I intend to pursue upon this and all similar prisures: I intend my remarks merely as explanatory and in justification of my men course, without designing or hoping course I intend now to pursue upon subjects similar in character to the one under discussion, resider such allusions indispensable.

as an Eastern man. They have, by their conduct, compelled use to vote against this and all similar measures which may be brought before this two dotters that all similar measures which may be brought before this body, or properity and hapiness of less to my own home, which we are told in the less to my own home, which we are told in the same worse than that of being an indied. Were I standing here merely as a song.

Deeply convinced of the truth of these are individual, with no other rights and interests to protect than thase personal to myself, I would set differently. But, sand Perquimons. They have, for a short important the falls of our autonal legislature, I determined to quit a post where I found and Perquimons. They have, for a short important the same referred to who be done to advance the rest work in which the eastern part of the conditions and the falls of our autonal legislature, I determined to quit a post where I found and Perquimons. They have, for a short time, entrusted in me, as their agant, the money may be in the Senate is the only one of the two bodies that attends to past, the same course; we have not only seized the same course; we have not onl alike its fertilizing showers. All governments are terannical which pursue a different course, and it matters little to the partion of the country that may be oppressed, whether her tyrant number one or many.

pathy between the ruler and the ruled, tion of the rights or interests of the pao ple, the government is a tyranny, call it and confirm the weak and wavering. its indifference proceeds from ignorance, regarded.

have acted upon the sobject of Internal our votes, they passed this body. We at- stands unrivalled for purity of character, by our Wester brettnern with an intense were told our amendment was rejected. In my region, Mr. Speaker, the people selfishness, the xocods anything I have because the surveys made of the inlet were hitherto met with the history of legisla- of a conflicting character. Let another will, therefore, describe the one I with

I said that I would vote against this ance is unfeigned. I have been for many berally to the work. The suggestion plainly about this caucus matter. It has bill with great reluctance, and that reluctour resources is indispensable for our Daings, and I have been often deeply bears than ever was anticipated, arabed, and graned, to have the reflec this body, and yet, sir, I do so with the all the petty office-seeking which seems greatest reluctance. The friends of this 40 have obscured the intellects, warped messure have, however, left me no choice the judgment and narrowed the minds of as an Eastern man. They have, by their all who move in his infected atmosphere. Whenever this revolution is effected, and business of his own people.

In this posture of our effice at Wash-command the unprincipled, and stimulate tent and midnight decisions no man has est appeals were made to the Senate on mode of sailing the ship. their behalf. Neither of them, however. survey be made, was then said, and if the nessed, that they may be better informed mossure is reported to be practicable, we for the future. report to all that

Being one of the individuals thus specially referred by 1 will state frankly the reasons why 1 cannot respond to the gentensor's appeal, and aid him is passing this bill through the Senste.

It is not my purpose to discuss the merits of this bill. I intend merely to avail myself of this opportunity of stating avail myself of this opportunity of attaining the reasons why 1 have good one of the federal government. It plunging headlong into an abyss, the frequently, to vote upon n, as the shape frequently, to vote upon n, North Carolina, within her borders, has federal Government. Our political friends Mr. Specker, is it recorded, that the law not till then.

the courage or dares to disobey. It rous

Well aware of this unfortunate infirmia government is, that tire country east of the Roanoke, had no a sellish purpose, to impose upon others, ing for one's self. the can experience a government, is, that tire country east of the Roanoke, had no a sellish purpose, to impose upon others, its conduct model be actuated by an more connexion with them, than they "The party is in danger," has been the could have in a rail road to the moon. cry since the birth of the Albany Regen enlightened self interest.

will go with you-we will subscribe li- I intend. Mr. Speaker, to talk very By it remembered, Mr. Speaker, the househe issue was brought about.

City rus sexace,

On the hill appoint aims gibb, 000 torcing quantity changed you of constructing the flaticity and Wesser or Tampilis Read.

