

HILLSBOROUGH

Thursday, December 18.

Whig Meeting.

We take the liberty of suggesting Saturday next, the 20th instant, as a suitable time for holding a meeting in Hillsborough for the appointment of Delegates to attend the Whig Convention in Raleigh on the 12th of January next. The Whigs need some of the undivided energy of their opponents. Let them remember that the Democratic party count upon their energy and industry for success in the next contest in North Carolina—they grant that we have the numerical strength. Shall this stain come upon our party?

Whigs of Orange!

you have already been notified through the columns of the Recorder, that a Convention will be held in Raleigh on the 12th of January next, for the purpose of nominating a candidate for the next gubernatorial canvass. The time is now near at hand! Meet then in your respective districts, and appoint delegates. It is a matter of the highest necessity (for reasons that must be obvious to every one) that Orange, at this time, should be well represented; and every one who calls himself a Whig, must feel bound to see that matter effected. Let it not be said that a few men in Hillsborough had not in mid-night caucus, and dictated a course which you were bound to pursue; but act like free and independent men, as you have ever done, and let yourselves be represented from each district.

Our acknowledgments are due to the Hon. Wm. H. Haywood, of the Senate, and the Hon. Daniel M. Barringer, of the House of Representatives, for copies of the President's Message.

Twenty-ninth Congress.

FIRST SESSION.
In the Senate, on Monday the 8th of December, nothing of much interest took place.

The Hon. Messrs. Dickinson, Berrien, Barrow and Pennybacker, appeared and took their seats.

Mr. Benton presented a memorial from American residents in Oregon, praying for protection from our government, which was read and ordered to be printed.

Mr. Cameron presented a memorial against the reception of Texas as a slave State.

The election of committees and officers of the Senate was postponed till tomorrow, and then, on motion of Mr. Sewar the Senate adjourned.

In the House, as soon as the Journal was read, the Speaker announced the various Committees.

The Speaker stated that the first question before the House was the amendment to the resolution to print 10,000 extra copies of the Report of the Secretary of the Treasury, the amendment being that of Mr. Payne, of Ala. to print 20,000 extra copies, because, as Mr. P. said, this was the first Free Trade document that was ever sent here by any Secretary of the Treasury. The amendment was rejected by the following vote—ayes 91, noes 103—so it would appear that there is a majority of the House opposed to the dissemination of Free Trade doctrines. The original resolution was adopted.

The speaker laid before the house a variety of executive documents.

Several notices of bills to be introduced were given, among them one of Mr. Bowlin, of Mo., to create a territorial form of government in Oregon; another by an Illinois member providing for the sale of mineral lands in Illinois, Iowa and Missouri, and one by Mr. Payne for graduating the price of public lands.

Mr. Hunter, of Va., presented the memorial of Mr. Brockenbrough, who contests the seat of Mr. Cabell of Florida. Mr. H. moved its reference to the committee on Elections, with instructions to inquire first who had the returns, who had the greater number of votes.

After a tedious debate, the House refused by 100 to 85 to give these instructions, but referred the memorial.

Mr. Schenck submitted a resolution requiring the committee on Elections to report whether any State, entitled to more than one member, had elected by General Ticket. Before the question was taken on this resolution, the House adjourned.

On Tuesday, the Senate met at noon and proceeded to elect its officers. Mr. Dickens was re-elected secretary; Mr. Beale was elected sergeant-at-arms, and Mr. Holland assistant.

The Vice President submitted Dow & Co.'s offer to do printing 20 per cent. less than now paid.

The Senate then proceeded to ballot for chairman of the various standing committees.

The House of Representatives met at noon.

Mr. Schenck's resolution of yesterday respecting election of members by general ticket was taken up, when Mr. Boyd moved to lay it upon the table—carried, 112 to 72.

Mr. McKay made a report from the select committee on printing, which was ordered to be printed.

The house then went into committee of the whole, and the several portions of the message moved to be referred to appropriate committees.

