Splendid Spring & Summer Assortment

Long, Webb & Co. AVE received a very large stock of Staple and Fancy Dry Gords, consisting of all artiand Fancy Dry Goords, consisting of all arti-cies usually kept for country trade. They would invite the attention of buy as to their assortment. Their Goods will be sold very low for Cash. Particular attention is invited to the following, which are comprised in the assortment: Damostics, Bed Tacks, 2 heetings, Cotton and kiness Auren Chen'tz Ginedone.

Denostics, Bed Tarks, Sheetings, Cotton and Linea Apren Cheeks, Ginghams, Prints, Boys' and Man's Summer Clothing, White and Print-ed Muslins of all prices, some very handsome, Bleached Shirtings, Long Cloth, Brown Hollands, Brown and high Lineas, and Cruel and Canvas. For mourning goods they have a very large and handsome assertment, consisting of Alpacas, Berages, Balzarines, Giughams, and Calicors. Also, Linen Cambrie and Silk Handkerchiefs, Printed Lywns, Organdie Muslins, Swiss Mus-lin Cold Dresses, French Cambrie Muslims, Gingskirts, Bornet and Cap Ribands, Fancy Barage, Skirts, Bornet and Basket Scarts, Black and Fancy Grenalist and Basket Scarts, Black and Fancy Dross Handkerchiefs, Honeycomb da, Ladies Black and Fancy Mitts, Long Mitts, Gimps, and Buttons for trimming dresses.

Also, Cloths, Cassimeres, Vestings, Pancy and Plain Searls and Cravats, Collars, Bosoms, Suspen lors, Stocks, and Gentlemen's Gloves.

A very large and chesp assortment of Bonners, such as Florence. Rutland, and English Straw.

Lawn and Lace Worked Bonnets, Artificials, Rosetts, Cap Tales, Straw Gimp, Panama, Leghorn and Palm Leaf Hats, a general assortment of Fur-

Hardware, (including Carpenters' Tools,) Carriage Trimmings, Crockery, Castings, Groceries, School Books, Letter and Note Envelops, Fan-ey Inkstands, Scals, Pearl Letter Folders, Steel

Bends, and Bag Claspa.

A very large, handsome, and cheap assortment of Parasols and Walking-cane Umbrellas, a new article, Walking Canes, Cooking Stoves, Potatoe Boilers, Looking Glasses, Combs., Performery, Soaps, Brushes, Whips, Band Boxes, &c. &c.

NEW GOODS.

THE subscribers, having received a full handsome assertment of Spring Goods.

would respectfully solicit the inspection of the

A. MICKLE & CO. April 13.

JUST RECEIVED, and For Sale by

LONG, WEBB & CO., Fresh Hops, Stoughton's Wine Bit-Presh Lime Juice. Proof Vials, Mouth Aromas, Saddle-bag Vials, Rose Tooth Paste, Aqua Fortis, Hull's Trusses, Children's Gum Elasti Stone, Inda Rubber Pitch Plas-Trusses, Best Cologne. Farr's Sulph. Quinine, Copal Varnish, Do. French Do. Coach Do. Patent Fuse, for Blasting.

Also, a good assortment of Carriage Trim mings. May 24.

30 Dollars Reward.

RAN away from the subscriber, some time SON. He was purchased of Thos. W. Holden, and has a brother living with Mrs. Nancy Turreutine, widow of Saml. Turrentine, below Turner's Mill, and one belonging to Mrs. White, and may be luking in that section of Orange. The above reward will be given to any one who wili apprehend him and lodge him in the jail at Hills-

GEORGE F. CORNALLY. Milton, N. C., April 17.

Spring Goods.

WE are now receiving our Spring Goods, and shall open during this and next week a large and complete assortment, which we shall seil very low, particularly for Cash.

LONG, WEBB & CO.