This gentlemus from Buncambe, in placesting the Seaste a few days ago, hought proper, Mr. Speaker, to allude to which he poils of the white and the proposition of the spoils of the totals fail, it is true, he said this coins of the state and the state had never received and they are destined, and expected, on our returns of the state and the state had never received and they are destined to the population of the state and the state had never received and they are destined to the population of the state and the state had never received and they are destined to the population of the state and the state had never received and of the state and the state had never received and of the state of the repulsion of the population of the state o all the elements of a great state. She will shortly be in power, and we hope makers of the land, who are supposed to I know, Mr. Speaker, it will be assert- air, these claus were smallered to needs nothing more to be all her warm- wiser councils will prevail at Washing- have inspired a little of that disappointment is the true source caucus, and denied a busing before if cest friends wish her to be, then that her ton. For the first time, for fourteen years sence, are required to pledge themselves of my present language. Thuse who legislature, ed and valuable position of the body politic, entitled to a fair share in the honors, the emoluments and favors of the governthe long talked of work—the opening of its members had surrendered all right of the inlet at Nag's Head. And, if we now individual opinion, and blindly obeyed I knew, sir, the decree had gone forth, pord themselves to the forcent of oblique I intend, sir, to vote against the bill This is the revolution I wish to see in fail, the blame must rest solely and exclusion from the self-constituted organs of a magnow on your table, in every form and sometimes those of king nanimous party, that I should be pro little, sir, about this road. I will, howe shape in which it can be presented to attention of our good and wise men, than I say, if we fail now, the blame will caucus. They were called collar men - scribed, because my brothers had thought ever, conclude by remarking, that we well known, to every body at all familiwith the mode of doing business at suggest, was heaped upon their devoted pose that the proscription would be ex both the senators; if they now take what Washington, that the Senate is the only heads; and yet, sir, we are adopting the tended to the whole eastern country. Intile money may be in the Public Treat nembers act upon their individual sense dividual es a fit resear to fill the c eral welfare. Where, however, this pri- power given in the constitution, even to the eve of an election are not worth hav- rity in the power of dreeney and the United States.

with contempt or indifference, any por- government in such a tone that she would the Constitution itself-whose omnipo- least profit by his faults, and not embrace ster."

en out, by new and more suppliant tools, Republican out of a Boston federalist. liber buy of a public character. National could benefit my section of the state in ty, artful and cunning men always sound and the greatest and most annardocable I find, Mr. Speaker, an impression I betality to the stream of enthusiasts. All any form or manner whatever. The en the tocsin of party, when they wish, for crime was conceived to be, that of think- prevails here, among some individuals,

These principles, sir, while I have endestroiced to be sound, I have endestroiced to be sound, I have endestroiced to be governed by, in the humble part which I would attribe the proclaimed, voted for them, and through governed by, in the humble part which I would attribe this persons who are that the improvement at Nag's Head is ture was not to blame," said he, "for marching on in a similar career, to pause one of the usual political humbuge employ-ture was not to blame," said he, "for a while, if they have any other views when I was two months old I was when I was two months old I was when I have endestroiced to be friends, in the spirit which I have give that the improvement at Nag's Head is ture was not to blame," said he, "for a while, if they have any other views when I was two months old I was then self aggrandisement. The people of the usual political humbuge employ-ture was not to blame," said he, "for a while, if they have any other views whenever the subject is mentioned, they considered the handsomest child in the proclaimed, voted for them, and through eat name in our history; a man who governed by, in the humble part which I would attribe the best of the bright.

The people of the months old I was the more than sold at the more than sold at the improvement at Nag's Head is the best of the bright. The people of the months old I was the more than a while, if they have any other views when I was to be a while, if they have any other views when I was to be a while, if they have any other views and the more than a while, if they have any other views and the more than a while, if they have any other views and the more than a while, if they have any other views and the more than a while, if they have any other views and the more than a while, if they have any other views and the more than a while, if they have any other views and they are the could have a while, if they have any other views and they are the other views and they are the could have a while, if they have any other views and they are they ar political harness; they have not been try wittleism, which, if it proves nothing day sroupped me away for another Improvements, since I have been a ment tached to the latter bill an amendment, great natural sagacity, and attachment to fighting in the last contest, that a few men more, proves at least their own ignorance boy, just to please a triend of hers, ther of the Legislature of North Carolina.

