of the queen's vice chamberlains, has by order of her majesty, written a letter to the earl of Liverpool, demanding a suitable residence and establishment for her majesty. The letter states, “that he had her majesty's commands to require from his majesty's government, that, without any further delay, a palace and establishment should be provided, suitable to her majesty's rank in the country in which she is now to reside; that this had been much too long deferred, with a view either to the station of her majesty or the honor of the crown; nevertheless, that in the circumstances of the time, her majesty was willing to overlook such delay; but that it might be evident that no further time ought to elapse without finally arranging this matter.”

The queen intends going to Hammersmith church on Sunday next, to receive the sacrament; and on the Sunday following to St. Paul's, publicly to return thanks to Almighty God, for her deliverance from the foul and wicked conspiracy directed against her honor and her life. A communication has been made to the lord mayor of her majesty's intention, and we have no doubt but that his lordship will attend in state, with a considerable number of the corporation in their robes, to meet her majesty at Temple bar. Her majesty has fixed Friday, the 24th, for receiving a considerable number of addresses of congratulations already voted. Her majesty has invited many distinguished noblemen and their ladies to dinner on Monday next. Her majesty has received, in answer to her letter to lord Liverpool, demanding a suitable palace and establishment, that his lordship has communicated her demands to his majesty, but has, as yet, received no answer. Lord Liverpool pleads his absence from town as an excuse for his delay in answering her majesty's letter.

A guard-room for an officer and 50 men has been erected round the king's cottage at Wind-or.

It is rumoured in the fashionable circles that the queen has declared her intention of commencing an action for slander against several members of the royal family.

It is generally understood that Mr. Canning condemned the proceedings against the queen, and refused his co-operation in that odious measure. It is also said that he offered to resign his office, but that his colleagues requested him to retain it, and that he kindly yielded to their solicitation. Globe.

The rumor still continues of the desire expressed by the earls of Liverpool and Harrowby to retire from the cabinet. The noble lord at the head of the treasury is said to have declared, that he could not concur in any general declaration against the queen, of the nature suggested by lord Ellenborough; and if his colleagues entertain any such purpose, he will certainly resign—although every means have been resorted to in the highest quarters to induce him to change his resolution.

A court of common council is summoned for Tuesday next, “to consider the propriety of presenting an address to her most gracious majesty, queen Caroline, upon the victory she has obtained over a foul and atrocious conspiracy, seeking no less her majesty's destruction, than aiming a blow at the known laws of the land, and the dearest rights of Englishmen.”

In the case of the king vs. sir Francis Burdett, in the court of king's bench, the further arguments were resumed this morning.

Parliament will meet again the 23d, but it will meet, we believe, only for the purpose of being prorogued.—It is likely to assemble again, for the dispatch of business, about the middle or latter end of January. Courier.

London, Nov. 17.

The future destiny of the queen is presumed to engross at present the attention of ministers. The insertion of her majesty's name in the liturgy, is the first difficulty which they have to surmount.

The French papers announce, with some confidence, that great events are expected in Italy; and add, that the advanced guard of the Austrian army is concentrating at Terrona.

Apprehensions are entertained, that the spirit of revolution is making a rapid progress in Switzerland. All its machinery is represented as in full motion at Zurich, Basle, and other principal cities of that country. The secret societies in the Tyrol are said to be intimately connected with those in Switzerland. All their correspondence is carried on by verbal communications, made by travelling agents.

An article from Frankfort states, that a treaty has been concluded, by the British government, with the Porte, which has offended the emperor of Russia, and may even influence the negotiation of Troppau. It also mentions a report that the emperor Alexander had withdrawn the contract for clothing his army, from England, and conferred it on a company of Prussian manufacturers.

London, Nov. 18.

The Kentish Chronicle says, “We hear that count Bergami passed through Ashford on the 8th inst. on his route to London. It is said that he embarked at Boulogne late on Tuesday night, in a fishing boat, and landed on the coast of this county.”

It is said, that more business has been done in London since Friday week, than for five months preceding. The apprehension excited in the public mind by the proceedings against the queen, had caused nearly a total suspension of commercial speculation.

The American ship Bengal, at Cowes, 95 days from the Straits of Sunda, reports that a British sloop of war had been attacked in those Straits, by a fleet of Malay prows, and lost 49 men killed and wounded in beating them off.

The British squadron under Admiral Moore is to remain in Naples Bay until the decision of the allied sovereigns, to be declared in congress at Troppau, as to the future political situation of Naples, is made known.

THE DISCOVERY SHIPS.

Few particulars of their highly interesting voyage have yet transpired, the officers and crew of the Hecla confining themselves to casual observations, until their commander shall have laid his journal before the lords of the admiralty. We understand, however, that lieutenant Parry entered by Lancaster Sound, proceeded over capt. Ross's special chart of land, and reached, in the parallel of 74 or 75, 114 or 115 west, about 550 miles farther than capt. Ross asserted the polar sea to be navigable. In 90, the ships fell in with islands, which continued successively till they reached the extreme westerly point of one in 115, where winter overtook them. They wintered in a snug bay in Lancaster sound, and did not get clear of the ice till the 5th Aug. this year. From October till February, or for about 100 days, they were in darkness; but with abundance of wholesome provisions and other requisite comforts, they passed the time very agreeably. The crew were amused with games of every kind, and occasionally they acted plays for mutual entertainment. On the breaking up of the ice this season, attempts were made to proceed westerly, but immense barriers of ice from the polar sea, to the northward shut up all hope of succeeding in the parallel of 74; and before they could return to the eastward and renew the attempt in a lower latitude, the navigable season, which is confined to August and a few days in September, offered