THE subscriber has located himself in the town of Hillsborough, at the house kept by R. F. Morris, where he has on hand some fine Horses for sale, or to let, on reasonable terms. Persons hiring horses of him will be held responsible for all injuries the horses may receive while let. Terms, one dollar per day, in advance,

N. S. HUNDLEY. May 3. 77-3m

NOTICE THIS!

THE partnership of Workman & Utley having been dissolved by mutual consent, and the undersigned having, on the first day of December, 1846, formed a co-partnership in the Carriage Making Business.

would inform the citizens of Hillshorough, and the county at large, that they are now prepared to execute all work in their line of business in a style that will compare with any made in this part of the country. Our timbers are well seasoned and of good quality. Work shall not only be done to suit the times, but lower than usual for cash. Persons from the country will find our shop two doors above Nelson's Store, at the place formerly occupied by Mr. Henry Gorman.

UTLEY & CULBRETH. February 22.

APROPOS OF PARMERS.

I know a farmer who has but fifteen acres of land, off of which he supports rest the coras with. It could not be other- has studied geography, and gather the good and the beautiful about they so often permit them to be dark and his family—he continues to get 40 bush- wise than that all within the mom should geology, and nobody knows what he the spot, whatever and wherever it may unfurnished, and crowded with the coarels wheat from an acre, and from 50 to 70 inhale the smake arising from the rosin. sides? There's Sally Simpson—" be, that the beloved calls home; to hedge bushels of Indian corn, besides com-fod-der in abundance; instead of impoverishing his land by these heavy crops, such is his economy in saving, making, and applying his manures, that his farm grows besides corn-fod-der in abundance; instead of impoverishing his land by these heavy crops, such is his economy in saving, making, and applying his manures, that his farm grows bis having inhated the resinent smoke.

To the surprise of the afficied one his temperated one his better than a genteel trifler with books, the discord and tamult of the world cannot be the discord and tamult of the discord an richer. This farmer applies his knowl. He remained better during the day, and e Pshaw! a lover's nonsense! There's in this beautiful work, the heart expands, cauge of figures to his own calling. He without consulting his doctor, repeated Sally Sunpson; she's somebody. She hour by hour; how the exercise of patience the window-seats, the nice mats, the tis-ameliorated by quartz and limestone peb-bles, with a sprinkling of small boulders. He harely subsists his lamily, in a very primitive way, on the avails of his 78 a-cres. His cornfield is plowed, or rather half plowed, late in the spring, the weeds improved that he contemplated returning "There's Sally Simpson! she's just the ly. A sweet vision of domestic life, rich run a race with the late planted corn, un- to his native country; he delayed, how- one for a smart youth like him, just the beyond measure in heart treasures, was til late in June, when the hoe and the ever, doing so until a year had expired, one; he'll be sorry, one of these days, before me, and I feared no longer. plane give the stunned plants the end of Still persisting in his new found remedy he'll be sorry!"

At the risk of seeming intrusive, I callthe race. Now comes a drought, the alhis bealth was completely restored, and ready enfeebled plants have no organic be was once more a sound man.

At the risk of seeming intrusive, I calland dusters. I learned to love them, years after their return from a trip to Cape May.

