

From the Greenborough Patriot.

THAT BOOK!

A friend, returned from the North, has given us an opportunity of perusing Mackenzie's compilation of the private correspondence of the New York Loco-foco party...

Where is the man who can turn from the perusal of the facts I have submitted without being convinced that there is a mercenary faction in our midst...

This publication has thrown the whole Loco-foco party into agony. Mr. ex-collector Jesse Hart has instituted a legal examination into the origin of the work...

This William Lyon Mackenzie was one of the "Canadian Patriots" about whom so much excitement was got up a few years ago. He was appointed to an office in the New York Custom House...

Mr. Goldson told me he had received letters from Bogardus to break open any and all of the Custom House boxes that were locked, without keys and their contents unknown...

A series of letters from the politicians of this State to the late defunct Collector of New York, is one of the most extraordinary political events of the age...

The object of the publication is to expose the character of the members of that clique known as the "Albany Regency" which has for the last twenty years wielded power in the State of New York...

Baron Von Raumer, an eminent Prussian statesman and philosopher, has written a book upon this country, embodying the results of his observation during a recent visit of a year or two...

FROM THE NATIONAL INTELLIGENCER. A NEW BOOK ON THE UNITED STATES.

Baron Von Raumer, an eminent Prussian statesman and philosopher, has written a book upon this country, embodying the results of his observation during a recent visit of a year or two...

Being universally esteemed a man of ability, candor, and deserved, critical eminence, considerable anxiety has been evinced to see his book...

In this letter he further says: "I never opened a private or sealed letter in my life, unless where a state of warfare prevailed which had its own rules..."

From the New York "Sun," a neutral paper, (whose editor, by the way, it is said leans a little to the Democracy) we take the following commentary on this matter...

behaviour than I to complain of them, &c. "Again he says: 'I have not found the Americans excessively curious, or disposed to weary every stranger with questions...'"

He appears to differ in opinion from almost every traveller in the United States on the subject of the beauty of the women, saying that he never saw so many pale and sickly faces in any country...

DEBTS OF TEXAS.

The Charleston Mercury, in an able article on this subject, contends that if Congress can assume the debts of Texas, it can assume the debts of all the other States...

The principle maintained on the ground of this alleged peculiarity in the case of Texas, is that Congress cannot give a State money to pay her debts; but may assume the debts, under a bargain purporting to offer an equivalent...

To assume the debts of Texas in consideration of the lands of Texas, appears to us to open broadly the door for the assumption of all the State debts...

THE ANSWER NOT YET.

We are sorry to see in the Washington Journal, a sort of jerking out of the old question, "who is James K. Polk?" with a rap of the editor's knuckles upon the table...

Mr. Polk has given nearly all the time of his executive life, to the dismissal of small officers, not one in a hundred of whom is chargeable with the slightest inattention, or neglect of duty...

An intelligent correspondent of the Richmond Whig, writing from Boston, says: "It has been recently said, that New England is making a perfect chiquery of her country, by the numerous Railroads crossing and re-crossing in every quarter..."

guilty, and were fined in sums varying from $25 to $150, &c. &c. total fine amounting to $1,000. William Vermylen, William Smith, John Crosby, Alexander Beckwith, John Hendricks, Nathaniel Hendricks, Abel Gould, William Tompkins, and Thomas Drury, to indictments for being disguised and armed, for attempts to rescue prisoners, &c., pleaded guilty, and upon their own recognizance to keep the peace, were discharged.

LETTER FROM BUENOS AYRES.

Advice from Buenos Ayres to the 15th, and from Montevideo, to the 15th, inform us that all the parts of the Republic of Uruguay have been declared by the British and French Ministers in a state of blockade, except Montevideo...

A joint declaration had been published by the French and British Ministers, that their mission and purpose were simply to ensure the perfect independence of the Oriental Republic, unaccompanied by any idea of invasion or acquisition of territory...

The Buenos Ayres British Packet of the 21st states that diplomatic relations were not yet entirely broken off—M. Maréchal continuing to act as Charge d'Affaires of France, and Mr. Hall in charge of the British Legation.

THE ANTI-RENT TRIALS.

We learn from Delhi, New York, that on the morning of the 1st instant Judge Parker took occasion to make some suggestions to the Board to the Council of the different prisoners, in order to lighten their respective labors...

When the court again opened it seemed that the proposal of the Judge had been acted upon, and a determination made to set at large numbers of those in confinement. Witness the subjoined brief record of the proceeding:

Harry Habel, Archibald McNair, Jas. Bernhart, Wm. Bryant, Chasney P. Walcott, Miles Bramble, John O. Liddle, Andrew Liddle, Homer Burgen, Levi Jenkins, Homer Sanford, Cantone Connolly, James A. Mills, William Tompkins, and Abel A. Fuller, to indictments for being armed and disguised, pleaded guilty, and were fined in sums varying from $25 to $150, &c. &c. total fine amounting to $1,000.

It has erred in its course toward the friends of Mr. Van Buren and G. V. Wright in New York. These it acted towards as opponents, on coming into power in March—its enemies, and not as it ends to whom it was indebted for the defeat of Mr. Clay.