I amy however, forced to change my not have been a more proves at least their own ignorance and folly. These individuals disdain to he latter out an amenument, and the Legislature of North Carolina.

I amy however, forced to change my not have been the Rosnoke Inlet Company, which was not latended one cancus, and would not not however, with attended one cancus, and would never at the read of hers, and that every free made upon the subject; but endowed with attended one cancus, and would never at the read of hers, and that a few men more, proves at least their own ignorance may get office, but that a few men more, proves at least their own ignorance and folly. These individuals disdain to have child was rather plate look-ling."

I amy however, forced to change my the loved the people—say, that he had not however, with attended one cancus, and would never at the read of hers, and folly. These individuals disdain to he loved the people—say, that he had not however, with a stended one cancus, and would never at the read of hers, and folly. These individuals disdain to he loved the people—say, that he had not however, with the constitution and folly. These individuals disdain to he loved the people—say, that he had not however, with the constitution and folly. These individuals disdain to he loved the people—say, that he had not however, with the constitution and folly. These individuals disdain to he loved the people—say, that he had not however, with the constitution and folly. These individuals disdain to he loved the people—say, that he had alone should govern, and that every free-many that he had alone should govern, and the loved the people and the the same is a state of caucus, or the control of any self-consti- Gwynn, Bernard and Fulton, mere fooltured body.

caucus, I have but little to say. We of and a jest, when such counsels prevail in the east have no claims upon either of her Legislature! them. They are the nominees of a cau- We are told by men of the greatest cause, as he said, it looked + forcus which expressly refused to make an ability who have made it their business eign," lately accosted a Yankee at one was supposed to be reasonable, and was assumed to itself the right of deciding the advocacy of Nag's Head a condition of to examine and thoroughly investigate the of nor rotels, as follows:

which at the last session of the Legislather just reward, what denefit will this to the Governor's reference. Under the
to the state! It may perhaps fill a handrome paragraph in a newspaper, and to referred by I wall state frankly the
to the state! It may perhaps fill a handrome paragraph in a newspaper, and
to referred by I wall state frankly the
to the state! It may perhaps fill a handrome paragraph in a newspaper, and
to the Governor's reference. Under the unbiassed. Our requests were all refusto the Governor's reference. Under the unbiassed. Our requests were all refusto the Governor's reference.

Under the
unbiassed. Our requests were all refusto the Governor's reference.

I was perfectly proper, and a work undoubtedly within the comseparating from our political friends, or much agitated; he has been called on.

The reference to the matter of the Legislature might decide the matter but little about it. He has been for mato the Governor's reference.
Under the unbiassed. Our requests were all refusproper, and the alternative was presented of proper,
and a work undoubtedly within the comseparating from our political friends, or
much agitated; he has been called on.

The reference to the matter to the Governor's reference.

One would suppose, if we were unato the Governor's reference.

One would suppose, if we were unato the Governor's reference.

One would suppose, if we were unato the Governor's reference.

One would suppose, if we were unato the Governor's reference.

One would suppose, if we were unato the Governor's reference.

One would suppose, if we were unato the Governor's reference.

One would suppose, if we were unato the Governor's reference.

One would suppose, if we were unato the Governor's reference.

One would suppose, if we were unato the Governor's reference.

One would suppose, if we were unato the Governor's reference.

One would suppose, if we were unato the Governor's reference.

One would suppose, if we were unato the Governor's reference.

