Wild turkeys are 25 cents apiece in Missouri.

There has been an universal snow storm north.

Seven dollars is still the per diem of our Legislature.

The Statesville American says that a revival is in progress at Taylorsville. Twenty persons have joined the Presbyterian Church.

Dr. Blackall, the hotelist in Ridgeway, has decided not to charge northern visitors to look at the country but two dollars a day. Regular fare is three dollars.

The Danville Register says that old inhabitants accustomed to watch the signs of the weather assert that a heavy persimmon crop this season forebodes a severe winter.

THE MESSAGE.

The message of Gov. Holden we design publishing extracts from. It is an able and interesting document, and is tempered with moderation and good sense.

It was said that attorney Gen. ... had come out in favor of a contraction of the currency, but Mr. Boutwell will oppose any contraction of the amount of the currency, and he will be sustained by a majority of Congress.

The Colt with but two fore legs—no hind ones—and that was ... the fair in Richmond—lately died at the fair in Wilmington. It was 71 months old. The skeleton of the ... will be sent to the Smithsonian Institute at Washington.

Wolves have made their appearance near Sasfras Fork in Granville county and are making night hideous with their howling. They have already destroyed some four or five hundred dollars worth of property. So says the Ridgeway Press.

Mr. Hodnett, of Caswell, has introduced a bill into the Legislature to repeal the tax on tobacco. If there be a preponderance of good sense in this Legislature Mr. Hodnett will get his bill through. But as yet there are grave doubts as to the sanity of the biggest half.

Senator Welker of Guilford has introduced a bill to allow the directors of railroads the privilege to widen the gauge of their roads. The most zealous friends of the N. C. R. Road are intensely against this bill. They think they see in it the death of the Carolina Central—time will prove.

OLD HORSES AND POLITICS.

Great men have had much more foolish sayings canonized than that of an old negro man the other day who gave his opinion about politics thusly: "Master, I's done wid old horses and politics. De fust dres on my hands a t'r I bize 'em; and de 'tud dres done dead a t' I gits 'em." You are mighty right, Uncle. We wish that a great many white folks were of your way of Hard work will tell. But ten months ago this old and time honored journal passed into its present hands. To-day we thank our people for their honest and hearty support.

To-morrow—maybe next week—maybe next year—we design enlarging—maybe running a semi-weekly—who knows? We wish in a short time to get a new set of job and newspaper type. In addition it is our desire to employ a first class reporter who will be in attendance at the Legislature and all other places where our people have any interest.

We are going to run a newspaper. We are going to run the best newspaper in the South. This is our boast (that of a puny man) and may God help us to carry it out.

The path lies before our eyes. We have been walking in it. We are going to plumb it—if we can. It is hedged on both sides with the briars and thorns of prejudice and political hate and abuse—but if we can keep straight on it will eventually lead into the green fields where plenty drops her fatness, and where "peace hath her victories no less renowned than war." We are "marching on."

A CHRISTIAN BOY.

"What is the use of being in the world unless you are somebody?" said a boy to his friend.

"Sure enough, and I mean to be," answered the other. "I began this very day. I mean to be somebody."

Ashton looked George in the face. "Begin to-day? how? What do you mean to be?"

"A Christian boy? and so grow up to be a Christian man," said George. "I believe that is the greatest 'somebody' for us to be."

"George is right. There is no higher manhood than Christian manhood; and it is in the power of every boy to reach that. Every boy cannot be rich; every boy cannot be President; every boy cannot be Judge; but every boy can be a Christian boy, and grow up a Christian man; and that is what God asks you to be. He asks you to be His Jesus, and so, with His Son Jesus Christ, to be heirs of the kingdom of heaven."

A Trenton (N. J.) paper knows of an interesting colored man who devised a petition addressed to the Common Council of that city, asking for an enlargement of the schoolhouse for colored children. It occurred to him that the signs of certain white children were serviceable, and he proceeded to send out a large number. Just where the laugh comes in is, the petition commences, "We, the parents of colored children," &c. "Wasn't it horrid?"

This space is paid for by Fleming the Worm Confection Man.

Dr. Lawrence's. HIGHLY COCAINATED COMPOUND EXTRACT OF KOSKOO! The Great Health Restorer! Not a Quack Medicine—Formula aroud the Bottle. Prepared Solely by J. J. LAWRENCE, M. D. Omic Chemist, Norfolk, Va.

Dr. J. J. Lawrence, Chemist, Norfolk, Va. and the word Kosko, is blown on the glass of each bottle. Kosko is endorsed by the best physicians everywhere, and the following from Dr. Tillery, a successful practitioner of many years standing the Old North State: Rocky Mount, Dec. 10, 1869.