It has erred in its course toward the friends of Mr. Dallas—its patriotic band, who secured to Mr. Polk the State of Pennsylvania.

It has erred in its course toward the friends of Mr. Tyler, who came to the rescue at a period of great doubt and uncertainty.

It has erred in its course toward the friends of Gen. Cass, Gov. Foster, and Gen. Cassin, upon whom, and the friends of the other parties, now rest the responsibility of carrying through the great measures which have so long retarded the attention of the Democratic party.

NEW SERIES OF THE CONGRESSIONAL GLOBE AND APPENDIX.

The undersigned originated the mode of journalizing the proceedings of Congress which presented them entire. Their publication was the first and only one that gave each successive step in every measure in both branches of Congress...

From the Rhode Island Journal.

THE "PROGRESSIVE DEMOCRACY."

The dangerous form in which the radicalism of the day exhibits itself—doubly dangerous from the well-established fact that the more ultra the doctrines the more certain they are of the countenance and ultimate adoption of the Democratic party—

PLAN OF REFORMING THE LAND OF NEW YORK TO THE PEOPLE.

To secure to every Farmer a Farm. 1. No one hereafter shall, under any circumstances, become possessed of more than one hundred and sixty acres of land in this State.

To secure to every mechanic or professional man a lot. 2. No one hereafter shall, under any circumstances, become possessed of more than one lot in a city or village, (the size of which may be regulated by the city or town authorities.)

To abolish at once the Feudal Tenure. 3. There shall be a special court of commissions, composed of landholders and (poor) backlanders, proportioned to the numbers of their respective classes in the State...

To abolish mortgages. 4. The homestead lot or farm shall be inalienable, except at the will of the occupant, and then only transferable to a landless person.

To abolish monopolies by never-dying bodies without souls. 5. Every corporation, of whatever name or nature, now holding land, shall be allowed five years to dispose of the same to landless persons...

Mutterings of an approaching Storm.

We find the following article in last Tuesday's Philadelphia Sentinel, an old and consistent, and, if we may add without prejudice to it, always decorous and respectable Democratic Journal. The Sentinel says for itself, and truly, that it has labored faithfully thirty years for the Democratic party.

The Administration has Erred.

It has erred in its course toward the friends of Mr. Van Buren and G. V. Wright in New York. These it acted towards as opponents, on coming into power in March—its enemies, and not as it ends to whom it was indebted for the defeat of Mr. Clay.

It has erred in its course toward the friends of Mr. Dallas—its patriotic band, who secured to Mr. Polk the State of Pennsylvania. It has erred in its course toward the friends of Mr. Tyler, who came to the rescue at a period of great doubt and uncertainty.

It has erred in its course toward the friends of Gen. Cass, Gov. Foster, and Gen. Cassin, upon whom, and the friends of the other parties, now rest the responsibility of carrying through the great measures which have so long retarded the attention of the Democratic party.

NEW SERIES OF THE CONGRESSIONAL GLOBE AND APPENDIX.

The undersigned originated the mode of journalizing the proceedings of Congress which presented them entire. Their publication was the first and only one that gave each successive step in every measure in both branches of Congress...

From the Rhode Island Journal.

THE "PROGRESSIVE DEMOCRACY."

The dangerous form in which the radicalism of the day exhibits itself—doubly dangerous from the well-established fact that the more ultra the doctrines the more certain they are of the countenance and ultimate adoption of the Democratic party—

PLAN OF REFORMING THE LAND OF NEW YORK TO THE PEOPLE.

To secure to every Farmer a Farm. 1. No one hereafter shall, under any circumstances, become possessed of more than one hundred and sixty acres of land in this State.

To secure to every mechanic or professional man a lot. 2. No one hereafter shall, under any circumstances, become possessed of more than one lot in a city or village, (the size of which may be regulated by the city or town authorities.)

To abolish at once the Feudal Tenure. 3. There shall be a special court of commissions, composed of landholders and (poor) backlanders, proportioned to the numbers of their respective classes in the State...

To abolish mortgages. 4. The homestead lot or farm shall be inalienable, except at the will of the occupant, and then only transferable to a landless person.

To abolish monopolies by never-dying bodies without souls. 5. Every corporation, of whatever name or nature, now holding land, shall be allowed five years to dispose of the same to landless persons...

Mutterings of an approaching Storm.

We find the following article in last Tuesday's Philadelphia Sentinel, an old and consistent, and, if we may add without prejudice to it, always decorous and respectable Democratic Journal. The Sentinel says for itself, and truly, that it has labored faithfully thirty years for the Democratic party.

The Administration has Erred.

It has erred in its course toward the friends of Mr. Van Buren and G. V. Wright in New York. These it acted towards as opponents, on coming into power in March—its enemies, and not as it ends to whom it was indebted for the defeat of Mr. Clay.

It has erred in its course toward the friends of Mr. Dallas—its patriotic band, who secured to Mr. Polk the State of Pennsylvania. It has erred in its course toward the friends of Mr. Tyler, who came to the rescue at a period of great doubt and uncertainty.