Mr. Stevens moved that the Ways and Means Committee be instructed to report that the present tariff should remain unaltered. He spoke at length in support of his amendment—read from and commented the message quoted, and applauded Jackson's second message on the same subject. Spoke his hour in an animated manner, and was replied to by Mr. Johnston, of Tenn. Upon the suggestion of Mr. J. R. Ingersoll, Mr. Stewart withdrew his amendment, with a promise to bring the matter up again at a future day.

A Message from the President, transmitting the constitution of Texas, was received, and, on motion, the House adjourned.

In the Senate, on Wednesday the 10th, Mr. Lewis, by leave, introduced a bill for the admission of Texas into the Union, remarking at the same time upon the necessity of early action upon it, because there was a large quantity of goods in the New York market, designed for that of Texas, which could not be transmitted by reason of the duties. This bill was twice read, and referred to the committee on the judiciary.

The only important business in the House to-day was a report which, by general consent, Mr. Douglas, of Ill., was permitted to make. Mr. D. reported the constitution of Texas, together with a joint resolution which declared the 'State of Texas' to be one of the States of the Union. It was made the order of the day for Tuesday next, and ordered to be printed.

A resolution was adopted providing for the appointment of chaplains, against which Mr. Pettit, of Ia., made his usual demonstration to no purpose.

The States were again called upon for petitions, and Mr. Adams had commenced, when Mr. Harmanson, of Ia., rose and announced the death of Mr. Dawson, member elect from that State, and the house, in conformity with custom, at once adjourned.

New Standard of Weights and Measures.

The following copy of a letter from the Governor, to the Standard-keeper of Orange, will be of use to many of our readers, and of interest to all.

EXECUTIVE OFFICE,
Raleigh, August 23, 1845.

Sir: After some research, I am enabled to reply to your inquiries respecting the Standard of Weights and Measures. In the first place it may be necessary to remark, that the old Weights, mentioned in the Revised Statutes, under the head of "Weights and Measures," were adopted by the State Legislature more than a hundred years ago, and are not to be regarded now as the proper Standards. Upon the adoption of the Federal Constitution, the power to fix the Standard of "Weights and Measures," was surrendered by the State to Congress; and in fulfillment of its duty under this power, the General Government has furnished to the States, within a few years past, a series of Weights and Measures, by which all Standard Keepers in the State are to be governed, from the time that they shall be received by them respectively.

A set of "Weights and Measures" made by, and corresponding with these, has been sent to you. And as the quantities of the Weights differ so materially from the old Standard of 1741, you very naturally inquire for the weight of each piece contained in the box.

The old Weights as seen in the Revised Statutes were, One Hundred Pounds, Half Hundred, Quarter Hundred, Half Quarter Hundred, Seven Pounds, Four Pounds, Two Pounds, One Pound, Half Pound. Those you now have are as follows: One Pound Troy weight; One do. Avoirdupois; 2 do. do; 3 do. do; 4 do. do; 5 do. do; 10 do. do; 20 do. do; 25 do. do; 50 do. do.

The Troy pound is lighter than the other, and is only used in weighing precious metals and medicines. Avoirdupois weight is the English and American standard for all heavy articles. The quantity of each weight is marked on a paper in the bottom of its place in the box, which was sent here under the act of Congress. Whether the same has been done in those procured by the State for the different counties, I am unable to ascertain.

Of the measure of extension there is the Yard Stick only.

Of the Dry capacity of measures there are the Half Bushel and Peck.

Of Liquids, 1 Gallon, Half Gallon, Quart, Pint, Half Pint, and Gill.

The maker of these Standards recommends great care in preserving them from rust, &c., which it is hoped will be duly attended to by Standard Keepers.

Very respectfully, your obedient servant,
WILL. A. GRAHAM,

N. Carolina Annual Conference.

The North Carolina Conference of the Methodist Episcopal Church, South, held its annual session in the town of Washington, commencing on the 26th ult. and closing on the 3rd instant. LATE FROM EUROPE.

The arrival at B-ston of the steamship Cambria, from Liverpool, furnishes accounts from Europe fifteen days later than before received.

