Beware of Swindlers!!!

On the 20th of February last, a black woman named PEGGY, was carried away from me by Samuel Townsend, Patrick Munton, Joseph Orston, and others; was harboured and concealed by the said Samuel Townsend, and taken into his possession under pretence of obtaining her freedom; and on the 17th of March last, was carried off by the above named Joseph Orston, who goes in the capacity of a pedler. Said Peggy is now in the 17th year of her age, of middle size, about 5 feet 4 or 5 inches high, handsomely built, of yellow complexion, very likely, familiar, and very free spoken. She sometimes calls herself Peggy Hagin, and has of late pretended to say that she was free born. Peggy may be known by any one who converses with her, by her telling who has raised her, and of her leaving her child behind, whose name is Eliza. It is supposed that she is sold, or concealed in some part of the country. Any person finding where she is, and giving information by letter, directed to the subscriber, living in Barnwell district, or to Mr. Isaac Frazier, in Columbia, S. C. shall receive a reward of twenty-five dollars, and if the said Orston and Peggy be found together, and apprehended, so that the villains can be brought to justice, any person or persons, so apprehending them, shall receive a reward of fifty dollars.

S. W. Kearsey.

HILLSBOROUGH FEMALE SEMINARY.

THE exercises of this institution will commence on the first day of August next, and will be under the immediate care of Miss LAVINIA BRAINERD, and under the inspection and superintendence of the Reverend WILLIAM M. GREEN. The course of instruction in this seminary will be carried on in a regular continued system of academic studies, embracing all the scientific and ornamental branches necessary to complete the female education.

Pupils from abroad can be accommodated with board in the most respectable families in the place, at the rate of ten dollars per month. Arrangements, however, are now being made, by which it is intended to instruct the more advanced pupils in house wifery, and in the various branches of domestic economy. Whilst all due attention will be paid to the ornamental and the ordinary branches of education, the instructors will deem it their imperative duty to pay especial regard to the morals and manners of the young ladies committed to their care.

There will be a select committee of literary ladies and gentlemen to attend the semi-annual examinations, to decide on the merits of the pupils, and to place them in the several classes. Those pupils who shall have completed their course of studies with acceptance, will receive a diploma with the signatures of their instructors, and of the examining committee, and under the seal of the seminary.

The studies of the several classes will be arranged in the following order:

First Class—Reading, Writing, Orthography, Arithmetic, English Grammar, Modern Geography, Elements of Composition.

Second Class—Ancient, Modern and Sacred Geography, use of the Globes, Map-drawing, Natural History, History of the United States.

Third Class—Algebra, Elements of Euclid, Taylor's History, Rhetoric, Elements of Criticism, Astronomy, Chronology, Natural Philosophy.

Fourth Class—Moral Philosophy, Evidences of Christianity, Natural Theology, Chemistry, Botany, Mineralogy, Logic.

In addition to the above, lessons will be given in Music, Drawing and Painting in all its styles, in plain and ornamental Needle-work, and in making fruit and flowers in wax.

There will be two vacations in the year. One of six weeks in the winter season, and another of a fortnight during the summer.

The first session will end about the middle of November, and a proportional deduction in the price of tuition, be made on account of the necessary shortness of the session.

PRICES OF TUITION.

First Class, $10 per session,
 Second do. 12 1/2 do.
 Third and Fourth do. 15 do.

All the ornamental branches taught at the usual prices.

For the Hillsborough Recorder.

It is natural for the traveller advancing in a long and dangerous journey, to look back upon the part which he has already accomplished, and note the incidents that have occurred, to enable him to point out the difficulties and dangers through which he has passed to others destined to travel the same road, and to fortify himself against those which still lie before him. If perchance he meet with a fellow traveller, he will detail to him minutely the particulars of the way he has passed, and anxiously inquire what are the dangers which he must yet encounter; and agreeable to the information thus obtained will be his anxiety, caution and circumspection.

But the number of those destined at any time to endure the hardships of wayfaring, is comparatively small; there is, however, one journey which must be performed by every individual of the human family. It is the journey of life. Existence is the point from which we set out, and the grave the goal that ends the way. To some, it is a short and quiet journey; to others, a long and dangerous way. Whilst some walk peacefully and calmly through a path strewn with flowers, there are others that find it truly a dark and thorny road.

As the traveller stores his mind with knowledge from the observation of the scenes through which he passes, and acquires a taste for a wayfaring life, and the views of varied nature; so does our moral and intellectual character take a tinge from the company with which we are conversant, and the pursuits in which we are engaged. As the traveller journeys on securely and pleasantly in proportion to the accuracy of the directions which he receives, and the entertainment afforded at the different stages of the way; so agreeably to the directions given to our youth, and the circumstances under which we arrive at certain stages, do we spend, in its course, our life pleasantly to ourselves and profitably to others, or unhappily and uselessly.

The subject, then, of the proper culture of the infant mind, and the most important steps of our life, may well be the subject of a few serious reflections. Happy would the