Dr. J. J. Lawrence—Dear Sir: I have used your Concentrated Fluid Extract of Kosko in my practice with the happiest results. I find it to be a powerful Liver Invigorator for Blood under and Nervous Tonic. In all diseases of the Liver, Scrophulous Syphilitic, Nervous Affections, it is a remedy of immense value in fact, in almost every variety of Chronic Disease its use is indicated. Hoping you may meet with the success which you deserve as a manufacturer of reliable medicine, I am, Sir, with much respect, your obedient servant, R. C. TILLERY, M. D.

From Dr. Fentress, an accomplished and experienced physician. Princess Anne Court House, Va. Sept. 13, 1869.

J. J. Lawrence, M. D.—Dear Sir: I have carefully examined the formula, as well as the Therapeutic properties of your Kosko compound, and have prescribed it in some stubborn cases of Chronic Liver Affections, Dyspepsia, General Debility, &c., and always with the most gratifying results. I find it to be a powerful Tonic, Alterative, and Hepatic combination, accomplishing its constitutional effects without the slightest debility; in fact it gives fine support to the General system while its alternative effects are being produced. I cheerfully recommend its use to the public. Yours, truly, T. J. FENTRESS, M. D.

Kosko cures Scrophula in its worst Forms. From Mr. A. W. Mills, a prominent and well known merchant of Norfolk, Va.

No. 11, Main St., Norfolk, Va., Sept. 15, 1869. Dr. Lawrence—Dear Sir: Your Kosko has worked wonders in my family. My daughter has been a sufferer from Scrophulous since childhood. She lost thirty-one pieces of bone from her ankle, several from her arm, besides having several several parts amputated. While in this condition she commenced taking your Kosko—it acted like a charm on her—under its use the ulcers gradually healed, and her general health greatly improved. It certainly saved her much suffering, and perhaps her life. I regard Kosko as specific for all scrophulous affections. Your Kosko also cured my wife of dyspepsia from which she suffered greatly. She is now in better health than she has been in five years.

With the highest regards, I am gratefully yours &c., A. W. MILLS.

Kosko, the Great Invigorator—Read the following from the Rev. Joseph E. Martin, pastor of Wesley Chapel, Portsmouth, Va. J.

"This is to certify that myself and wife have used Dr. Lawrence's Kosko, and can testify to its beneficial effects. Previous to taking it we were in condition of debility—had no appetite, and suffered from sudden and often violent attacks of headache and nervousness. Two bottles of Kosko has improved our general health, and we regard it as invaluable, and most cheerfully recommend it to all who have need of an invigorator. Yours, &c. JOSEPH E. MARTIN. KOSKOO!

Cures Chronic Rheumatism. Norfolk, Va. September 7, 1869.

Dr. J. J. Lawrence—Dear Sir: My son has received so much benefit from your wonderful Kosko that I cannot refrain from expressing my gratitude. I had tried almost everything without benefit. I believe, in all sincerity, that your Kosko is an infallible Remedy for the disease from which he has suffered, and, so far as I can learn, has never failed. If you only knew the immense amount of suffering that he has undergone, then you could conceive the value of such a remedy as Kosko—that surely cures. The great amount of good it is now doing among us is inestimable.

With much gratitude, I am respectfully yours, &c. Mrs. M. E. ANELSON.

Dr. Lawrence—Dear Sir: Having been treated by several skillful physicians for Dyspepsia, Chronic Disease of Kidneys, General Debility, &c., without benefit, as a last resort I commenced the use of your Kosko, and am pleased to say that under its use my health has been entirely restored. I am, Sir, with much respect your obedient servant, O. BEARS. No. 5 Market St. Norfolk, Va. July 1869.

Pacific, Franklin Co N. C. Sept 1869. This is to certify that for a long time I suffered very much from inaction of the liver and constipation of the bowels and tried several remedies, but received no benefit until I commenced taking Kosko. I took the medicine about one month, and I was completely cured and have remained well. I know of several cures made by Kosko, and can cordially recommend it as a good medicine. JOHN H. BAKER. From Mr. Womble, a prominent hardware merchant of Norfolk, Virginia. Dr. Lawrence—Dear Sir: To the large number of testimonials which you offer of the great efficacy of your Kosko, I take pleasure in adding my own. I suffered greatly with Nervous Debility, Headache, Loss of Appetite, &c. Two bottles of Kosko restored me to health. Yours, J. G. WOMBLE.

From Rev. W. H. Christian, Pastor Dinwiddie St. Methodist Church: Portsmouth, Va. Oct. 25, 1869.

This is to certify that I know Dr. Lawrence well. He is a gentleman of cultivation, and worthy the fullest confidence. I have used his "Kosko" with advantage to myself, and have adopted its use in my family in cases of nervous debility and depression. W. H. CHRISTIAN. FOR SALE BY ALL DRUGGISTS. For Sale by W. A.
