D. HEARTT

Proposes publishing, in Hillsborough, N. C. a religious paper, to be entitled

NORTH CAROLINA

Evangelical Intelligencer.

In which will be given the most important information relative to the spread of the gospel, and the consequent melioration of the condition of the human family, with such other intelligence as may be interesting to the christian reader, occasionally enlivened with religious and moral essays, and lighter articles tending to promote christian charity and heavenly-mindedness.

PROSPECTUS.

TO a contemplative mind it is pleasing to look abroad over the various portions of the globe, and observe the improvements which are daily taking place in the condition of mankind. We perceive the dark clouds of ignorance and error, of superstition and fanaticism, gradually wasting away, and the horizon gilded with a bright sunshine indicating the approach of a morning glorious to humanity and rich with blessings to the children of men. These heart-cheering prospects are the natural result of extended information, but more particularly the blessed effects of an expanding knowledge of the divine precepts of the christian religion. A general thirst for knowledge seems to be awakened, and the efforts now making by missionary, bible, and other societies, to diffuse the religion of the gospel, and to propagate a more attentive observance of our moral and religious duties, are attended with success, as cheering to the heart of the philanthropist.

It is under such circumstances that we present to the friends of christianity in this and the neighboring states, a proposed publication, in the shape of a weekly paper, calculated to lead to cause in which so many are engaged and are induced to hope that such an establishment would not be among the least effectual means of recording religious information. By the participation of political papers the minds of the people of this favored country have been enlightened in the science of government, and the nations of the earth through the same means are not unreasonable to expect the moral darkness may be dispelled, the love of religion be kindled, and a warmth be infused into the hearts of believing christians which would urge them to still greater exertions. For though we are pleased in contemplating the general advancement of christian civilization, and the meliorated condition of mankind, yet we find much to lament when we look around us and perceive how many are still enveloped in slothful ignorance, the vicious love and immorality. Though living in a christian land, there are some who never enter a church, who never open a bible, who never reflect on the cause or the purpose of their existence. May not the most of religious intelligence and piety be rendered fruitless? May it not render us comparatively ignorant? May it not lead to conversion and regeneration? The continual dripping of water wears the hardest stones; may not our kingly admonitions and repeated examples melt hearts of stone? Surely there is reason to hope that the contemplated work, if properly encouraged, may contribute in some small degree, towards hastening that glorious period, when "the mountain of the Lord's house shall be established in the top of the mountains, and shall be exalted above the hills, and all nations shall flow unto it."

In presenting this prospectus to the public, it becomes necessary further to explain the nature of the proposed publication. In its conduct, all possible care will be taken to select such matter as may be most interesting and instructive; and the promised assistance of several eminent divines, it is expected, will add usefulness and respectability to the work.

CONDITIONS.

The Evangelical Intelligencer will be published once a week, and contain eight quarto pages, neatly printed on good paper.

The price will be three dollars a year, if paid in advance, otherwise four dollars will be demanded.

No subscriptions received for less than one year, and no subscription will be discontinued until all arrears are paid, unless at the option of the publisher. A failure to give notice before the end of the year of a wish to discontinue, will be considered as a new engagement.

To persons procuring eight subscribers, and remitting the amount of the subscription, the paper will be sent gratis.

The publication will commence the first Saturday in January next, if sufficient encouragement be obtained.

Printed and favourably disposed, particularly at this and the adjoining states, are requested to give the above two or three insertions.

Strayed or Stolen.

FROM the Camp Meeting at Hawfields Meeting house, on Saturday night the 14th inst., a Sorrel Mare, mane and tail of a light colour, about five feet two inches high, five years old last spring; a white spot in her forehead about the size of a dollar; had on a padded saddle bridge and martingale, a saddle with plated stirrup leathers, behind which was a light drab coloured great coat with a large cap lined with green baze. A store was broken open about 10 miles from the meeting house on Saturday evening, and a person by the name of John Moore is missing, and is supposed to have taken the mare. He is about five feet ten or eleven inches high, of rather a dark complexion; has a large head of hair, very black; large whiskers; and a ring worn all round his face, black eyes. Had on when he left here very ragged clothing, and took with him a pair of brown pants of a gray colour, large legs, and two coats, one a mixt cloth, tolerably well worn, and the other a blue bombazine long tailed coat, well worn. No other clothing recollected. A liberal reward will be given to any person who will deliver the said mare to the subscriber, or give information so that she may be obtained.