Among her passengers is Professor Morse, the inventor of the electro-magnetic telegraph, who is the bearer of despatches to Government from the United States Legation in Prussia, Belgium, and England. Mr. Morse has in charge the ratified treaty between Bavaria and the United States, transmitted by Mr. Wheaton, our Minister at Berlin; and also the proposed commercial treaty between Belgium and the United States. He has also despatches for the Department of State, and for the Postmaster General, from Mr. McLane, our Minister in England.

Ruffus Prime, esq., of New York, also came passenger in the Cambria, and is the bearer of despatches from the United States Legation in Paris to the Department of State.

In England the grain market had been well sustained, but it does not appear that prices of flour and grain had actually advanced. The cotton market remained about the same as at our last accounts.

Meetings have been held in Ireland to take into consideration the state of the potato crop of the country; and resolutions were passed and submitted to Sir R. Peel, asking for the opening of the ports, the stopping of the distillation of grain, and the granting of a loan of a million and a half to supply the present necessities of the people.

The Railway Speculations had very generally subsided, and it is said that the amount of money actually diverted from the usual channels of trade is extremely small; which circumstance has, to some extent, tended to quiet the money market. The Bank of England had raised the rate of discount to 3 per cent.

Marshal Soult, the French Minister of War, has resigned, and General Saint You has been appointed his successor.

The acc-mis from Algeria show that the French are still busy making the most ample preparations for the subjugation of the inhabitants.

The King of the Belgians has been opening the Chambers in a speech which makes mention of a commercial treaty with the United States; but the details of the treaty have not appeared. The state of the potato crop, and the sufferings which, it is feared, the Belgians will endure in consequence, are to be provided for, the King suggests, by employing the poor on public works.

The new tariff of the Zoll-Verein has been published, but has excited little attention in England. As regards the United States, the increased duties will not affect the importations. The transit duties on cotton have been reduced by the Hanoverian States.

Advices from St. Petersburg of the 4th November state that the latest news from the Caucasus is of a more favorable character than had previously been received. The Emperor was in Italy, with his wife and daughter, and during his absence nothing of importance could be transacted.

THE NEWS BY THE CAMBRIA.

The "Journal of Commerce" states, on the authority of an intelligent merchant of the city of New York, who has been spending the past six months in Europe, and had the best opportunities of observation, that the sentiment in England was universal against the United States on the subject of Dr. Geo. The Government was making the most vigorous preparations for war, and unequivocally with reference alone to the Oregon dispute as with France, and all the nations of Europe, she is without controversy on any subject. A very large contract had been made, among other things, for military clothing in Canada. Indeed, it was said that the Government were determined upon the necessity of settling the difficulty with our further delay.

The same paper further states that "the opinion of the passengers to whom the President's Message was read, on board the Cambria, was, that it would very much increase the excitement in England, and increase the difficulty of an amicable settlement."

Shields, William Trice, William Pearson, John Marcum, Mordecai Sears, Harris Wilkerson, Williamson Parrish, America Wheeler, Charles Wilson.

On motion of Allen Parks, the proceedings of this meeting were ordered to be published in the Standard and Recorder.

JOHN BERRY, Ch'r.

WILLIAM H. BROWN, } Secretaries.

MURDER AND SUICIDE.

A Mr. B. Holmes, of Dallas County, shot Mrs. McKee, daughter of Major J. C. K. Pool, of this County, (Perry, Albemarle) with a revolving pistol, on Friday last; and then shot himself. The deed was done at the house of Mrs. McKee's brother-in-law, in Dallas, and in his parlor. Mrs. McKee was shot immediately above the left eye; Holmes also in the head, with two balls; and neither spoke. The particulars of the extraordinary case, we may give next week, if placed in possession of them from a source upon which we can rely. Unrequited love is said to have been the cause.

The time will come when this medicine, BRANDRETH'S PILLS, will be appreciated as they ought, and deserve it will be well understood that Dr. Brandreth has the strongest claims upon the public. It is true that every individual who makes trial of the Brandreth Pills, concedes them to be the best medicine they ever used. They are indeed a medicine about which there is no mistake. Their value in a climate so changeable as ours cannot be sufficiently appreciated. A fee preparation is at once restored; thus they cure colds, and consumption is prevented.
