D. HEARTT

Proposes publishing, in Hillsborough, N. C. a religious paper, to be entitled

NORTH CAROLINA

Evangelical Intelligencer.

In which will be given the most important information relative to the spread of the gospel, and the consequent melioration of the condition of the human family. With such other intelligence as may be interesting to the Christian reader, occasionally colored with religious and moral essays, and lighter articles tending to promote Christian charity and heavenly-mindedness.

PROSPECTUS.

TO a contemplative mind it is pleasing to look abroad over the various portions of the globe, and observe the improvements which are daily taking place in the condition of mankind. We perceive the dark clouds of ignorance, error, of superstition and idolatry, gradually wasting away, and the horizon gladdened with a brightness indicating the approach of a morning glorious to humanity and rich with blessings to the children of men. These heart-cheering prospects are the natural result of extended information, but more particularly the blessed effects of an expanding knowledge of the divine precepts of the evangelical religion. A general thirst for knowledge seems to be awakened, and the efforts making by missionary, bible, and other societies, to diffuse the religion of the gospel, and to excite a more attentive observance of our evangelical, moral and religious duties, are attended with a success cheering to the heart of the philanthropist.

In order such circumstances that we present to the friends of christianity in this and the neighboring states, proposals for publishing in this office a weekly paper, calculated to aid the cause in which so many are engaged, and are induced to hope that such an able sheet would not be among the least valuable means of promoting religious information.
By the multiplication of political papers the minds of the people of this favored country have been enlightened in the science of government above all the nations of the earth.
Through the same means it is not reasonable to expect that moral darkness may be dispersed, the love of religion be excited, and a warmth be infused into the hearts of evangelical christians which would urge them to all greater exertions. For this we are pleased to entertain the general advancement of christian knowledge, and the melioration of the condition of mankind, and we feel pleasurably when we see a crowd of preachers how many are so diversified in talents, the various of vice and immorality, through having of a christian land, there are some, alas many, who never enter a church, who never open a bible, who never reflect on the cause of their existence. May not the diffusion of religious intelligence tend to remove this his lessness. May it not excite to inquiry. May it not lead to conversion and holiness. The continual droppings of water wears the hardest stones, and not weekly admonitions and repeated examples melt hearts of stone. Surely there is room to hope that the contemplated work, if properly encouraged, may contribute in some small degree, towards hastening that glorious period, when "the mountain of the Lord's house shall be established on the top of the mountains, and shall be exalted above the hills; and all nations shall flow unto it."

In presenting this paper to the public, it is unnecessary further to explain the nature of the proposed publication. In its conduct, all possible care will be taken to select such matter as may be most interesting and instructive, and the promised assistance of several eminent divines, it is expected, will add usefulness and respectability to the work.

CONDITIONS.

The Evangelical Intelligencer will be published once a week, and contain eight pages, neatly printed on good paper.
The price will be three dollars a year, if paid in advance; otherwise four dollars will be demanded.
No subscribers receive for less than one year, and no discontinuance will be discontinued until all arrears are paid, unless at the option of the publisher. A failure to give notice, by the end of the year or a wish to discontinue, will be considered as a new engagement.
In persons procuring eight subscribers, and guaranteeing the amount of the subscriptions, the paper will be sent gratis.
The publication will commence the first Monday in January next, if sufficient encouragement be obtained.
Proposals favorably disposed, particularly of the press and the adjoining states, are invited to give the above two or three inquiries.
