

Taursday, February 83.

De A Lecture will be delivered at the Masonie Hall, before the Hallsho-we shall take an early opportunity of pre- give secusity and seadings to the indus-

Arusing, But our of PLACE. Rather tofed. an unusual occurrence took place last Sadday might, in one of the Churches in this town, during divine service. The commenced singing a hynnn, with the in- cane of Benjamin Franklin; which reso- had been ours, and their fame the propertention of making an exhortation after- lution having been readwards, when, just at the close of the first immense cost, under the direction of the of Representatives. Academy of Fine Arts, and though the There might be persons, Mr. Archer by the members of the House.

Wednesday, February 8. to those submitted by Mr. M. Duffie:

Resided, Vist Sing the races which cutting to our realers the report both of meable and and encouragonical to the peo-

WASHINGTON AND FRANKLIN. A message was received from the House We had been accustomed to call these ilannouncing the passage of a joint resolu- luminous men ours. But the time would then, on motion of Mr. White, of Ind., other party? Some of the leading states- to agree with the Senator; but the facts did tion in relation to the presentation of the come when they would equally be exalt- who said there was urgent business to minister had finished his sermon, and had sword of General Washington and the ed as benefactors of human kind as they consider, the Senate went into the consider verse, one of the negroes in the gallery, grounds of a proceeding sent from the cane to General Washing on which was who had eaten too much calibrage for his currence could not be assumed to be known gave it to his friend, and the friend of dinner, and put too much whi key upon necessarily, and the resolution before the mankind, who, had it been a sceptre, the top of it, and thereby being pressed Sena e imparted a distinguished comph- would have deserved it." And the scep to an extremity, leaned his lead over, ment to a nati e of his own State, he had tre, that friend has attained which he de and emptied his well-filled stomach in the monition, that a few words from one of the ceremonial offices which occured on milest of the congregation, to the damage the Senators of Virginia might be regard- the death of Washington, that he was of sandry hats, coats, and so forth, to say ed as not inappropriate, and perhaps be throned in the hearts of his countrymen. nothing of the faces of some others which expected in explanation of the resolution. The expression fell far short of the full were plentifully besprinkled. The singli was known to every member of the Seextent of his destiny. It was to be thronpies of the reports from the majority and most unnatural expension of the II does the internal commerce ful coeff, and there in the internal commerce ful coeff, and there in the ing stopped instantly; and those in the bequeathed swords to four of his nephews. no! these did not convey the just phrase immediate vicinity of the discharge rose One of these swords, plain and the least |-in the boundless veneration of manto their feet, looking anxiously towards valuable according to ordinary estimates kind! the gallery for the cause of their misfor- of value, the gentleman to whom the first Mr. A. said he would no longer he the ment stock. The debate was continued thous system of banking, what did gentle- b on re-trained, the internal would be floor: Of course all decorum was at an mended himself to honor and through the tude, and reverence! end, and the minister hasily pronounce I entire progress of that great conflict which | The resolution was manimously aa benediction and dismissed the congre- had resulted in the establishment of our dopted, and the Senate then adjustmed liberiles and his immortal renown. There In the House, Mr. Talliaferro rose and was not room for a question that the said: Mr. Speaker, being well satisfied We have be a shown a copy of the weapon which had just been laid on the AMERICAN PORTRAIT GALLERY, an agent table of the President was the identical that the constituents of every member of one to which these interesting assolutions this assembly are inflaenced by the same for the sale of which is now travelling in attached. It might have been proper for feeling which was so sensibly manifested North Carolina. The work is a fine spe- him to have stated the evidences of this by their Repre entatives yesterday at all cimen of American typography, and apart fact, but the task had already been disfrom its valuable contents would be an charged by his colleague and friend in the ornament to any library. It contains ele- filling the office of presenting these relies George Washington, in constant use by what portraits, with sketches of the lives to the nation, added another wrenth to him during the war of the Revolution, I of most of the distinguished men who the honor of being selected for the funchave illustrated the history of our coun- tion, by the chaste, appropriate, and heartry-many of he honored living as well tiful ad lress-in entire keeping with the the chair: simplicity of the memorial and of the Perolved, That 20,000 copies of the time and passed. as the illustrious dead: We understand character of its illustrious proprietor- full journal of the proceedings of the price at which it is furnished seems dear, said, disposed to regard the reception of memorials so light as a sword and a cane ed. it could not be afforded for less. To as not in keeping with the dignity of a those who can spare the money, we take Senatorial body. If such there were, he pleasure in recommending this work as (Mr. A.) was not to be included in the total first committee on the committee of the committe d signd was widely different. Nor was the julierary on the subject of the fine, it such the thought of our great precursors e following resolutions, which he de- of erecting statum to great deputted worth.

