The returns from agents at a distance were not complete as to the number of sold tickets. From the best estimate which the returns made would admit of, it was though, that although a drawing on that day weuld be sale according to all probable calculations, yet a loss might be sustained; and they feet mwilling to proceed to draw, so long as there could be the least possible risk.

By delaying the drawing until a few hun-dred more of the tickets could be sold, there would then be no risk whateve; and the managers would be able not only to pay to the fortunate adventurers the prizes they draw, but in addition thereto fully to succeed in raising a sum of money adequate to the building a commodious house for the use of the Lodge.

The managers have determined to draw on TUESDAY the FOULTH OF JUNE next; but should the drawing, however, not then take place, the managers pledge themselves to return the money on demand to every person who may be di-satisfied.

D. HEARTT

Proposes publishing, in Hillshorough, N. C. a religious paper, to be entitled THE

NORTH CAROLINA Evangelical Intelligencer,

In which will be given the most important information relative to the spread of the gospel, and the consequent mel oration of the condition of the human tannly, with such other intelligence as may be interesting to the christian reader; ccasionally enlivened with religious and moral essays, and lighter articles tending to promote christian charity and heavenly-mindedness.

PROSPECTUS.

TO a contemplative mind it is pleasing to look abroad over the various portions of the globe, and observe the improvements which are daily taking place in the condition of mankind. We perceive the dark clouds of ignorance and error, of superstition and fanaticism, gradually wasting away, and the horizon gil-ded with a brightness indicating the approach of a morning glorious to humanity and rich with blessings to the children of men. These heart-cheering prospects are the natural results of extended information, but more particularly the blessed effects of an expanding knowledge of the divine precepts of the christian religion. A general thrist for knowledge seems to be awakened, and the efforts now making by missionary, bible, and other societies, to diffuse the religion of the gospel, and to inculcate a more attentive observance of our civil, morai, and religious duties, are attended with a success cheering to the heart of the

It is under such circumstances that we present to the friends of christianity in this and the neighboring states, proposals for publishing in this place a weekly paper, calculated to aid the cause in which so many are engaged; and are induced to hope that such an establishment would not be among the least efficient means of promoting religious information. By the multiplication of political papers the minds of the people of this tavoured courtry have been enlightened in the science of government above a l the nations of the earth. Turough the same means is it not reasonable to expect that moral darkness may be dissipated, the love of religion be inculcated, and a warmth be infused into the hearts of believing christians which would urge them to still greater exertions? For though we are pleased in contemplating the general advancement of christian knowledge, and the meliorated condition of mankind; yet we find much to lament when we look around us and perceive how many are still enveloped in slothful ignorance, the victims of vice and imporably. Though living in a christian land there are some, alas many, who never enter a church, who never open a bible, who never reflect on the cause or the purpose of their existence. May not the diffusion of religious intelligence tend to remove this listlessness? May it not excite to inquiry! May it not lead to conviction? to reformation? The continual droppings of water wears the hadest stones; may not weekly admonit ons and repeated examples melt hearts of stone! Surely there is room to hope that the contemplated work, if properly encouraged, may contribute in some small degree, towards hastening that glorious period, when "the mountain of the Lord's house shall be established in the top of the mountains, and shall be exalted above the hills, and all nations shall flow unto it "

In presenting this prospectus to the public. it is unnecessary farther to explain the nature of the proposed publication. In its conduct, all possible care will be taken to select such matter as may be most in cresting and instructive, and the promised assistance of several emment divines, it is expected, will add usefulness and respectability to the work.

CONDITIONS.

The Evangelical Intelligencer will be published once a reck, and contain eight quarto pages, neatly printed on good paper. The orice will be three dollars a year, if be demanded. No subscriptions received for less than one year; and no subscr ption will be discontinued paid in advance; otherwise four dollars will until all arrears are paid unless at the option of the publisher. A failure to give notice before the end of the year of a wish to discontinue, will be considered as a new engagement. To persons procuring eight subscribers, and remitting the amount of the subscriptions.

the paper will be sent gratis. The publication will commence as soon as sufficient encouragement is obtained to defray the expense.

TP Persons holding subscriptions are request ed to forward to this office the names of the subscribers they may have obtained-retaining the proposals till facther notice.

HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES.

Tuesday, April 23.

A bill from the senate to authorize the selection of a suitable site for the location of a national armory on the western waters, was read twice and committed to the committee on military affairs.

An engrossed bill relating to treasury notes, was read a third a time, and passed, and sent to the senate.

The engressed bill to repeal the act to encourage vaccination, was also read a third time.

Mr. Condict moved to lay the bill on the table; which motion was negatived -ayes 31, noes 64.

The question then recurred upon the passage of the bill, which Mr. Taylor required to be taken by year and mays, which were thereupon ordered.

The passage of the bill was supported by Messrs. Burton, Edwards, of N. C. Whipple, Eustis, and Wood, and opposed by Messrs. Taylor, of N. Y. Condict, Wright, and Todd.

The question was then taken on postponing the bill to the next session, and decided in the negative.

The question was then taken on the passage of the bill, and was decided in the affirmative-Year 102, Nays 57.

So the bill was passed, and sent to the senate for concurrence.

A message was received from the senate, returning to this house the bill making appropriations for the support of government for the year 1822, with sundry amendments, which, on motion of Mr. Smith of Md. was committed to a committee of the whole on the state of the union.

Mr. Trimble made an attempt to get the bill for erecting toll-gates on the Cumberland road referred to the same committee, but failed.

The house then went into a committec of the whole on the state of the union, (Mr. Taylor in the chair,) on the aforesaid amendments. Part of the amendments of the senate

w. re concurred in, and part rejected, when the committee rose and reported their proceedings. In the House the respective amend. ments agreed to in committee of the whole were agreed to, and the disagreements to the amendments of the senate.

which the committee of the whole had reported, were also confirmed. The house then resolved itself into a committee of the whole on the state of the union, (Mr. Condict in the chair,) on the bill making further appropriations for the military service of the U.

States for the year 1822. The question recurred upon the amendment of Mr. Ross to the amerdment of Mr. Cocke, limiting allowances to the governors of territories for extra services as superintendants of Indian affairs, to luture operation, without reference to the past. The amendment was opposed by Mr. Lincoln and Mr. Vance, and supported Mr. Gilmer and Mr. Floyd when, on motion of Mr. Baldwin, the commit es rose, reported progress, and obtainedleave to sit again; and tee of ways and means, reported a bill to provide for at mairies to the Ottawas, Pettawatamies, Kickapoos, Cooctaws, Ka kaskias, to Mushalatubbe, and to carry into effect the treaties of Sagana; which was twice read and committed. Mr. Newton, from the committee on commerce, to whom was referred & bill from the senate, to authorize the building of light houses therein mentioned and for other purposes, reported the same with sunder amendments, which with the amendments, were dommitted to a committee of the whole. Mr. Hardin, from the select committher reported a bill to reduce the annual compensation of certain officers of government, which was twice read and con mitted. Mr. Hardin then moved, according to notice, to discharge the committee of the whole from the faither consideration of the three bills reported by the committee on retrenchment, so as to bring them, and particularly the congress pay bill, minediately before the

A er a short discussion, the question was taken on discharging the commitee of the whole from the consideration of the retrenchment bills, and decided in the affirmative, by years and pays: 105 to 38.

The three bills being thus before the

On motion of Mr. Hardin, that for reducing the compensation of senators and representatives in congress, was his: read.

This bill provides that the daily pay of the members of the senate, from