Smith, an hour after, adjusting a stray after their return from a trip to Cape May. hence they are pinched by that very influence which gives fruition to the well-tense of foreign intelligence by the Cambridgenian and an excuse for his short crop of Indian American, has matured an invention, by corner; thus saving his pride at the expense corn; thus corner to the restrict than the prior that the expense diminished during there is a stone building, standing far back from the road, and nestling beneath tall, drooping during my school days. Oh, those bright road, and nestling beneath tall, drooping and an excussion that the expense of foreign intelligence by the Cambridgence corner and an excussion of foreign intelligence by the Cambridgence corner and an excussion of foreign intelligence by the Cambridgence corner and corner and corner and his crop is always foul, sometimes short, pelled at the rate of 24 miles an hour; at "Yet I can searcely credit it. So pret-tendrils. Small, diamond shaped glass fresh air, as if to join in the merriment! ordinary comforts of civilization; go to of Morse's Telegraph, both inventions of "Yes, but pride must have a fall," re- ly about them, that but small portions of 23- by the fire. Ask him to subscribe for an ted States, and is expected in the Sarah her lowered a trifle." sy; all the Goth and Vandal in him is tion of the American Government. aroused. "I want no book to teach me how to farm. Look at my neighbor Pro- Education in Prussia. - All the chilhis Durhams, and Berkshires, and all his teen years are directed to be either sent to far as to be engaged to a mechanic. big crops! He spends it all; it only school or educated at home by their pamakes his family proud; how mad it rents. If the latter plan is preferred, the makes me to see his children sent by here municipal authorities are to be informed since, a negro man by the name of ATKIN- that German love of the beautiful and true, monly awarded by police tribunals-that restless Americans. While we strain af- The parents are also deprived, as a measfences; all is neat, clean, and arable. The otherwise. The number of children thus house rather plain; if it displays no taste, educated is stated by M. Cousin to have fences permanent and strong; what is lacking about these premises in ornament, is amply made up in neatness, and the appearance of positive comfort. This man modestly says, " Ich can night guth En- in August, and so on, as follows: glish lezen." Still he takes the papers, and the well thumbed leaves of his last year's Cultivator, show that its contents have been understandingly read by him.

I know another farmer, a gentleman, a scholar, and a christian, so far as the fashable modification of christianity will admit. He complains that he cannot farm by book, because his hired men object to the drudgery of the prescribed preparations. He speaks twice to his horses, where he condescends to speak once to his men. Yet, strange to say, he boasts of the cleverness of his horses, while he complains of the intractability of his men!!

I know another farmer, a book farmer if you please, a new beginner, but an enthusiast in his calling. He soon found that he could do nothing by way of improvement, without awakening in the mind of his head-man, or factotum, an enthusiasm akin to his own. This man at first pers.

I know another farmer who has 78 ahis wedical advisor, who was equally derly gentleman. "There's no hope! vitality, increasing the will, and doubling eres of land, a fine calcareous clay loam, surprised with bimself at the improve the better managed than his corn field, but land, by which steam vessels can be pro- it was a disgrace to the family." and the grains generally shrunken. To which ratio of spend the Atlantic will be ty and accomplished, and her grandmother crowded the windows, and heightened I see the whole now, just as I saw it then, bring the year about without running into crossed in five days! This will take its so foul of her, and loading her with pre- the agreeably antique air of the whole; debt, this man pinches his family in the place, in this era of discovery, by the side sents, jewels, and laces, and silks!" his house in the winter's day, ten to one Americans. Mr. Parkhurst has secured plied Kate, with ill-concealed triumph, them were visible. As I approached, I he is asleep on his bed, or sitting cosily patents in France, England, and the Uni- "and for my part, I'm not sorry to see caught the notes of a favorite song, and agricultural paper, and he is no longer co- Sands, to being the discovery to the atten- "You are quite sine Mrs. Eston was of Charlotte, and the mellow bass of her every day to the village school." I do in what manner the education is provided. not retort upon this man the fact, that his If the former, attendance is ensured by district school cannot be respectably sus- keeping lists of absentees, and submitting tained, because the district contains too them at short stated intervals, to the inmany such men as himself. I let him spection of local committees. These are alone in his glory. I assail no man, who, empowered to summon the parents in case like the hedgehog, is armed at all'points, of negligence, and to reprimand them; I know another farmer, a mild, quiet or, in extreme cases, to publish them by German, who seems instinctively to have the infliction of such penalties as are comwhich is only an acquired taste with us is, we presume, by fine and imprisonment. ter the ultimate good, they quietly im- ure of extreme rigor, of all participation prove that which is within their reach, in the public provision for the poor, On This man's farm gives an earnest of the the other hand, if poverty be the cause of industry and good sense of its proprietor, absence, the commune is to furnish need Not a thistle, not a briar, no alder bound ful assistance in the shape of clothes or neither is it like too many of our fine farm been 2.043,030 in the year 1831-a numhouses-a carricature on all orders, and ber which, after deducting unavoidable good taste to boot. The barn is large, absentees, embraces the whole population well ventilated, with painted blinds; the between seven and fourteen years of age. Fraser's Magazine.
Now, nevy! Reasoning is thrown away.