One w to influence that of others. In doing so, I may perhaps subject myself to the charge of egotism. My excuse, sir, however, sir, h guardisanship of those rights, and I would be generosity to yield us on the floor of a party which, by boldness, intrigue, and from its novely, at least, descrees to be a finited States Bank man, is to be she generosity to yield us on the floor of a party which, by boldness, intrigue, and from its novely, at least, descrees to be a finite States Bank man, is to be she generosity to yield us on the floor of a party which, by boldness, intrigue, and from its novely, at least, descrees to be a finite States Bank man, is to be she generosity to yield us on the floor of a party which, by boldness, intrigue, and from its novely, at least, descrees to be a finite States Bank man, is to be she generosity to yield us on the floor of a party which, by boldness, intrigue, and from its novely, at least, descrees to be a finite States Bank man, is to be currently at least of the generosity to yield us on the floor of the generosity to yield us on the floor of the generosity to yield us on the floor of the generosity to yield us on the floor of the generosity to yield us on the floor of the generosity to yield us on the floor of the generosity to yield us on the floor of the generosity to yield us on the floor of the generosity to yield us on the floor of the generosity to yield us on the floor of the generosity to yield us on the floor of the generosity to yield us on the floor of the generosity to yield us on the floor of the generosity to yield us on the floor of the generosity to yield us on the floor of the generosity to yield us on the floor of the generosity to yield private and local intercets for the gen. at scruples; he thought there was not present possile, that promises made on of right and wrong, we have some seen appointment of Attorney General of the vate of local interest does not conflict with build a light house, and that a man whose previous pother general welfare, it is the duty of a vaticably bound to grope our way in the general welfare, it is the duty of a vaticably bound to grope our way in the linical life does not give an assurance of must obey king caucas. Men will do obliged to them for saving him the trouble many things, backed by a majority, which of thinking for himself upon this important they would no dare to do, when acting on subject. I do not know what the peculiar they would no dare to do, when acting on subject. I do not know what the peculiar was full they would no dare to do, when acting on subject. I do not know what the peculiar was full to constitution, and that each section of its territory or portion of unintelligible jargon about paying the first inhabitants may feel its blessings. It should smitter the sun, which, while it extracts dewe from the poorest as well it extracts dewe from the poorest as well the theories of Mr. Calhoun, that he had it extracts deve from the poorest as well in the country, that the had it extracts deve from the poorest as well in the country, that the had it extracts deve from the poorest as well in the country, that the had it extracts deve from the poorest as well in the country in the coun so the richest soil, returns upon each neither time nor intellect to devele to the west has not acted in good faith in this bers from their seate, if many of them his merits, that when our Senators pro- sufficient to inform our readers that Mr. matter; that they have jeopardized the had not felt themselves constrained to do cord to execute the instructions of their Foreyth, the secretary of state under Mr. In this posture of our affairs at Washington, I felt perfectly satisfied that nothing could be done there, and that if a revolution ever took place it must commence here; that the legislature of North Carolina must be induced to take and interest in the improvement of the state and machine called a caucus -- a power which reform. I trust, it may not have a simi. latest fushion, and most approved model, whenever those who have the power, treat should speak to her servants in the federal has grown up in this country greater than lar issue to prevent it. We should at revised and corrected by Daniel Web

