

RECIPROCAL EQUITY.

The divine commandments, although very concisely expressed, have a most extensive meaning. For example, take the eighth law of the decalogue: "Thou shalt not steal." This prohibition includes all injustice and wrong, every thing contrary to the law of humanity, reason and religion, which affects the rights or property of another person. Hence, many who are shocked at the idea of robbery, are intimate with the offence, and guilty of the crime, which they avowedly abhor.

Let us apply the touchstone of sincerity to our own hearts. Who attends without a monitor to the whisper of equity? Who is an advocate with himself, for every one who has a claim upon him? Who can be opposed by his inferiors, and feel no resentment? Where is the man who finds no judgment to do wrong, when he possesses the power to execute it? Who ever he be, he is the master in the duties of social intercourse. Reason demands no additional sacrifice—and even religion pronounces him perfect in the second great commandment.

But rich men violate this law of love, when they withhold the right of the poor, or refuse to comply with the most equitable obligations. When judges and lawyers pervert, refuse, or delay justice, or load the obtaining of it with intolerable expenses or insurmountable difficulties, they transgress the eighth commandment, and their injustice is of the very worst species, as it is a treacherous breach of trust—a robbery committed by a guardian.

When we abuse our superiority of whatever species or degree, and make our relative greatness to support us in doing wrong, we commit the double offence of dishonesty and oppression—and if we take advantage of a person's distress and necessities, we swell the wickedness, for we add cruelty to the other iniquities. A man is guilty of barbarous injustice when he designs by his act, not to secure his own rights, but to ruin his debtor—and is ranked with the most mischievous oppressors, unless an injury from avarice is less than misery inflicted through revenge. Remember the parable, Matthew xviii. 23-25.

Which is the Republican? Mr. Van Buren in his last annual Message, in order to sustain a favorite measure, the Sub Treasury scheme, goes for examples to the corrupt Monarchies and Despotisms of Europe. Do the people of the United States think them fit patterns for them to follow? Extract from the message.

"From the result of inquiries made by the Secretary of the Treasury in regard to the practice among them, I am enabled to state, that in twenty-two out of twenty-seven foreign governments, from which undoubted information has been obtained, the public moneys are kept in charge of public officers. This concurrence of opinion in favor of that system is perhaps an great as exists on any question of internal administration."

Now hear what an out and out American said. Gen. Harrison, in 1817, when reporting to Congress a Militia bill, held the following language: "In searching for landmarks to guide us to our object, it will be in vain that we direct our attention to the modern nations of Europe. From them we can borrow nothing to aid our purpose. Governments formed upon artificial distinctions in society, which estimate their security by the inability of their subjects to resist oppression, can furnish a free People with no guides in organizing a system of defence which shall be purely Democratic."

Caswell Democrat.

THE subscriber proposes publishing in Yanceyville, N. Carolina, a weekly newspaper with the above title, if patronage sufficient be extended to him. In assuming the responsible station of Editor, he feels all the diffidence naturally incidental to one, conscious of his inferiority to many of the talented veterans of the press editorial. But a crisis has arrived in our country in which it behooves every man to do his duty, and we for one are disposed to contribute all our power, how feeble soever it may be, to the maintenance of those principles for which our illustrious forefathers pledged their lives and their sacred honor, and for which many of them fought, bled and died. The columns of the "Democrat" will be devoted to the principles avowed by the present Administration and the Democratic party generally. We consider the political warfare now carried on between the friends of Mr. Van Buren and those of General Harrison, antagonistic as that characterized the fierce contest between the elder Adams and Mr. Jefferson. Arguments were the weapons used by the parties then—not so now! The humiliating spectacles daily exhibited to our view, to bolster up a party evidently on the wane, and which seems conscious of the fact, from the novel, not to say ridiculous means to which it resorts, are calculated to excite in the bosoms of all friends to rational liberty, a degree of indignation that must prompt them to suppress by all fair means, such attempts to gull them. The big party must presume much on the ignorance and gullibility of the people, for a moment to suppose that their attention can long be diverted from the true issue, by the idle parade of log cabins, &c. The party opposed to the Administration is so heterogeneous, is composed of materials so discordant, that it would be difficult to define their position. They agree in one thing, and that is to put down Mr. Van Buren, and to take the reins of government into their own hands. The columns of the Caswell Democrat will be open to all who may be disposed, through its medium, to advocate the policy of the party to which the Editor is attached, but he wishes it to be understood that nothing of a personal nature will be permitted to appear in his paper. DABNEY RAINEY. Terms—Two dollars and fifty cents in advance, or three dollars payable at the end of the year.

Mofo's Vegetable Life Medicines.

THESE Medicines are indebted for their name to their manifest and sensible action in purifying the system, and inducing channels of life, and sending them with renewed tone and vigor. In many hundred certified cases which have been made public, and in almost every species of disease to which the human frame is liable, the happy effects of MOFFAT'S LIFE PILLS and PHENIX BITTERS have been gratefully and publicly acknowledged by the persons benefited, and who were previously unacquainted with the beautifully philosophical principles upon which they are compounded, and upon which they consequently act.