> THE ELECTIONS IN 1847. The next general elections take place

	Kentucky,	Monday,	August	21
ä	Indiana,	#	44
١	Illinois,	44	64
Ŋ	Missouri,		44
Ì	Alabama,	66	44
ď	North Carolina,	Thursday,		5
d	Tennessee,	100	**
	Maine,	Monday,	September	6
	Vermont,	Tuesday,	11.44	7
9	Georgia,	Monday,	October	- 4
	Arkansas,	*	Marine.	4
	Florida,		**
	Maryland,	Wednesday,	44	6
ę	South Carolina,	Monday,	44	11
,	Pennsylvania,	Tuesday,	196	12
١	Ohio,	44	44
1	Michigan,	Monday,	November	- 1
i	Mississippi,	- 44	- 46
	Louisiana,		46
	Texas,			4
i	New York,	Tuesday,		21
ų	New Jersey,	14	44
١	Massachusetts,	Monday,	44	-8
ı	Delaware,	Tuesday,		9

The Banns Forbidden !- On the third then." demutred to hauling swamp muck into the publication of the banns of a marriage at ... "But then, my dear Susie, your views, "We had almost forgotten the kitchen," he could not find them in a week. Then barn yard, lest it should spoil the manure. Benchly parish church, on Sunday last, a and the views of your fashionable friends. said Charlotte, after an animated account she drew an arm-chair, a particularly easy Now he has become an ardent student in young woman rose and said! "I forbid are exceedingly contracted upon the sub- of her visit to the sea-shore, which had one, into the little porch opening from vegetable growth and nutrition, as it is the banns," "Why !" asked the clergy- ject of labor, and forgive me if I add, not brought to my very ears the rush of the the kitchen, and seated him so that he taught in the agricultural papers of the man. "Because I wanthim myself," was a little irreligious. This particular case, sleepless billow. "Do you know that I could enjoy the western breeze, and, at day. Here is at least one laboring man, the reply; "and I hold in my hand his however, appeals so strongly to your pre- am to boil my own kettle, and cook my the same time, watch her light labors, exalted from the character of a mercenary written promise of marriage to me,"

From the Christian Watchman. THE NEW HOME.

Cute for Consumption.—An officer is a thick-set, jovial-looking man, with a ped back more merrily than she came, the British service, resident in the East reguish twinkle in his eye, as he walked. Yet even I could but admit a few cow-of Lis pocket. His wheat fallow is a lit- the vessel, which has been tested in Eng- ing way, just as if she really didn't think and only patches of the roof were seen at ing in the level sunbeams, the open doors not joking, are you, Kate?"

"Certainly, oh, certainly!" and Kate she was fairly in the house, cried, " Will stones, to meet me. von believe it, Mrs. S. ! Charlotte is actually engaged to Sidney Merton."

ment, these six months."

and so genteel, and agreeable, and-" fine looking, and well-bred." "Yes, but then his means are so limibread, and sweeping, and doing all those the heart in it, I am sure." things; obliged to do it, Mrs. S."

ment in the parlor."

away."

the according to the moment's whim."

judices, that I cannot hope to benefit you own bread, Gracie, dear?"

parlor."

says he cannot afford to grow half a crop, as the deterioration in fences, and the interest of money on the land is the same, the hid not known for years.

Thus night he slept soundly—a bleasing and hrew; she'll he a help to a man."