And why? Could the reason be any othecung statum to great departed worth. sired to have printed, expressing his in- or but the effort to keep alive the princitrution of offering them's an amendment pie of generous virtue, by presenting and

Mr. Archer said that, for his own parte department of the foreign and democratic he thought that allebter memorials that statues and manuscleams were for notice sequent intemporantment of the Notional conductive to this effect, where they had stage is home to discover the control of the contro public generally are respectfully invited of a netors to look the mode, to the units with the offices of service—shall a light were the men associated with the relies The amendment was adopted by year now presented to us, and which, as em- 27, mays 13. benefits they had rendered, veneration for the virtue which had adorned them!

ty of their whole race. Mr. Ancuen rose and said that, as the Doctor Franklin, in the bequest of the choice had been permitted had had the impediment to the expression of the ac- by Messis. Adam's Thompson, and men propose to do? To adop: a system bult up in proportion, the while the ladies on the opposite just take to prefer, as that which his glo- claiming sentiment which he knew heat Gwin, until the expiration of the morathe cause of the disturbance, became z- real service, from the period of early life, spoud, even by the tribute of this humble, ing hour, larmed, and some of them rushed for the when he had, in the cause of his country, resolution, to the great titles of Washing-which occurred on the presentation to that this work has been published at an with which he had gratified the House House on the presentation of the sword

(Mr. A.) was not to be included in the commerce of the report of the committee on terwards rejected by a vote of 33 to 113. The disposition he in- copies of the report of the committee on terwards rejected by a vote of 33 to 113. The country, a branch that had always sus- come on the dollar, could be received as was dreided in the affifthative.

The navy appropriation bill was again the proposed amendments considered.

accompanied with a bill to provide for the on all other branches for the protection dom they had displayed, gratitude for the and of no great importance, the amendments were reported to the Senate, orderation of executive business; and soon after adjourned.

other House of Congress to this for con- now exhibited to us, had said that "he committee of ways and means, reported house. Thus both had been responsible, one sed our importations, we increased the a bill to authorize the re-issue of five millions of treasury notes, should the wants of the government require it; which was which Mr. Evans had proposed to mitro remedied by the adoption of the sub Tresread twice and referred.

'A debate of an interesting character, took place on the motion of Mr. J. R. a mere surface measure, and not at all cale was to be every thing, and charges were Ingersoll to print ten thousand extra co- remote cause of which had been an alarmi- probit is it and destroys commerce. inimority of the committee of ways and paper currency. This currency had been and were not all branches of trade and in means, declaring that it is inexpedient to greatly reduced, but had not yet conched its dustry alike crippled, and did he act of issue two hundred millions of Govern- all the evils brought upon us by a vi- posed a at the foreign commerce had

Saturday, February 11.

The Senate did not sit today. entitled " A bill to reduce the number and eventuate in like results? God forbid that business. compensation of the officers and others such confidence should ever be restored! employed in the port of New York."

ask leave to offer the resolution I send to suspended, and the motion prevailed, banks add any thing to the wealth of the we that uniform currency, and did not

The house was for some time engaged of Washington be prin ed for distribution in the discussion of the assumption of mischief already done.

li the Sensie, Mr. Graham presented may, and mainte right to instruct Senators of the state, and Mer. MeD.) and I pleage my reputat denying the right of Congress to tax any that we shall have off shill Ma. M. Duffie's resolutions were posts positions and the reception of regions from child bear it.

the majority and mimority of the committies.

It is of the several Sistes in their efficts to ment their engagements and to discharge the obting rous into which they have enties.