The LIFE MEDICINES recommend themselves in diseases of every form and description. Their first operation is to loosen from the coats of the stomach and bowels, the various impurities and crudities constantly accumulated there, and to remove the hardened masses which collect in the bowels, and upon small intestines. Other medicines only partially cleanse these, and leave such collected masses behind as to produce habitual constipation, with all its train of evils, or sudden diarrhoea, with its imminent dangers. The fact is well known to all regular anatomists, who examine the human bowels after death; and hence the prejudice of these well informed men against such medicines, or medicines prepared and heralded to the public by ignorant persons.

The second effect of the Life Medicines is to cleanse the kidneys and the bladder, and by this means the liver and the lungs, the healthful action of which entirely depends upon the regularity of the urinary organs. The blood, which takes its red color from the agency of the liver and the lungs before it passes into the heart, being thus purified by them, and nourished by food coming from a clean stomach, courses freely through the veins, renews every part of the system, and triumphantly mounts the banner of health in the blooming cheek.

Mofo's Vegetable Life Medicines have been thoroughly tested, and pronounced a sovereign remedy for Dyspepsia, Flatulency, Palpitation of the Heart, Loss of Appetite, Heartburn and Headache, Restlessness, Ill temper, Anxiety, Langour and Melancholy, Costiveness, Diarrhoea, Cholera, Fevers of all kinds, Rheumatism, Gout, Dropsies of all kinds, Gravel, Worms, Asthma and Consumption, Scoury, Ulcers, inveterate Sores, Scorbatic Eruptions, and Red Complexions, Eruptive complaints, Sallow, Cloudy and other disagreeable Complexions, Erysipelas, Salt Rheum, Common Colds and Influenza, and various other complaints which afflict the human frame. In Fever and Ague, particularly, the Life Medicines have been most eminently successful; so much so that in the Fever and Ague districts Physicians almost universally prescribe them.

All that Mr. Mofo requires of his patients is to be particular in taking the Life Medicines strictly according to the directions. It is not by a new paper notice, or by any thing that he himself may say in their favor, that he hopes to gain credit. It is alone by the results of a fair trial.

Mofo's Medical Manual; designed as a Domestic Guide to Health.—This little pamphlet, edited by Wm. B. Mofo, 375 Broadway, New York, has been published for the purpose of explaining more fully Mr. Mofo's theory of diseases, and will be found highly interesting to persons seeking health. It treats upon prevalent diseases, and the causes thereof. Price, 25 cents. For sale by Mofo's agents generally.

STEPHEN MOORE has on hand for sale, PLOUGHS of various sizes, with extra Points, &c. from the factory of C. H. Richmond, near Milton, N. C. The following certificates will show the estimation in which they are held by some of our best farmers.

CERTIFICATES. We have, for the last six or eight years, been using the Cast Iron Plough, introduced into this State and Virginia by Jerry & Richmond, and have no hesitation in saying, that we consider it superior to any other in use in our country, for its easy draught, facility of turning the soil, and its general utility as to performance, and the small expense of the cast point, which we think preferable, on account of its convenience and trifling cost, to any other kind of point we have ever used. Brandreth's Pills.

A VEGETABLE and Universal Medicine proved by the experience of thousands to be, when properly persevered with, a certain cure in every form of the ONLY ONE DYSPEPSIA, all having the same origin, and invariably arising from the UNIVERSAL ROOT of disease, namely the IMPURITY or IMPERFECT circulation of the BLOOD.

In a period of little more than three years in the U. S. they have restored to a state of health and enjoyment over ONE HUNDRED THOUSAND persons, who were given over as incurable by physicians of the first rank and standing, and in many cases when every other remedy had been resorted to in vain.

In all cases of Pain or Weakness, whether it be chronic or recent, whether it be due to a morbid condition of the blood, or to a morbid condition of the liver, or to a morbid condition of the stomach, or to a morbid condition of the bowels, or to a morbid condition of the urinary organs, or to a morbid condition of the lungs, or to a morbid condition of the heart, or to a morbid condition of the brain, or to a morbid condition of the nerves, or to a morbid condition of the system, or to a morbid condition of the whole, Brandreth's Pills, remove nothing but the serious and deadly corrupt particles from the blood, those humors which cause disease—they impede the functions of the liver when they settle upon the organs, and which, when they settle upon the stomach, produce rheumatism; or upon the nerves, produce gout; or upon the lungs, produce consumption; or upon the intestines, cause diarrhoea; or upon the lining of the blood vessels, apoplexy and paralysis, and all the train of disorders so melancholy to the sufferer and all who behold them.

Yes, purging these humors from the body is the true cure for all these complaints, and every other form of disease. This is no mere assertion—it is a demonstrable truth, and each day it is extending itself; far and wide it is becoming known, and more and more appreciated.

The cure by purging may more depend upon the laws which produce weakness or purity, than may be generally imagined. Whatever tends to stagnate, will produce sickness, because it tends to putrefaction; therefore the necessity of constant exercise cannot be used from ANY CAUSE, the occasional use of orange Masticum is ABSOLUTELY required. Thus the conduits of the blood, the fountain of life, are kept free from those impurities which would prevent its steady current ministering health. Thus morbid humors are prevented from becoming mixed with it. It is nature which thus assisted through the means and edicts which she has provided for herself.