Yes, unele, but a man wants sometivity sends the blood in its quickened thing beside dollars and cents. He window-seats, the nice mats, the the window-seats, the nice mats, the five water, bubbling into a receiver in a receiver mathematical interest and the window-seats, the nice mats, the five water, bubbling into a receiver in a receiver water, water, bubbling into a receiver in a receiver water, water, bubbling into a receiver in a receiver water, bubbling into a receiver water, water, bubbling into a receiver water, bubbling into a receiver water, bubbling ringlet. "Altogether absurd! Charlotte Their house was a small old fashioned. affection was by no means diminished husband.

" Love, music, and shrubbery," I said rose to take leave, balf afraid that her to myself, and, thinking a third party and dusting!" gress, he is a book farmer. What use are dren between the age of seven and four- dreaded rival had not absolutely fallen so might not be quite welcome, I was on the point of turning away, when a white dress Charlotte, conducting me into the very The same afternoon, Susie Eston came fluttered in the door-way, and my friend, midst of scrubbing brushes, tubs, baskers tripping through my garden, and before glecful as a bird, bounded over the flag- for wet clothes, for dry clothes, for the > duster, is a subject for deliberation. So unfashionable length. "And Sidney is energetic, industrious, upon such weighty matters give us the And get, after returning home, instead benefit of your experience.'

ted. Only imagine Charlotte making grasp is a right cordial one. It carries task. But Summer gave place to Autumn.

scanned each article in the room, and I money spending. "Ah! you have given me one drop of felt sure that the most fastidious could Mr. Grey, Sidney's kind-hearted, but comfort ; but, after all, I cannot help think- suggest nothing better, the circumstances advice-giving, and somewhat despotic, ing that Charlotte is throwing herself considered. There were no lounges or bachelor uncle, did not, at first, call on "And why throwing herself away ! chandeliers, nothing that contrasted gla- perhaps, for Charlotte learned all his pecu-She does not diminish her beautiful gifts. ringly or unpleasantly, with the homeliest harities from her husband, and was, there-They will be unfailing sources of refined details of a mechanic's life. But there fore, better able to make her house attrace happiness both to herself and friends; and was a charming quietness. The very air tive when his first displeasure was over. I mistake her much, if she will sigh for seemed to brood with a lulling power, He made his appearance one afternoon an opportunity to cast her jewels to the over the books, and pictures, and blos- early in September. No. he could not the crowd, to be gathered or trampled upon, soms. "Ah!" I mentally exclaimed, "Sid- think of stopping, be was in a great hurney Merton can but love this spot. Here ry, great hurry; business pressing, very. "Oh, no, no, indeed! but then, - but his heart must gather both warmth and But somehow, Mrs. Merton contrived to strength."

much by reasoning, or illustration. We . You !" I glatter d at her fragile figure, will talk about it again, in Charlotte's her enowy forthead, and dainty hands, which verily seemed made for nothing Hum! ha! so you're engaged!" said test ugly parlors;" and the lively girl tripcate fingers, Charlotte?"

Yet even I could but admit a few cow- "Why not? Are not white ones as ledies, had been stricken with this tend into his nephew's shop, one fine Spring ardly fears. "They have been educated good as brown ones?" and a ringing laught discuss and was reduced by it to nearly a marning. Going to marry Charlatte so differently," I said. "Charlotte has went floating through the window, and skeleton. His friends looked upon him Staughton, els?" and set his cane rather teen accustomed to such entire freedom! lost itself in the thicket, " Wait and see, as a doopted man, and he himself had heavily on the floor. given up all hoper of long constanance of The young man whom he addressed, husband? How can she struggle for per-life. He was one morning crawling about an active, intelligent mechanic, blushed, fection, render her house attractive, and, baked. Survey my kingdom, and say if his grounds and accidentally went into a turned half round, and stammered, "Why at the same time, make not too frequent demands upon resources which must long opened a door as she spoke, and then entrance had just melted some rosin to does a poor fellow want of a woman that

" I agree with him, entirely; but the objection you have named, cannot be made to yours," and I looked with satisfaction upon the pleasant green of the

