STOP A MURDERER!!

ABOUT the 7th of August the body of a man was found floating in Pasquotank county, sewed up in a blanket, near Joshua Sawyer's landing, having a stab in the throat, and the neck bone broken. From the circumstances detailed to the jury of inquest on the body, it appears that the deceased was murdered by a man by the name of JOSEPH YELLOUWLY, while on his way down the river in a canal boat commanded by said Yellouly. Pursuit was thereupon immediately ordered for the arrest of the murderer, but without effect, he having fled. This therefore is to notify all well disposed citizens, to unite in their endeavors to apprehend the said murderer in order that he may be brought to justice for his atrocious offence.
Joseph Yellouly is 5 feet 7 or 8 inches high, supposed to be between 40 and 50 years of age, of small stature, swarthy complexion, light hair. Has lost one of his hands (believed to be the left) which is supplied from a little above the wrist, by a straight piece of steel ending with a spring. His usual place of residence is in the neighborhood of Plymouth, N. C.

Editors of papers, generally, will serve the cause of justice, by giving publicity to this notice.