It is of the rare but consummate wisdom of the existing tauff, and supposed that relief would come instantly when the shackles the obting rous into which they have enthe obting rous into which they have enthe discounses the Consummate and and encouragement to the peoties and and encouragement to dered to be engrossed with the bill, and What course had been adopted by the been the fact, Mr. E might be disposed the re-establishment of a National Bank, was desirable to make large importations. In the House, Mr Fillmore, from the State bank system as a kind of a half-way based on the proposition that, as we inevery man to apply the remedy.

It would be like the confidence that Eve of a proper medium of exchange, that resolutions of the Legislature of North only way to replace that expuring branch propriation bill was again Caroling declarative of the opinion of the that had been put of it. It this, (said In the Senate, Mr. Barcow from the particular influent, and declaring the tariff for the economical wants of the Governcommittee on rollingree, made a report, of 1841 mijust, unequal, and burdensome ment. Avarifi of 20 per cent in the general and not exceeding 25 in any rate, would accompanied with a bill to provide for the on all other branches for the protection give ample resources. He dwelt a superprince of the navigations of the Mississippi River and its tribulaties. The rapt law, and in favor of refunding the ston planter was subject to by the present bill provides one million of d divers, $250, fine imposed on Gen. Jackson. and so unjust, that the only wonder was the banks; and, as was the inextiable con- dically as to the causes of the evils, and sequence, a general suspension followed. the efficacy of the remedy proposed. The The Admissistration then in power show- Senator had at ributed all these evils to disconnect the Government entirely from It had been affirmed that the act of 1841 the banks, and a sub-Treasury was estab- had prohitited importations, and theo by lished. Thus far for their responsibility erappled commerce. Now, if such had men, who like himself, had condemned the not bear out the assertion; and, to make policy of Gen. Jackson in regard to the good his argument, the Senstorshould have United States Bank, had clamored for gone one step further, and shown that it while others again were fixing on the He (Mr.E.) would like to hear 20 proponent and it was alike the duty of both and of prosperity of the country. That was a new doctrine. And he well recelleded Mr. McD. glanced at the resolutions that one of the great evils proposed to be duce as a substitute for those he had the sury was to restrain and limit importahonor to submit; but he regarded them as mong but now it seemed if at importation collated to reach the seat of the disease, the brought against the Low of 1841 that it extreme point. After we had gone through 1841 secomplish that? One would sup-ance could also e effect it. Neither a than those apprehended by the Senator Bank of the United States for Exchequer from Son h Carolina were in operated The house then again, in committee of Board could reach the disease. Like a to produce it e distress that prevaded in then in a colonial condition, first com- ton and Franklin to our affection, grain- the whole, control upon the considera- sick patient, they were continually call- every portion of the country. If the tetion of basiness relating to the district of ing for remedies, and, as was usual in off had presented imperations to any exsuch cases, mistaking both the complaint tot, i.e a prehended the pices would and remedy. The only rentedy was a case rear; but, of the contary, hal sound and anti-concency-the careen- they not fallen and had there not been ey of the Constitution. It had been said to expects to the amount of two in Lions In the House, Mr. G. Davis asked by the friends of the banking system that and a quart r, thus uneque cally proving leave to move that the committee of the they did not desire expansion so much as that the councy has not been restricted? whole on the state of the Union be dis- to restore emfilience. That was the catche. In his opinion the decay of commerce charged from the consideration of the bill, word. Confidence in what! In banks might be more properly attributed to the heretofore introduced by himself on leave. Considence in a system that must always would give life and spirit and impetus to that make promises only to violate them? want of a correct of and rm vidue—that > Mr. E. insisted, if there was the want Objection was made, but the rules were that led to ruin. Would the paper issues of it would be from the want of ships. Had had in the seepent-misplaced confidence, commerce would be as much crippled as The bill was afterwards read the third country? Suppose seventy millions were that evil exist? He did not allude to the added to-morrow to the currency, you legal and constitutional currency, but would only add so much paper but no such as was used by people in their own wealth. The true remedy was to undo business and fire-i les, which now in ma state debts, on the motion to print 10,600 Mr. McD. went on to give his reasons they had to remot ht. The great object The resolution was unanimously adopt- extra copies of the report on Mr. W. at length for the adoption of the whole would be to have a currency of one uniseries of the resolutions, dwelling with frm value. It wouldnot make so much