After I had completed my survery, we passed on to a nice, airy toom, which was to serve se store room and buttery. Rows of maple boxes, glass jars, barrels and buckets, britannis and net covers, and piles of coarse napkins, still more effectuilly to shut out dust, met my gaze.

was really ashamed of my prolonged scrutiny, and inquired for the utensils we were to locate. "You will laugh, Mr. Merton," said I, " but I must confess that intervals, so close were the interwoven and windows, through which rushed the Then, too, the laugh became more heartthough, in truth, the foliage clung so thick- felt and musical, the humor richer, the wit brighter, the sympathy more ready. the love quicker and wider in its manifessoon distinguished the clear, sweet voice rejected the idea of delegating to others tations. How heartily should we have the charming task of sweeping our study rooms and dormirones! Ah! if all domestic labor could but be merged in sweeping

" Here is proof to the contrary," said newly ironed, for the unmended; and she "I am glad you have come," she said, was so lively, and Sidney so busy with it is so quiet and homelike. Besides, twine, knife and hammer, that I might "I have expected such an announce. I want you to help us plan. Sidney de- have emyed until midnight, had not the clares that the place for each article of village clock, striking ten, reminded me "But Charlotte is such a fine scholar, household furniture, down to the mop and that my call had been protiscied to a most of bravely trueting, I feared that, the no-" Gladly ! Ah. Mr. Merton, your hand- velty over, my friend would weary of her Autumn to Winter, and still she was with-"It does in this case, at least," and ont assistance, except on Mondaye, when "Will not the exercise improve her with a glow of proud pleasure, he usher- a cleanly widow of the village, washed health, and will not the skill thus acquired me into a little parlor, which, in my and scoured for her. She was never worn ed give her a delicious feeling of indepen- delight, I really believed the very pretti- out or dispirited. True, her pearly skin est one in the world. A Lowell carpet, lost something of its extreme delicacy, "Oh, I don't know. But to think of with a pattern of oak leaves and acores, her dimpled hand was a butle embrowned, a close cap, and a morning gown, and an covered the floor, the low, broad window and her fingers I thought less flexible; a odious great apron! h's a different thing, seats were filled with geraniums, verbenas, preuty calico, or de laine dress, took the this sentiment in the kitchen, from senti- beliotropes, orange trees, and encluses, place of moelin and silk, and the crimped and four niches sunk in the wall, were collar displaced entirely the elegant Brus-.. It is not sentiment that the heart occupied with choice books in substantial sels lace she used to wear. The most craves, dear Susie, but love; deep, pure, bindings, the joint library of the young agreeable gatherings in the village were abiding love; and when this is once im- couple. Upon the mantel were two pret- at her house. Only a few people were planted, the things you speak of, have ty pictures, the work of Charlotte in rose- invited at a time, and music, conversano adverse influence. Let a smile be on wood frames, and between them was a tion, pictures, papers, and periodicals, the lip, and the love light in the eye; large sea-shell, filled with flowers. A with the graceful, cordi-I hostess, and the then if the cap is clean, and the hair par- little ebony stand, covered with sewing sensible, happy host, left nothing to deted evenly beneath it, if the morning dress implements, stood in a corner, and two sire. My friend was neither westied is an exactly fitting diess, not a slovenly small tables were loaded with excellent with the proparation, nor secretly disturbwrapper, and the great apron is smooth engravings. Upon a folio Bible lay Sid- ed at the expense. Baskets of cake and and spotless, believe me, they positively ney's finte, a very fine one, as I often ac- fruit stood upon a side table, of which the heighten the charms of a wife, and are far knowledged, with scores of mental thanks guests partook at pleasure, but there were more agreeable to a husband than satins to the owner, in the moonlight evenings no oysters or ices, or wines, or any of the and ribons, and all the ornaments of the of the previous Summer. I carefully thousand and one modes of ostentations attemans, no fautenils, or mirrors, or the young people, It was quite as well, hide his hat and cane where she asserted With a tolerable grace Mr. Grey accept-