NOTICE.

RAN away from the subscriber, living in Wake county, North-Carolina, on Neuse river, sixteen miles north of Raleigh, a negro fellow named LEWIS, about twenty-three years old, of a dark complexion, and spare make, though of tolerable size, height not particularly recollected; he has sound white fore teeth, his neck somewhat longer than common, and the white of his eyes clearer than usual for negroes; his back has some marks of the switch. He is a negro of a tolerably good countenance, active in almost any farming business, and a good distiller. It is supposed he went off on a bay mare, forward with foal, tolerably old, and has a knot on her back. This negro formerly belonged to the estate of John Cabe, esq. of Orange county. It is supposed that he will endeavour to pass as a freeman, and has probably procured a free pass. He ran away in the year 1819, while the property of Mr. Cabe, deceased, and spent the most of his time in the towns of Milton and Oxford, and passed as a freeman by the name of Lewis Pettiford. Any person that will apprehend said negro and deliver him to me, or commit him to jail so that I get him, shall be liberally rewarded, and all reasonable expenses paid. A liberal reward also will be given, and all reasonable expenses paid, for the nag he went away on.

A Good Opportunity.

THE proprietors of the OBSERVER & GAZETTE, will sell a great bargain of their Printing Establishment in Fayetteville.

From the many advantages in point of local situation, with the extensive patronage this paper now possesses, it promises to be ere long, one of the most profitable Journals printed in the state, and at the same time to afford a good field for the display of useful talent. To a man of some capital, practically acquainted with the details of a printing office, such an opportunity seldom occurs.

Further information may be obtained, by letter, addressed to James Seawell, Fayetteville, N. C.

Resolution concerning the Indians in Florida.

Resolution to direct the withholding of the compensation of certain prize agents.

Resolution granting to the Washington Library, a copy of the public documents.

Though we dispense with the customary journals of proceedings in the two houses, there were some incidents in both houses of congress which deserve to be noticed, and are stated below.

IN THE SENATE.

The senate spent most of the day in examining and discussing, in committee of the whole, various bills from the house of representatives, the titles of which are inserted in the list of acts. On some of these bills, proceedings took place deserving a more particular notice.

The senate having under consideration, in committee of the whole, the bill making appropriations for the military establishment for the year 1823—

Mr. Johnson, of Louisiana, offered, as an amendment, an additional section, authorising the president of the United States to apply the unexpended balance of the appropriation of 1820 for the fulfilment of the Choctaw treaty, in obtaining a modification of that treaty, so as to remove the Choctaw Indians beyond the limits of the territory of Arkansas.

Which was agreed to without a division.

The senate then, having agreed to have a recess, adjourned to meet again at 5 o'clock in the afternoon.

This being the last day of the session but one, and the joint rule of congress forbidding that any bill shall be presented to the president of the United States, for his approbation, on the last day, the senate continued its evening session until near three o'clock in the morning, considering the remaining bills from the other house, and in reading the third time and passing those bills which had previously, yesterday and to-day, been ordered to a third reading.