Gen. Jackson's administration came in pardon the digression. I will mention to three months, was yesterday disby what name you will. And whenever With these feelings, I took my seat in es to madness, in the bosom of its unfor by an immense majority; it was soon se- fact, which may be of some service to charged, her time having expired. this body two years ago. Soon after my tunate votaries, the spirit of party-a spi- ry perceptible that this immense mojoris some persons presents. I am told, that While making preparation to leave. it is an edious and contemptible tyranny, arrival here, two propositions came berit which eradicates from the bosom all ty, and the entire dispersion of the poliingenious Yankee invention, called the a gentleman who had just heard of unbecoming a freeman to tolerate, or even love the Senate for their consideration; love of country, and infuses into it the tical opponents, relieved him from all reDemocratic Jeffersonian Republican her whereabouts, came on the Island a man to endure. Unfortunately for one for the relief of the Releigh and Gas- bitterest hatred of our political opponents straint. His flatterers told him he was Dye," so much in request last summer, with a trunk full of elegant clothrong mankind, this latter feeling is too often ton rail road; the other for the construct which makes us regard our neighbor born to command, and he believed it; the is getting scarce. I see it stated, that the and what was better, the information the predominant one. Selfishness is the tion of a mil road from Fayetteville to the and our countryman, who has embarked party was organized upon the principle supply in Boston is nearly exhausted— that one of her relatives in Ireland ruling passion where men set in masses, mountains. These were projects in which his fortune and his hie in the same ves- of unconditional submission to the dictates not, it is said, on account of the number had died and bequenthed her the said and in the attainment of its object, truth, the middle and western parts of the state sel of state with ourselves, as our worst of its chief, or those who assumed to of persons using it, but from the production of the state sel of state with ourselves, as our worst of its chief, or those who assumed to of persons using it, but from the production of the state sel of state with ourselves, as our worst of its chief, or those who assumed to of persons using it, but from the production of the state sel of state with ourselves, as our worst of its chief, or those who assumed to of persons using it, but from the production of the state sel of state with ourselves, as our worst of its chief, or those who assumed to of persons using it, but from the production of the state sel of state with ourselves, as our worst of its chief, or those who assumed to of the state sel of state with ourselves, as our worst of its chief, or those who assumed to of the state sel of state with ourselves, as our worst of its chief, or those who assumed to of the production of the production of the state sel of state with ourselves, as our worst of its chief, or those who assumed to of the production of the prod friends and original supporters were driv- takes to make a Democratic Jeffersonian a purse well filled with cash.

> who believe every thing fair in politics, day how he could account for Na-I would advise those persons who are that the improvement at Nag's Head is ture's forming him so ugly. .. Naishness. Who can be astonished that Of the two gentlemen selected by this North Carolina has become a bye-word ture has saved me the trouble!"

years at advocate for what is called internal improvements, from a deep conviction acquiesced in. See survey has been most important question which can come their election. The caucus took a bond subject, that an inlet of fifteen feet water, and supposed to be reasonable; that an inlet of fifteen feet water, and supposed to be reasonable; that an inlet of fifteen feet water, and supposed to be reasonable; that an inlet of fifteen feet water, and supposed to be reasonable; that an inlet of fifteen feet water, and supposed to be reasonable; that an inlet of fifteen feet water, and supposed to be reasonable; that an inlet of fifteen feet water, and supposed to be reasonable; that it is a point on the feetly practicable; that it is a point on the feetly practicable; that it is a point on the feetly practicable; that it is a point on the feetly practicable; that it is a point on the feetly practicable; that it is a point on the feetly practicable; that it is a point on the feetly practicable; that it is a point on the feetly practicable; that it is a point on the feetly practicable; that it is a point on the feetly practicable; that it is a point on the feetly practicable; that it is a point on the feetly practicable; that it is a point on the feetly practicable; that it is a point on the feetly practicable; that it is a point on the feetly practicable; that it is a point on the feetly practicable; that it is a point on the feetly practicable; that it is a point on the feetly practicable; that it is a point of the feetly practicable; that it is a point of the feetly practicable; that it is a point of the feetly practicable; that it is a point of the feetly practicable; that it is a point of the feetly practicable in the feetly practi rest is not one of the conditions of the feetly practicable; that it is a point on the take me for an Etalyene; now what bracter as well as prosperity. I have work is said not only constituents feit a deep interest, to the dethey have expressed themselves friendly at any other point on the coast of North -I think you are a darned fool," reto the measure; but, sir, had we not a America. That an inlet there would plied Jonathan.

my native state, and to know the character the opposition before gentlemen from the different secter which she bears abroad; a character to them came almost entirely from the tions of the state could have an opposition before gentlemen from the different secto them came almost entirely from the fions of the state could have an opposition of the state could have an opposition appearance.

The double the value of every acre of land on the state of the water of land on the state of the state of the country, and consequently, and inserting of the country, and consequently.

brethren for sympathy and auf; and yet,

Change of Fortune. - A young wo mali was had been sentenced to

Mr. Snooks was asked the other a lady whom he thought to have married. .. do you wish to make a fool of me?" " No," replied the lady, " Na-

A young buck of the soap-lock order, who were an unshaven face, be-